(3) In an appropriate term prior to providing an investment or ancillary service to a professional client, the investment intermediary shall provide the client with the information under Art. 32 paras. 3 and 4.

(4) The information under paras. 1-3 shall be provided to the client on a durable medium or on the investment intermediary's web site, where this does not constitute a durable medium, while observing the requirements under Art. 15, para. 2.

(5) An investment intermediary shall ensure the conformity of the information which is contained in its advertising materials and the public statements of the members of the intermediary's management and control bodies and of the persons working under a contract for it, to the information which it provides to the clients when performing investment and ancillary services.

(6) The investment intermediary shall notify in due time the client of any substantial change in the circumstances under Art. 9, 10, 18 and 32 which have bearing on the offered service to the client. The notification shall be done on durable medium, if the information to which it relates, has been provided on a durable medium to the client.

(7) Where advertising materials or public statements by the members of the investment intermediary's management and control bodies or by the persons working under a contract for it contain an offer or an invitation indicated in para 8, and specify the method of reply or the form, in which the reply of the client is to be provided, they have to contain such part of the information under Art. 9, 10, 18 and 34 which is proportionate to the offer or the invitation.

(8) Paragraph 7 shall apply to advertising materials or public statements by the members of the investment intermediary's management and control bodies or by persons working under a contract for it, which contain proposals and invitations of the following type:

1. an offer for conclusion of a contract, with the subject of financial instrument or an investment or ancillary service with any person who replies to the notification;
2. an invitation to each person who replies to the notification to make a proposal for conclusion of a contract, with the subject of financial instrument or an investment or ancillary service.

(9) In cases where a potential retail client must acquaint himself with documents containing the information under Art. 9, 10, 18 and 32, in order to reply to the proposal or invitation contained in the advertising materials or the public statements, para 7 shall not apply.

Art. 9. (1) An investment intermediary shall provide retail clients and potential retail clients with the following general information, if applicable:

1. the business name and address of the investment intermediary, as well as telephone and/or other information for contact with the investment intermediary;
2. the languages in which the client may communicate and keep correspondence with the investment intermediary and to receive documents and other information by the intermediary;
3. the ways of communication which are used between the investment intermediary and its clients, including where applicable, the ways of forwarding and acceptance of orders;
4. explicit indication that the investment intermediary is licensed, as well as indication of the name and address of the authority who has issued the license;
5. the type, the periodicity and the deadline for submitting the reports and the confirmations to a client in connection with the investment services and activities performed;
6. a concise description of the steps that the intermediary undertakes in order to guarantee the client financial instruments or cash, in the cases where the intermediary holds such for the client, including a concise description of any relevant investor compensation or deposit guarantee schemes in which the investment intermediary participates in relation to its operation in a Member State;
7. a description, which may also be in a summarized form, of the policy for handling conflicts of interest under Art. 75 para 1 item 4 applied by the investment intermediary;
8. additional detailed information on the handling of conflicts of interest policy; the information shall be provided upon request by the client on a durable medium, or on the investment intermediary's website where this does not constitute providing on a durable medium, while observing the requirements set under Art. 15, para. 2.

(2) In the cases where the investment intermediary manages an individual portfolio of a client, the intermediary shall apply an appropriate method for assessment and comparison as a generally accepted benchmark, based on the client's investment purposes and the types of financial instruments included in the client portfolio, in such a manner that the client making use of the service may assess the performance of the service by the investment intermediary.

(3) In the cases where the investment intermediary offers to a retail client, or to a potential retail client, the service of portfolio management, the intermediary shall, apart from the information under para. 1, provide the client also with the following information where applicable:

1. information about the method and periodicity of assessing the financial instruments in the client portfolio;
2. details of each delegation of the management of all or a part of the financial instruments and/or money in a client portfolio;
3. characteristics and information on each benchmark by which the portfolio management results shall be assessed;
4. the types of financial instruments which may be included in a client portfolio and the types of transactions which may be concluded with them, any restrictions inclusive;
5. the management objectives, the risk level contained in the assessment of the person managing the portfolio, as well as all specific restrictions of that assessment.

Art. 10. (1) The investment intermediary shall provide the client and the potential client with a general description of the financial instruments and the associated with them risks. The description has to be conformed to the client's type (professional and retail) and shall meet the following requirements:

1. to contain detailed description of the type and the characteristics of the specific financial instrument and of the specific risks associated with it;
2. the information under item 1 is to allow the client to take informed investment decision.

(2) The description of the risk shall include the following elements, insofar as applicable for the specific type of financial instrument, the status and level of knowledge of the client:

1. indication of the risks associated with the specific type of financial instruments, including explanation of the leverage and its consequences and the risk of losing the whole investment made;
2. the volatility of the financial instruments' price and all market restrictions pertaining to these instruments;
3. the circumstance that the investor may undertake as a result of transactions in financial instruments, financial and other additional liabilities, including unforeseen liabilities that are additional to the expenses for the instruments' acquisition;
4. all margin requirements or similar liabilities applicable to the instruments of this type.

(3) The Deputy Chairman in charge of Investment Activity Supervision Division, hereinafter referred to as "deputy chairman", may specify the contents of the risk description under para. 1 and 2.

(4) Where the financial instruments are subject of public offering carried out on the grounds of a published prospectus in compliance with the provisions of Directive 2003/71/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council on prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading and amending Directive 2001/34/EC (Directive 2003/71/EC); the investment intermediary shall inform the retail client and the potential retail client of the place where the prospectus is accessible for the public.

(5) In the cases where the risks associated with a financial instrument consisting of two or more different financial instruments or services, are likely to be higher than the risks related to any of its components, the investment intermediary shall submit an adequate description of the financial instrument's components and of the way in which their interaction enhances the risks.

(6) In the cases where the financial instruments include a guarantee by a third person, the investment intermediary shall provide a retail client and a potential retail client with sufficient data on the guarantor and the guarantee, which shall allow the client to make an objective assessment of the guarantee.

Art. 11. The liabilities under Art. 10 shall not apply with regard to units and shares of collective investment schemes in the cases when the investment intermediary provides the information contained in the short-form prospectus according Art. 28 of Council Directive 85/611/EEC on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (Directive 85/611/EEC).

Art. 12. (1) An investment intermediary shall notify all its clients of the conditions and criteria, according which the investment intermediary determines them as professional or retail, as well as of the circumstances under which they may be defined as an eligible counterparty. The clients shall be also notified on a durable medium of their right to request to be categorized in a different way, as well as of the restrictions imposed on their protection in the case of different categorization.

(2) The investment intermediary shall define a client to be professional, retail or an eligible counterparty in compliance with the criteria established in the Markets in Financial Instrument Act (MFIA).

(3) The investment intermediary on its own initiative or on the client's request may:

1. specify as professional or retail a client who in other cases would be defined as eligible counterparty within the sense of § 1 item 29 of the MFIA;
2. specify as retail a client, who is considered as a professional client within the meaning of Division I of the Appendix to the MFIA.

(4) Where a person defined as an eligible counterparty requests not to be treated as such and the investment intermediary consents, that person shall be treated as a professional client, unless the person has explicitly requested to be treated as a retail client.

(5) In the cases where an eligible counterparty expressly requests to be treated as a retail client, Art. 36 para 2 – 5 of the MFIA shall apply accordingly.

Art. 13. (1) The investment intermediary may not:

1. perform transactions for client's account in volume or with frequency, at prices or with given counterparty, for which according to the circumstances it may be assumed that they are performed exclusively in the investment intermediary's interest;
2. to buy for its own account financial instruments for which its client gave a purchase order, and to sell them to the client at a price higher than the price at which it bought them;
3. to perform for its own or for a third party's account activities with client's funds and financial instruments for which it has not been authorized by the client;
4. to sell for its own account or for a third party's account financial instruments which the investment intermediary or its client does not own, unless under the conditions and procedure established by an Ordinance;

5. to participate in the performance, including in the capacity of a registration agent, of concealed purchases or sales of financial instruments;
6. to receive a part or the whole benefit if the investment intermediary has concluded and executed the transaction under terms and conditions that are more favorable than those established by the client;
7. to perform activities otherwise which jeopardizes the interests of the intermediary's clients or the integrity of the market in financial instruments.

(2) The prohibition under para. 1, item 1 shall not apply to transactions, for the performance of which the client has given explicit instructions on his own initiative.

(3) The prohibition under para. 1, item 4 shall also relate to the members of the management and control bodies of the investment intermediary, to the persons who manage its operation, as well as for all persons who work for it under a contract, as well as to related persons.

Art. 14. (1) The investment intermediary shall not have the right in connection with the provision of investment or ancillary services to a client, to pay, respectively provide, and to receive remuneration, commission or non-monetary benefit, apart from:

1. remuneration, commission or non-monetary benefit paid or provided by or to the client or his representative;
2. remuneration, commission or non-monetary benefit paid or provided by or to a third person or his representative where the following conditions exist:
 - a) the existence, nature and amount of the remuneration, commission or the non-monetary benefit shall be indicated to the client clearly, in an accessible way, accurately and understandably prior to providing the relevant investment or ancillary service, and where the amount may not be established, the method of its calculation shall be indicated;
 - b) the payment, respectively the provision of the remuneration, commission or non-monetary benefit, shall be with a view to enhancing the quality of the service and does not violate the obligation of the investment intermediary to act in the best interest of the client;
3. relevant fees that provide or are necessary with a view to providing the investment services, such as expenses for trustee services, settlement and currency exchange fees, legal services fees and public fees, and which in their nature do not result in the arising of a conflict with the investment intermediary's obligation to act honestly, fairly and professionally to the best interest of the client.

(2) It shall be considered that the investment intermediary has fulfilled its obligation under para 1 item 2 letter "a" where it:

- a) presents the material conditions of the contracts concerning the remuneration, commission or the non-monetary benefit in a summarized form;
- b) provides detailed information about the remuneration, commission or the non-monetary benefit on the client's request; and
- c) the provision of the information according this paragraph is honest, fair and in the client's interest.

Art. 15. (1) In the cases where, pursuant to this Ordinance, information is required to be provided to the client on a durable medium, the investment intermediary shall provide information on paper medium or otherwise, while observing the following requirements:

1. the provision of the information in that way is appropriate with a view to the existing or future relations with the client;
2. the client has expressly preferred that way of information supply over its provision on paper.

(2) Where information is provided to clients through the intermediary's website and it is not addressed to a specific client, the information shall meet the following conditions:

1. the provision of the information in that manner is appropriate with a view to the existing or future relations with the client;
2. the client has expressly agreed with that manner of information provision;
3. the client has been notified via electronic means of the intermediary's website address and where exactly on it the information may be found;
4. the information is up-to-date;
5. the information to be continuously accessible by the client on the intermediary's website for a period of time that is usually necessary for the clients to acquaint themselves with it.

(3) The provision of information by electronic means of communication shall be treated as appropriate with a view to the existing or future relations with the client, if data exist that the client has a regular access to internet. It shall be considered that the client has a regular access to internet, if he provides an e-mail address for the needs of the established relations with the investment intermediary.

Art. 16. The members of the investment intermediary's management and controlling bodies and the persons who manage the operation of the investment intermediary, as well as the members of the control body, where applicable, shall be responsible for the realization of the investment intermediary's operation in compliance with the requirements of the MFIA and its implementing instruments.

Art. 17. (1) An investment intermediary shall adopt, apply and maintain appropriate rules for the prevention of the performance of the following actions by a person who works under a contract for the investment intermediary and who participates in the performance of activities which may give rise to conflict of interests, or who due to the realized by such person activities for the investment intermediary has an access to inside information within the meaning of the Law on Measures against Market Abuse with Financial Instruments (LMMAFI), or to some other confidential information about clients or transactions with or for clients:

1. conclusion of a personal transaction which meets some of the following conditions:
 - a) its execution by that person is prohibited by the LMMAFI;
 - b) it is connected with abuse or unlawful disclosure of confidential information;
 - c) its execution is in contradiction with, or may result in contradiction with an obligation of the investment intermediary according the MFIA or its implementing instruments;
2. the provision of advice or rendering of assistance, outside of the usually performed by a person activities for the investment intermediary, to another person to conclude a transaction with financial instruments, which if it were a personal transaction of the person who works under a contract for the investment intermediary, would be prohibited according to Art. 36 para 3 item 1 and Art. 42 para 3 item 1 and 2;
3. disclosure, outside of the usually performed by a person activity for the investment intermediary, of information or opinion to another person, provided that the person who works under a contract for the investment intermediary, knows or may reasonably be assumed to know that as a result of such disclosure the person will perform or is likely to perform some of the following activities:

a) to conclude a transaction in financial instruments, which, if it would be a personal transaction of the person who works under a contract for the investment intermediary, would be prohibited according Art. 36 para 3 item 1 and Art. 44 para 3 item 1 and 2;

b) to provide advice or to render assistance to another person in concluding a transaction under letter 'a'.

(2) The rules under para. 1 shall ensure that:

1. every person who works for the investment intermediary is acquainted with the restrictions in the conclusion of personal transactions and the measures adopted by the investment intermediary about the personal transactions and the disclosure of information according para 1;

2. the investment intermediary is informed in due time of any personal transaction concluded by the persons who work for the investment intermediary, by notification or otherwise, allowing the investment intermediary to establish the conclusion of such transactions;

3. records are kept of the personal transactions of which the investment intermediary has been informed or which have been established by it, including authorizations or prohibitions in relation to such transactions.

(3) In the cases where there is a contract concluded between the investment intermediary and a third person for the assignment of the performance of an activity to that third person, the contract must include an obligation of that person to keep a register of personal transactions, concluded by persons under para. 1, and to provide such information to the investment intermediary upon its request.

(4) The requirements under para 1 and 2 shall not apply to personal transactions that meet any of the following conditions:

1. personal transactions concluded when managing an individual portfolio, if there is no preceding the conclusion of the transaction exchange of information in relation to the transaction between the person carrying out the management, and the person who works under a contract for the investment intermediary, or another person for whose account the transaction is concluded;

2. personal transactions having as a subject units of undertakings for collective investment or units of undertakings for collective investment, which are subject to supervision according the legislation of a Member State, requiring level of risk spreading in their assets, equivalent to that with the collective investment schemes, if the person who works under a contract for the investment intermediary, or another person for whose account the transaction is concluded, does not participate in the management of that undertaking.

Art. 18. (1) The investment intermediary shall provide its retail clients and the potential retail clients, with the following information on the expenses and fees related to the transactions, so far as applicable:

1. the total price which shall be paid by the client in connection with the financial instrument or the investment or ancillary service provided, including all remunerations, commissions, fees and expenses, as well as all taxes payable through the investment intermediary; in case that the exact price may not be specified, the basis for its calculation shall be indicated in a way, where the client may check and confirm the latter;

2. in the case where any part of the total price under items 1 has to be paid in a foreign currency or the equivalence of that currency, the currency of payment, exchange rate and the currency conversion expenses shall be specified;
3. notification of the possibility other expenses to arise as well, including taxes, related to the transactions in financial instruments or investment services provided, which are not paid through the intermediary or have not been imposed by it.
4. the rules and methods of payment or some other fulfillment.

(2) The obligation under para 1 shall not apply with regard to units and shares of collective investment schemes, if the investment intermediary provides the client with the information, contained in the short-form prospectus according Art. 28 of Directive 85/611/EEC.

Chapter Three

ASSESSMENT OF SERVICE APPROPRIATENESS

Art. 19. (1) Upon the provision of investment advice or carrying out of portfolio management, the investment intermediary shall demand from the client, or the potential client, information which it needs for the establishment of material facts about the client and which provides reasonable grounds to the intermediary to consider, while accounting for the nature and scope of the service rendered, that the transaction which will be recommended or concluded while managing a portfolio, shall meet the following criteria:

1. it meets the client's investment objectives;
2. the client has the financial possibility to undertake all related investment risks, that are compatible with his investment objectives;
3. the client has the required experience and knowledge in order to understand the risks associated with the transaction or with the management of his portfolio.

(2) Where providing an investment service under para 1 to a professional client, the investment intermediary may accept that with reference to the products, transactions and services for which the client has been defined as a professional client, the same has the required experience and knowledge for the purpose of para. 1 item 3.

(3) When providing investment advice to a professional client according Division I of the Appendix to the MFIA, an investment intermediary may accept for the purposes of para. 1, item 2, that the client has the financial possibility to undertake all related investment risks compatible with his investment purposes.

(4) The information regarding the financial situation of the client, or the potential client, shall include, where applicable, information on the sources and the amount of his regular incomes, his assets, including liquid assets, investments and real estate, as well as his due financial liabilities.

(5) The information regarding the investment objectives of the client, or the potential client, shall include, where applicable, information on the time period in which the client would like to hold the investment, his preferences with regard to the risk undertaken, his risk profile and the investment's objectives.

(6) Where upon provision of investment advice or portfolio management, the investment intermediary has not collected the information required under Art. 28, para. 1 of the Markets in

Financial Instruments Act, the investment intermediary shall not have the right to recommend investment advice or financial instruments to the client or the potential client.

Art. 20. (1) Where an investment intermediary estimates whether an investment service other than investment advice and portfolio management, is suitable for the client, it must establish whether the client possesses the necessary experience and knowledge in order to understand the risks associated with the product or the investment service which is offered or requested.

(2) The investment intermediary may accept that the professional client possesses the required experience and knowledge in order to understand the risks associated with the specific investment service, transaction or product, for which the client has been specified as professional.

Art. 21. (1) The information which the investment intermediary shall require from a client, or a potential client, on his experience and knowledge in the sphere of the investment activities shall contain:

1. the types of services, transactions and financial instruments, with which the client is acquainted;
2. the nature, volume and frequency of the transactions in financial instruments for client account, as well as the period within which they will be concluded;

The notification under the first sentence shall also include indication of the investment intermediary's liability pursuant the national legislation about any action or inaction by the person that holds the client cash and/or financial instruments and the consequences for the client of such person's bankruptcy.

(2) The investment intermediary shall inform its retail clients, or potential retail clients, of the possibility his financial instruments to be kept on an omnibus account with a third person when the national legislation admits such a possibility. The investment intermediary shall inform its retail clients, or potential retail clients, of the cases where the national legislation does not allow the client's financial instruments, held by the third person, to be segregated from the financial instruments of that third person or of the investment intermediary. The notifications must also contain an explicit indication of the risks for the client, arising from the circumstance under the preceding sentences.

(3) The investment intermediary shall explicitly inform the client, where the accounts which contain its cash and financial instruments, are subject or will be subject to regulation of the law of a state, which is not a Member State. The notification must indicate that the client rights, related to the financial instruments or the cash may differ, due to the applicability of the third country's law.

(4) The investment intermediary shall explicitly inform the client of :

1. availability of possessory lien or retention right over the client cash or financial instruments for the investment intermediary and of the conditions on which such right arises or may arise;
2. availability of right to set-off over the client cash or financial instruments for the investment intermediary and the conditions on which such right arises or may arise;
3. the availability and the conditions on which the investment intermediary has or may have right to set-off in relation to client financial instruments or cash;
4. the possibility the depository institution to have possessory lien, right to retention or of set-off over the client financial instruments or cash, wherever applicable.

(5) Prior to the conclusion of a transaction for securities financing with subject financial instruments held for the account of a retail client, or before using in any whatever way these instruments for its own account or for the account of another client, the investment intermediary shall provide the retail client on a durable medium and within a reasonable time before the use of the financial instruments, with clear, complete and accurate information about the intermediary's obligations and liabilities in relation to the use of the financial instruments, including the conditions for their refunding and the existing risks.

Art. 33. The registered auditor of the investment intermediary shall include in his report, prepared in the audit of the investment intermediary's annual financial statement, information on compliance of the established and implemented by the investment intermediary organization in relation to the client assets keeping, with the requirements of Art. 28-31.

Art. 34. (1) For the execution of transactions with financial instruments, the clients of the investment intermediary shall give orders with the following minimum content:

1. the names (business name) and the unique client number of the client and of his representative, and if such numbers have not been assigned – the respective identification data under Art. 66;
2. type, issuer, ISIN code of the issue, or name of the instrument, respectively characteristics of the derivative financial instrument and number of financial instruments to which the order relates;
3. type of the order;
4. nature of the order (buy, sell, exchange, etc.);

5. unit price and total amount of the order;
6. the order's term of validity;
7. execution venue, on which the order is to be executed, if the client specifies such;
8. quantitative execution of the order (in part, in whole);
9. way of payment;
10. date, hour and place of giving the order;

(2) Inscribed in the order shall be also its unique serial number.

(3) The giving of the orders under para 1 by a proxy shall be done only if the proxy submits notarially attested power of attorney, which contains representative authority for execution of actions of disposal with financial instruments and a declaration under Art. 25, para. 1 for a one-year period prior to giving the order. Article 24, para 5 and Art. 25 para 2 shall apply accordingly.

(4) An investment intermediary may accept orders for transactions with financial instruments, placed by clients over the telephone or by another remote means of communication. In such case the investment intermediary by the end of the working day shall draw up a document, containing the data under para 1 and the data – subject of the declarations under Art. 35, para 1, by which it attests the content of the remotely given order.

(5) Paragraph 4 shall not apply to an order, given by a representative who has not attested to the investment intermediary his representative authority, or by a proxy who failed to present in advance the documents under Art. 25 to the investment intermediary.

(6) Paragraph 4 shall not apply with regard to transfer of dematerialized financial instruments from a personal account under a client sub-account to the investment intermediary in the Central Depository.

(7) An investment intermediary may accept client orders under para 1 through an electronic trading system, which guarantees compliance with the requirements of this ordinance and ensures an access of the client to specific execution venue. The access to the system under the preceding sentence and the entry of orders by the client shall be accomplished by an electronic certificate, issued in his/her name.

(9) The investment intermediary shall provide to the client a signed copy of the accepted order under para 1, unless it is given according to para 4 and 7.

(10) The investment intermediary shall refuse to accept an order, which does not satisfy the requirements of para 1 or has been given by a proxy, without the requirements of para 3 to be complied with .

Art. 35. (1) Upon order acceptance, the investment intermediary shall require from the client, or from his representative, to declare if:

1. he possesses inside information about the financial instruments, to which the order relates, and about their issuer, if the financial instruments to which the order relates or on the basis of which the financial instruments – subject of the order are issued, are traded on a regulated market;

2. the financial instruments – subject of sell or exchange order, are blocked at the depository institution, in which they are safeguarded, whether there is a pledge set up on them or distraint levied;

3. the transaction – subject of the order, constitutes a concealed purchase or sale of financial instruments.

(2) The investment intermediary shall check with the depository institution if the financial instruments to which the order for sale relates are available on the client's sub-accounts, if they are blocked and whether there is a pledge set up or distraint levied over them.

(3) In case that the order is given according Art. 34, para 7, the check under para 2 shall not be made, if the electronic system does not allow the conclusion of transactions with blocked, distrained or pledged financial instruments or with financial instruments which are not available on the relevant account.

(4) The check under para 2 shall be made by the person, performing custody services with regard to the financial instruments, subject of the order, on its own initiative or on request of the investment intermediary, through which the transaction will be concluded.

(5) (New – SG, iss. 60 in 2008, in effect from 5 Sept., 2008) The check-up under para 2 shall not be carried out if the investment intermediary ensures otherwise that the financial instruments, subject of the sale, will be delivered on the date of the transaction's settlement as well as in other cases as laid down in an ordinance.

1. immediate and accurate registration and allocation of the orders for execution;

2. immediate execution in the sequence of their receiving of identical client orders, unless the characteristics of the order or the prevailing market conditions make this unrealizable, or the interests of the clients require otherwise;

3. the investment intermediary shall inform a retail client about the arisen objective difficulties, obstructing the exact execution of the orders, immediately upon coming to know of them.

(2) In the cases where the investment intermediary has committed itself to arrange or monitor for the settlement of executed by it order for client account, it shall perform the necessary actions to ensure that all client financial instruments or moneys, obtained in the settlement, are immediately and exactly transferred on accounts of the relevant client.

(3) An investment intermediary shall have no right to misuse of information for unexecuted client orders and must take all necessary actions for prevention of such misuse by any person working under a contract for the investment intermediary.

Art. 37. (1) An investment intermediary shall not have the right to execute client orders or transactions for its own account, in aggregation with another client order, unless the following conditions are met:

1. it must be unlikely that the aggregation of orders and transactions will work overall to the disadvantage to any client, whose order is to be aggregated;
2. the investment intermediary has disclosed to each client whose order is to be aggregated that the effect of aggregation may work to its disadvantage in relation to a particular order;
3. the investment intermediary has adopted and efficiently implements an order allocation policy, providing in sufficiently precise terms for the fair allocation of aggregated orders and transactions, including indicating how the volume and price of the orders determines allocations and the treatment of partial executions.

(2) In the cases when an investment intermediary aggregates a client's order with one or more other client's orders and the order thus aggregated has been partially executed, it shall allocate the aggregated transactions – result of the order execution, in accordance with the adopted by it policy for orders allocation.

(3) An investment intermediary, which aggregates an order for own account with one or more orders of its clients shall not have the right to allocate the concluded transactions in a way that is detrimental to the client.

(4) The investment intermediary shall apply a procedure for avoidance of repeated allocation of transactions for its own account, executed in aggregation with clients' orders, when that is detrimental to the client. The procedure of sentence one is a part of the orders allocation policy under para 1 item 3.

(5) In the cases where the investment intermediary aggregates a client's order with a transaction for its own account and the order thus aggregated has been partially executed, it shall allocate the transactions for the client's account with priority. If the investment intermediary can reasonably prove that without the aggregation it would not be able to execute the client order at such advantageous for him conditions, or could not execute it at all, it may allocate the concluded transaction proportionately between itself and the client according its policy under para 2.

Art. 38. (1) An investment intermediary shall not have the right to execute a client order, if the client, or his representative, refuses to file the declaration under Art. 35, para 1, it has been declared that he possesses inside information or he declares that the transaction – subject of the order, constitutes a concealed purchase or sale of financial instruments. The refusal under sentence one shall be certified by a separate document, signed by the client.

(2) An investment intermediary shall have no right to execute an order, if it has been declared or if the intermediary establishes that the securities – subject of an order for sale, are not available on the client's account or have been blocked in a depository institution, as well as if there is a pledge set up on them or distraint levied.

(3) The prohibition under para 2 in relation to pledged financial instruments shall not apply in the following cases:

1. the acquirer has been informed about the set up pledge and has stated express consent to acquire the pledged financial instruments, there is an explicit consent of the pledge creditor in the envisaged in the Registered Pledges Act cases;

2. the pledge was established on aggregation within the meaning of the Registered Pledges Act.

(4) (Am. – SG, iss. 60 in 2008, in effect from 5 Sept., 2008) The prohibition under para 2 in relation to an order for the sale of financial instruments which are not available on the client's account, shall not apply in the cases when the investment intermediary ensures otherwise that the financial instruments, subject of the sale, shall be delivered on the day of the transaction's settlement, as well as in other cases as laid down in an ordinance.

(5) An investment intermediary shall not have the right to execute a client's order for transactions with financial instruments, if that would result in violation of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act (MFIA), Law on Measures against Market Abuse with Financial Instruments (LMMAFI), the Act on Special Investment Purpose Companies (ASIPC) or some other acting statutory acts.

Art. 39. (1) An investment intermediary shall conclude contracts under Art. 24, para 1 and accept client orders only through natural persons who work under a contract for it and are:

1. brokers, or

2. persons, who satisfy the requirements under Art. 3, item 1 - 6 of Ordinance № 7 from year 2003 on the requirements, which must be met by natural persons, who directly, under a contract perform transactions in financial instruments and provide investment advise on financial instruments, as well as the procedure for obtaining and withdrawal of the right to pursue such activity (SG, iss. 101 in 2003) and have been entered in the register under Art. 30, para 1, item 2 of the Financial Supervision Commission Act, or

(2) The investment intermediary shall file an application with the Commission for entry in the register under Art. 30, para 1, item 2 of the Financial Supervision Act of the persons under para 1 item 2, to which it will enclose documents, attesting that they satisfy the requirements of the ordinance.

(3) The person shall be entered in the register under Art. 30, para 1, item 2 of the Financial Supervision Commission Act, if within one month after the filing of the application under para 2, the deputy chairman does not refuse filing.

(4) The head of the investment intermediary's internal control department shall arrange for professional instruction of the persons under para 1, item 2, necessary for the fulfillment of their obligations, upon the conclusion of a contract with the investment intermediary and regularly, by the 15th day of the month, following each quarter. In such case the person that has conducted the instruction, shall draw up a document, which shall verify the instruction's carrying out, shall contain general description of its subject and shall be signed by the person and the instructed individuals.

(6) The investment intermediary shall exercise an ongoing control for compliance of the actions of the persons under para 1 with the Markets in Financial Instruments Act (MFIA) and its implementing instruments.

Art. 40. (1) An investment intermediary shall demand from a client, who gives an order for the purchase of financial instruments, to provide to it the cash needed for the payment under the transaction – subject of the order, upon giving the order, except if the client attests that he will fulfill his liability for payment, as well as in other cases as laid down in an ordinance.

(2) If the rules of the execution venue on which the transaction will be concluded, allow the execution of a transaction where the payment for the financial instruments is not effected simultaneously with their transfer, the investment intermediary may not demand payment by the buyer, if there is express written consent of the seller for that. This shall apply accordingly also to other transfer transactions with financial instruments.

(1) The outsourcing of critical operational functions, as well as of investment services and activities must be done in a way which shall not result in exemption of the investment intermediary from its obligations according the Markets in Financial Instruments Act (MFIA) and its implementing instruments.

(2) The outsourcing under para 1 must not result in:

1. delegation of the responsibilities of the members of the investment intermediary's management body or of other persons who manage its operation;
2. change in the relationship of the investment intermediary with its clients or in its obligations towards them according the MFIA and its implementing instruments;
3. violation of the requirements of the MFIA and its implementing instruments, which the investment intermediary must satisfy to be granted a license and to pursue business;
4. dropping out or modification of some other condition, subject to which the license was granted.

Art. 52. (1) The investment intermediary must act with due care when entering into, executing or terminating a contract under Art. 50.

(2) The performance of critical operational functions or investment services and activities by a third person on the basis of outsourcing by the investment intermediary shall be realized in compliance with the following requirements:

1. the person, to whom the performance is outsourced, must have the capacity, resources and any authorizations required by law for reliable and professional performance of the outsourced to it functions;
2. the person under item 1 must perform the outsourced services effectively, for which the investment intermediary shall establish methods by which to assess the performance of the services by that person;
3. the person under item 1 must exercise due control over the carrying out of the outsourced functions and adequately manage the risk associated with such outsourcing;
4. the investment intermediary shall take appropriate actions, if it is apparent that the person under item 1 cannot perform the outsourced to it functions effectively and in compliance with the applicable statutory and regulatory requirements;
5. the investment intermediary shall maintain the necessary organization, resources and possibilities for exercising an efficient control over the outsourced to the third person functions and for management of the risks associated with that outsourcing, it shall control those functions and manage those risks;
6. the person under item 1 shall notify the investment intermediary of any change that may have a material impact on its ability to carry out the outsourced functions effectively and in compliance with the applicable statutory and regulatory requirements;
7. the investment intermediary may terminate, if needed, the contract for outsourcing, without detriment to the continuity and quality of its provision of services to the clients;
8. the person under item 1 must cooperate with the Commission and the deputy chairman in relation to the functions outsourced to it according to Art. 50;
9. the investment intermediary, its auditors, the Commission, the deputy chairman and appointed by an order officials from the Commission must have effective access to the information related to the outsourced according Art. 50 activities, as well as to the premises of the person under item 1;
10. the person under item 1 shall ensure confidentiality of the received by it information, related to the investment intermediary and its clients;
11. the investment intermediary and the person under item 1 must prepare, implement and maintain a contingency plan for disaster recovery and periodic testing of backup facilities, where that is necessary having regard to the nature of the function, service or activity that has been outsourced according Art. 52.

(3) The investment intermediary shall take the necessary actions to guarantee compliance with the requirements under para 2.

Art. 53. (1) The investment intermediary shall outsource the performance of the services under Art. 5 para 2, item 4 of the MFIA, provided to a retail client, to a person established in a third country, if the following additional requirements have been satisfied:

1. the service provider has been authorized or registered for the provision of that service in its home state and is subject to adequate supervision by that state;

2. there is a cooperation agreement concluded between the Commission and the competent authority of the third country, exercising supervision over the service provider, ensuring possibility the Commission at any time to conduct a check-up for compliance with the requirements of this Chapter, in the performance of outsourced activity by the third person.

(2) Where some of the conditions under para 1 are not satisfied, the investment intermediary may outsource investment services to a service provider located in a third country, if the investment intermediary notifies of it in writing the deputy chairman and the latter does not issue a prohibition within a one-month period of the notification, or of the submission of additional data and documents, if such have been demanded.

(3) The deputy chairman may issue a prohibition under para 2, if he/she establishes that the outsourcing under para 2 may result in violation of some of the requirements according to Art. 51 and 52, or the interests of the investment intermediary's clients have not been ensured.

(4) The deputy chairman shall publish an exemplary list of the conditions, with whose availability, it may be considered that the requirements under Art. 51 and 52 have been satisfied and the investment intermediary may conclude outsourcing arrangements with a third country service provider, for which some of the requirements under para 1 do not exist, as well as the arguments, by reason of which it may be considered that the requirements under Art. 51 and Art. 52 would be complied with if the indicated in the list conditions are available. Irrespective of compliance with the conditions according the list of sentence one, the deputy chairman may issue a prohibition under para 3, if in any specific case it is established that the pre-conditions for that are available in accordance with para 3.

(5) The Commission shall publish a list of the competent authorities from third countries with whom it has concluded agreements, meeting the conditions of para 1, item 2.

(6) The provisions of this article do not limit the investment intermediary's liability for compliance with the requirements of Art. 51 and 52.

Art. 54. In case that the investment intermediary and the third person to whom the provision of services is outsourced according this Chapter, are members of the same group, with a view to complying with the requirements under this Chapter, the investment intermediary may take into account the extent to which it controls the third person or the extent to which it may exert influence on its actions.

Art. 55. On request by the Commission, the deputy chairman or appointed by an order officials from the Commission, the investment intermediary shall provide an access to the whole information necessary for the exercising of the supervisory functions of the Commission and of the deputy chairman, for compliance with the requirements of this Chapter with regard to performance by a third person of outsourced by the investment intermediary activity.

(3) The procedures and measures for handling of a conflict of interest provided for according para. 1 item 4, are to guarantee that the persons who work under a contract for the investment intermediary perform the different activities including conflict of interest pursuant to para. 1 item 4 at a degree of independence of the performance, adequate to the size and the activities of the investment intermediary and the group it belongs to, as well as the nature of the risk of damage to the client's interests. The procedures and measures under para 1 item 4 shall include such part of the following which would be necessary to ensure the required degree of independence.

1. efficient procedures for prevention, respectively for exercise of control over the exchange of information among the persons, performing activities that include conflict of interest, where the exchange of such information may impair the interests of a client or clients of the investment intermediary;

2. independent control over the persons whose main functions include the performance of services on behalf of and/or for the account of clients or the provision of services to clients, where a conflict may arise among the clients' interests, or who in some other way represent different conflicting interests, among which a conflict may arise, including the investment intermediary's interest;

3. lack of direct interlink between the remuneration of the persons mainly performing one activity and the remuneration of the persons mainly performing different activity for the investment intermediary, or the incomes realized by the latter, if a conflict of interests may arise in connection with these activities;

4. measures to prevent or restrict the possibility to exercise inappropriate influence on the part of any person over the manner in which a person performing activities for the investment intermediary renders services and performs the activities under Art. 5, paras. 2 and 3 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act (MFIA);

5. measures to prevent, or to exercise control over the simultaneous or successive participation of one person who works under a contract for the investment intermediary, in performing separate investment or ancillary services or activities, where such participation may damage the duly management of conflicts of interest;

6. other necessary and appropriate measures and procedures, alternative or additional to those specified under item 1-5, if the latter cannot ensure the required degree of independence;

7. measures and procedures with a view to guaranteeing the observance of the requirements under Art. 42 para. 3.

(4) The terms and conditions under para. 1, item 7 shall ensure minimization of the risk of loss of or decrease in the client assets or the rights in connection with these assets as a result of abuse, fraud, bad management, lack of relevant accountability or negligence.

(5) The terms and conditions under para. 1, item 8 shall provide for the establishment, implementation and maintenance of systems and procedures which are to guarantee the safety, integrity and confidentiality of the information, relevant to the nature of the information kept.

(6) The rules under para. 1 shall ensure the performance of services and activities by the investment intermediary in compliance with the requirements of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act and its implementing instruments. The internal organization set up in the investment intermediary shall ensure the timely establishment of any risk from non-compliance of the investment intermediary's activity with the requirements of the MFIA and its implementing instruments.

(7) The rules under para. 1 are to ensure continuity of the activities performed by the investment intermediary for the purpose where in the case of temporary cease of the functioning of the systems and procedures established by the intermediary, the information and functions of the intermediary of primary importance, as well as the provision of the investment services and activities are to be preserved, and where this is impossible – to recover in due time the information and functions and resume performing investment services and activities.

(8) Upon assumption of office or upon starting activities, the members of the management and supervisory bodies of the investment intermediary and all other persons who work under a contract for the investment intermediary shall acquaint themselves with the rules under para. 1, which shall be verified in writing. The requirement under the preceding sentence shall also apply in the case of any subsequent amendment to the rules under para 1.

(9) The management body of the investment intermediary shall annually, by 31st of January, review and assess the conformability of the rules under para. 1 to the services and activities performed by the investment intermediary, where in the case of incompleteness and/or necessity to improve the internal organization, it shall adopt amendments and supplements to the rules. Regardless of the requirement of the preceding sentence, the management body shall adopt amendments and supplements to the rules under para 1, when establishing a need for that.
