

The AFM warns against Imperial Trust LLC

The Netherlands Authority for the Financial Markets (AFM) is warning investors not to respond to offers of securities services made by Imperial Trust LLC.

Imperial Trust LLC is offering securities services in the Netherlands, without having the requisite licence to do so nor has Imperial Trust LLC been granted an exemption from this license obligation. The AFM has received a complaint about Imperial Trust LLC who has approached a person in the Netherlands for that purpose by telephone.

Institutions offering securities services in the Netherlands without possessing a licence or without having been granted an exemption, are in breach of Section 7(1) of the 1995 Supervision of Securities Transactions Act (Wet toezicht effectenverkeer 1995 - Wte 1995). This public notification is issued in accordance with Section 48n, subsection 1c, of the Wte 1995 and Section 48s of the Wte 1995 (fake or unknown address / identity).

The AFM advises anyone who wants to do business with an institution or person, to check beforehand in the Institutions Register for securities services whether the institution or person concerned is registered and allowed to offer or perform securities services in the Netherlands. The register can be found on the AFM website. Furthermore the AFM advises investors strongly to check her warning lists beforehand. On www.afm.nl/warninglists three warning lists are shown: (1) institutions and persons without a license, (2) institutions without issuing a prospectus and (3) warning notices issued by foreign supervisory authorities. Alternatively, investors who have any questions or complaints may call the AFM Supervision Line on +31 (0)20 5535 535.
