Article 8. (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 43/2010, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The sessions of the Commission shall be convened by the Chairperson on the initiative thereof or on a requisition by a member of the Commission, and the agenda shall be endorsed by the Commission. The Commission shall hold sessions at least four times a month.

(2) The sessions of the Commission shall be presided over by the Chairperson and, in the absence thereof, by a Deputy Chairperson designated by the Chairperson.

(3) The Commission may sit if more than one half of the members thereof are present.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 43/2010) The decisions of the Commission shall be adopted by a majority of not fewer than three votes.

(5) No abstentions from voting shall be admissible.

Commission: Transparency of Operation

Article 9. (1) The Commission shall make publicly available the policy pursued and the practice established in the application of the statutory instruments, as well as the reasoning for any revision of such instruments.

(2) The policy pursued in application of the statutory instruments referred to in Paragraph (1) shall cover the means chosen and employed by the Commission in exercising the discretion thereof for attaining the purposes of the law.

(3) The Commission shall issue an ordinance establishing the procedure for access to the documents in its custody, as well as the terms for obtaining certified copies of the said documents.

Commission: organisation

Article 10. (1) (Amended, SG No. 38/2012, effective 1.07.2012) The Commission shall be assisted by an administration, which shall be organised in three principal departments: Investment Activity Supervision Department, Insurance Supervision Department, and Social Insurance Supervision Department, each of the said departments being directly managed by a Deputy Chairperson of the Commission.

(2) Within the powers conferred thereon by law, the Deputy Chairpersons shall organise, direct, and be responsible for the operation of the respective department.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 43/2010) Acting on a proposal by the Deputy Chairperson, the Chairperson of the Commission shall designate another Deputy Chairperson or member as a substitute for the said Deputy Chairperson, who shall execute the powers thereof in case of absence.

(4) (New, SG No. 43/2010) In the execution of the powers thereof under this Act, the member of the Commission referred to in Item 5 of Article 3 herein shall be assisted by one or more structural units of the Commission, which shall be specified in the Rules of the Commission.

Commission Member Assisting Commission Policy for Analysis and Assessment of Financial Market Risks, Improvement of Market Practice and Protection of Interests of Investors, Persons Covered by Commercial and Social Insurance: Powers

Article 17a. (New, SG No. 43/2010) (1) (Supplemented, SG No. 62/2015, effective 14.08.2015, SG No. 25/2022, effective 29.03.2022) The member of the Commission referred to in Item 5 of Article 3 herein shall assist the Commission in the development and implementation of rules and systems for financial market risk management. The member of the Commission referred to in Item 5 of Article 3 herein shall assist the Commission in the exercise of the powers thereof as a resolution authority and shall approach the Commission with proposals for taking decisions under the Recovery and Resolution of Credit Institutions and Investment Firms Act and under the Markets in Financial Instruments Act.

(2) The member of the Commission referred to in Item 5 of Article 3 herein, acting in coordination with the Deputy Chairperson in charge of the respective area of supervision, shall examine, according to a procedure established in the Rules of the Commission:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 34/2015) complaints and alerts lodged against persons supervised by the Commission;
 2. proposals for improving the operation of the relevant authorities of the Commission.
- (3) (New, SG No. 34/2015) The Rules of the Commission shall establish a mechanism for the examination of complaints and alerts lodged against persons supervised by the Commission with regard to potential or actual violations of the statutory instruments applicable to the activity of the said persons, which shall include as a minimum:
1. (supplemented, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) the procedure for receiving and examining complaints and alerts, including communication channels for receiving any such complaints and signals;
 2. (repealed, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018);
 3. (amended, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018, SG No. 17/2019) protection of the personal data of the person who lodges the complaint or alert about a violation, as well as of the personal data of the persons against whom the complaint or the alert is lodged, in accordance with the requirements for personal data protection;
 4. rules on ensuring confidentiality to persons who lodge complaints or alerts about violations committed at a supervised person, unless disclosure is required in cases provided for by the law.
- (4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, amended, SG No. 34/2015) The member of the Commission referred to in Item 5 of Article 3 herein shall examine independently complaints and alerts lodged against decisions of the Commission or any authorities thereof.
- (5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 34/2015) In connection with the activities referred to in Paragraphs (2) and (3), the said member shall approach the Commission and the Deputy Chairpersons in charge of the respective areas of supervision with proposals and recommendations regarding the supervisory policy pursued and the practice established in the implementation of statutory instruments.
- (6) (New, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) The lodging of a complaint or an alert under Paragraph (3) may not be grounds for holding the person who lodged the complaint or the alert responsible for disclosing confidential information or other information protected by law or contract.
- (7) (New, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) The lodging of a complaint or an alert may not be grounds for less favourable or unfair treatment of the employees of the supervised person concerned, when such persons have lodged complaints or alerts about violations at the supervised person.
- (8) (New, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018, amended, SG No. 51/2022) Any persons working under an employment relationship at persons supervised by the Commission, who have lodged a complaint or an alert under Paragraph (3), shall be entitled to protection against disciplinary penalty under Article 187 (2) of the Labour Code.
- (9) (New, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) The procedures for exchange of information and cooperation between state bodies involved in the protection of the persons under Paragraph (8) who have lodged complaints or alerts shall be established by an ordinance adopted by the Council of Ministers.

42/2016, amended and supplemented, SG No. 76/2016, effective 30.09.2016, supplemented, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018, SG No. 27/2018, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020, amended and supplemented, SG No. 21/2021, supplemented, SG No. 16/2022, amended and supplemented, SG No. 25/2022, effective 29.03.2022, SG No. 51/2022, supplemented, SG No. 8/2023, SG No. 65/2023) Acting at the written request of the Chairperson of the Commission, for the purposes of the supervision exercised by the Commission, banks shall be obliged to provide information about the assets in and operations on the accounts and deposits held by supervised persons as well as of other persons known to violate this Act, the Insurance Code, the Social Insurance Code, the Public Offering of Securities Act, the Collective Investment Schemes and Other Undertakings for Collective Investments Act, the Markets in Financial Instruments Act, the Recovery and Resolution of Credit Institutions and Investment Firms Act, the Health Insurance Act, the Implementation of the Measures against Market Abuse with Financial Instruments Act, the Special Purpose Investment Companies and Securitisation Companies Act, the Measures Against Money Laundering Act, the Measures Against the Financing of Terrorism Act, of Regulation 1060/2009, Regulation 648/2012, of Regulation (EU) No. 236/2012, Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013, Regulation (EU) No. 345/2013, Regulation (EU) No. 346/2013, Regulation (EU) No. 596/2014, Regulation (EU) No. 909/2014, Regulation (EU) 2015/760, Regulation (EU) No. 600/2014, Regulation (EU) No. 1286/2014, Regulation (EU) 2016/1011, Regulation (EU) 2015/2365, Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Regulation (EU) 2017/2402, Regulation (EU) 2019/2088, Regulation (EU) 2019/2033, Regulation (EU) 2020/1503, Regulation (EU) 2021/23, Regulation (EU) 2022/858 and of the implementing instruments thereof. For the purposes and subject to the conditions of sentence one, banks shall be obliged to provide information about the assets and operations on the accounts and deposits held by clients of the bank where the Commission receives a request from a foreign authority exercising financial supervision in another country wherewith an agreement on cooperation and information exchange has been concluded. The provision of information under sentence one and two may not be refused or restricted on considerations of bank or trade secrecy.

(4) All data and documents on any violations of this Act, which may result in disclosing the identity of the person who has provided the said data and documents, shall be provided by the Commission to third parties solely with the consent of the said person, unless otherwise provided for in the law.

(5) The police, the prosecuting magistracy, as well as the rest of the state bodies and officials, shall be obliged, acting within the powers vested therein, to cooperate with the Commission and the employees thereof upon the discharge of the official duties thereof and the exercise of the supervisory functions thereof.

(6) (Supplemented, SG No. 42/2016, amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The Commission, in the course of and in connection with the performance of the functions assigned thereto, shall have the right of gratuitous access to information registers built and maintained on budget resources. In connection with the exercise of the powers thereof, the Commission and the authorities thereof shall have access to tax and social-security information under the terms and according to the procedure established by the Tax and Social-Insurance Procedure Code.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 59/2006, SG No. 43/2010) In connection with the exercise of the powers vested therein under this Act, the Commission may require from the Deputy Governor of the Bulgarian National Bank in charge of the Banking Supervision Department:

1. the conduct of targeted inspections of banks and the provision of the results of any such inspections to the Commission subject to the restrictions under Article 62 of the Credit Institutions Act;
2. where necessary, the conduct of joint inspections of banks or other financial institutions which persons supervised by the Commissions and the Bulgarian National Bank.

(8) (Amended, SG No. 31/2003, SG No. 105/2005, SG No. 109/2007, SG No. 43/2010) In connection with the exercise of the powers vested therein under this Act, the Commission may conduct joint inspections together with the authorities of the National Revenue Agency, of the State Agency for National Security and of other competent authorities.

(9) (New, SG No. 43/2010) In order to exercise supervision on a consolidated basis, the Commission shall be entitled to require from the parent companies and from the subsidiary companies of the persons referred to in Article 1 (2) herein all necessary documents and information.

(10) (Renumbered from Paragraph (9), SG No. 43/2010, amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The members of the Commission and the employees of the administration thereof shall not incur pecuniary liability for any damage inflicted upon the exercise of the supervisory functions and powers thereof and upon the discharge of the duties thereof, unless they have committed a criminal offence.

(11) (New, SG No. 83/2019, effective 22.10.2019, amended, SG No. 65/2023) The Commission may refuse, in whole or in part, the exercise of data subject rights under Articles 12 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) (OJ L 119/1 of 4 May 2016) and may not fulfil the obligation thereof under Article 34 of the said Regulation only in the cases referred to in Item 5 of Article 37a (1) of the Personal Data Protection Act.

Conduct of Inspections

Article 19. (1) Inspections shall be conducted by employees of the administration of the Commission designated by an order of the Chairperson or of the Deputy Chairperson in charge of the respective area of supervision.

(2) The employees referred to in Paragraph (1) shall conduct inspections on site and in the building of the Commission as to:

6. who exercises control over the supervised person or who holds, directly or through related parties, more than 5 per cent of the votes in the general meeting or of the capital of the supervised person;
7. who is a member of management bodies or supervisory bodies of the supervised person, or who is empowered to manage or represent the supervised person without being a member of the management bodies or supervisory bodies thereof;
8. who works for the supervised person under an employment or civil service relationship.

(4) (New, SG No. 97/2007, amended, SG No. 38/2012, effective 1.07.2012, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018, SG No. 101/2018, effective 7.12.2018, SG No. 84/2023, effective 6.10.2023) Upon entry into employment, all employees shall submit a declaration to the effect that the circumstances referred to in Paragraph (3) do not exist with respect to them, and the circumstance referred to in Item 1 of Paragraph (3) shall be established ex officio. The declaration of incompatibility shall be submitted under the terms and according to the procedure established by the Counter-Corruption Act.

(5) (New, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018, amended, SG No. 101/2018, effective 7.12.2018, SG No. 84/2023, effective 6.10.2023) All employees other than those occupying technical positions shall submit declarations on assets and interests under Article 49 of the Counter-Corruption Act within the time limits and under the terms and according to the procedure provided for in the said Act.

(6) (New, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Employees occupying a senior position must hold an educational qualification degree not lower than master of economics, finance, law, mathematics, informatics and another specialty suitable for the supervision and regulation of the non-banking financial sector that has been awarded thereto upon graduation from a higher educational establishment and have a length of relevant employment-service and/or civil-service seniority of no less than three years.

Rights

(Heading amended, SG No. 38/2012, effective 1.07.2012)

Article 21. (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 85/2004, amended, SG No. 38/2012, effective 1.07.2012, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) (1) The basic monthly remuneration amounts of the employees of the Commission shall be determined by the Chairperson according to the internal wage rules and within the disposable resources on the budget for the relevant year.

(2) The employees of the Commission may receive supplementary performance-based remunerations which shall be determined according to a procedure and in a manner set out in the internal wage rules.

(3) The supplementary remunerations referred to in Paragraph (2) may not be based on the proceeds from fines and pecuniary sanctions collected from supervised persons recorded in the public registers under Article 30 herein.

(4) The members and the administration of the Commission shall be mandatorily insured against accident for the account of the Commission budget.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 22.10.2019) When a position in the administration of the Commission is occupied by an employee who holds a university degree in law, the length of employment service seniority or civil service seniority acquired thereby shall count as length of practice of law within the meaning given by the Judicial System Act and the Bar Act.

Chapter Five

AVOIDING CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Conflict of Interest

Article 22. (Amended, SG No. 97/2007) (1) The members of the Commission must forthwith notify the Commission where they are required to examine or participate in the examination of a matter in respect of which they have a direct or indirect interest giving rise to reasonable doubts about the impartiality thereof and this will lead to a conflict with the proper performance of the functions thereof or the exercise of the powers thereof.

(2) Any member of the Commission in respect of whom there exists a conflict of interest on a matter considered at a session of the Commission shall not participate in the discussion and voting when the said matter is addressed.

(3) In the cases under Paragraph (1), where the person who has declared the existence of a direct or indirect interest is the Chairperson or a Deputy Chairperson and the matter in respect of which there exists a conflict of interest falls within the powers thereof in his or her capacity as single-person authority, the Commission shall designate a Deputy Chairperson or, respectively, another member of the Commission as a substitute for the said Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson.

(4) The employees of the administration of the Commission must forthwith notify the Chairperson or, respectively, the Deputy Chairperson who directly manages the department concerned where they are required to examine or to participate in the examination of a matter in respect of which they have a direct or indirect interest giving rise to reasonable doubts about the impartiality thereof and this will lead to a conflict with the proper discharge of the duties thereof.

(5) Paragraph (1) shall furthermore apply to the employees of the administration of the Commission where they are required to conduct or participate in the conduct of an inspection.

(6) Notification under Paragraph (5) of the existence of a direct or indirect interest of employees of the administration of the Commission who conduct or participate in the conduct of an inspection may also be effected by the inspected person.

(7) The Chairperson or, respectively, the Deputy Chairperson who directly manages the Commission department concerned, shall order in writing the person referred to in Paragraph (4) or, respectively, in Paragraph (5), to discontinue the participation thereof in the examination of the matter or in the conduct of the inspection and shall designate another employee as a substitute for the said person.

(8) The form, content and procedure for effecting notifications shall be laid down in the Rules of organisation and Operation of the Commission.

Chapter Six

PROFESSIONAL ETHICS AND PROFESSIONAL SECRET

Professional Ethics

Article 23. The members of the Commission, as well as the employees of the administration thereof, shall be obliged to comply with the professional ethics rules adopted by the Commission.

Professional Secret

Article 24. (Amended, SG No. 103/2005) (1) (Amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 22.10.2019, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The information that the Commission generates or obtains for the purposes of financial supervision or in connection with financial supervision shall constitute a professional secret. An official secret within the meaning given by the Classified Information Protection Act shall not constitute a professional secret.

(2) Any information which is subject to public disclosure according to this Act or another law shall not constitute a professional secret.

(3) The members of the Commission and the employees of the administration thereof shall be obliged to respect professional secrets including after they are released from office or, respectively, after the termination of the employment relationships thereof.

(4) Paragraph (3) shall furthermore apply to the auditors and to all other persons performing functions assigned thereto by the Commission.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Except in cases where the person who has provided information constituting a professional secret has given an express consent to the use of the said information for other purposes, the said information may be used by the Commission and the authorities thereof only in connection with the performance of the functions thereof:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 43/2010, SG No. 77/2011, amended, SG No. 60/2012, effective 7.08.2012, supplemented, SG No. 62/2015, effective 14.08.2015, amended, SG No. 21/2021, SG No. 51/2022) to verify compliance with the requirements for the issuance of authorisations (licences) provided for in the Public Offering of Securities Act, the Collective Investment Schemes and Other Undertakings for Collective Investments Act, the Special Purpose Investment Companies and Securitisation Companies Act, the Markets in Financial Instruments Act, the Recovery and Resolution of Credit Institutions and Investment Firms Act, the Insurance Code and the Social Insurance Code for the pursuit of business regulated by the said laws, as well as for the exercise of supervision over these activities;

2. to apply coercive administrative measures and to impose administrative sanctions;

FINANCIAL STABILITY ADVISORY COUNCIL

Functions and Membership

Article 31. (Amended, SG No. 43/2010) (1) There shall be established a Financial Stability Advisory Council as an advisory body, hereinafter referred to as "the Council".

(2) The main objective of the Council shall be to foster more efficient cooperation for maintaining the financial stability through exchange of information and assessment of the state and development of the financial system and the financial markets in Bulgaria and the potential impact of external and internal factors on the said stability, and coordinating actions to this end.

(3) The Council shall have the following tasks:

1. to assess the state of the national financial system and the financial markets and to ensure that all members of the Council inform each other about the market participants, the principal events and trends which could impact the national financial system;

2. to monitor and analyse systemic risks to the stability of the national financial system and to discuss intervention measures in the event the stability of the national financial system is jeopardised or a financial crisis occurs;

3. to coordinate activities in accordance with the powers of the members of the Council in the event of an immediate threat to, or a crisis in, the national financial system and markets;

4. to discuss proposals for improving the practice of implementation and improvement of the regulatory framework of financial markets and to facilitate an improvement and enhancement of the efficiency of supervision of financial market participants.

(4) The Council may address proposals and recommendations to the members thereof in connection with the powers of the institutions represented thereby with regard to the protection and maintenance of financial stability, the prevention and management of a financial crisis.

(5) Executing the powers thereof, the Council shall adopt decisions. The decisions shall be adopted unanimously.

(6) The Minister of Finance, the Chairperson of the Commission and the Governor of the Bulgarian National Bank shall be members of the Council, the Council being chaired by the Minister of Finance. Other persons whereof the functions and tasks are relevant to financial stability may also attend the meetings of the Council at the invitation thereof.

(7) The meetings of the Council shall be presided over by the Minister of Finance.

(8) The Council shall be convened for regular meetings by the Chairperson thereof at least four times a year. The Council may alternatively be convened at the request of any of the members thereof who participate in the meeting in person. If unable to participate in a meeting, the members of the Council shall be represented by the relevant Deputy Minister, Deputy Governor or Deputy Chairperson of the Commission, of which the rest of the members shall be informed in writing.

(9) The meetings shall be prepared and organised by the Ministry of Finance. In the performance of the functions thereof, the Council shall be assisted by a secretary to the Chairperson.

(10) The Council shall adopt Rules of Operation thereof. Minutes shall be taken of the proceedings at the meetings of the Council.

(11) The Council may set up working groups of experts of the Ministry of Finance, the Bulgarian National Bank and the Commission.

(12) Any decision on public disclosure of information in connection with the work of the Council shall be adopted unanimously.

(13) All state bodies and officials shall be obliged, acting within the powers vested therein, to cooperate with the Council and to provide it with the information required for the implementation of the functions thereof.

(14) To facilitate international cooperation in connection with financial stability, the members of the Council may conclude cooperation agreements with institutions performing tasks in this field in Member States of the European Union and other countries.

Chapter Eleven
