Dear Unit-holders,

We are pleased to present you the following annual report for the ERSTE STOCK EM GLOBAL jointly owned fund pursuant to the InvFG for the accounting year from 1 May 2024 to 30 April 2025.

Due to technical problems, unit certificate transactions were suspended for all funds of Erste Asset Management GmbH in Austria on 27 November 2024. Transactions resumed on 28 November 2024.

The companies managing the sub-funds contained in the Fund that are not managed by the Investment Firm assessed management fees ranging between 0.40% and 1.00%. No front-end surcharges were charged for the purchase of the units in these funds.

Development of the Fund

Investment strategy:

ERSTE STOCK EM GLOBAL is an equity fund geared towards achieving long-term net asset growth. The Fund invests internationally in companies from global emerging markets with attractive fundamentals.

Market report and portfolio orientation:

During the reporting period, the global equity markets were impacted heavily by geopolitical tensions, the bumper election year, the Russian war in Ukraine, tariff policy and trade restrictions, and central bank policy. The year 2024 saw more than 70 elections around the world (including the US, EU, Taiwan, South Korea, Indonesia, Russia, Türkiye, India, and Mexico). The increase in yields for 10-year US government bonds also led to higher volatility and sector rotations during the reporting period. Especially the “Magnificent 7” shares dominated the developments on the stock exchanges.

The equity markets in the emerging economies usually lagged behind the industrialised countries last year. For the emerging markets, Donald Trump’s victory means an increase in economic risks because some countries became direct targets of punitive US tariffs and others are at least suffering from the uncertainty being felt by companies and consumers as a result of the protectionism. The inflation problems waned recently, which also gave the local central banks leeway to make interest rate cuts. India has significantly outpaced other emerging markets in terms of economic growth and the development of its stock market in recent years, and has also replaced China as the primary driver of growth. A comprehensive package of measures to invigorate the ailing real estate sector and consumption in China gave the Chinese equity markets a boost starting in the third quarter of 2024. But a lack of transparency, geopolitical tensions between China/USA/Taiwan, a structural slowdown, and the correction of real estate prices are still the main concerns of foreign investors.

ERSTE STOCK EM GLOBAL registered a negative performance of 1.6% in euros for the reporting period. Since May 2024, performance figures for individual stocks have ranged between +468%* and -83%*. The Fund turned in a mixed performance in terms of individual quarters. Investments in small and mid caps exhibited more price fluctuations overall than large caps. Exchange rate developments also played a significant role in the overall performance.

The top performers in the portfolio included Pop Mart Intern.Group (CN/+126%), Xiaomi Corp Ltd. (CN/+162%), Gamuda (MYR/+63%), Mercadolibre Inc. (UR/+47.78%), Porto Seguro SA (BR/+57%), Gentera SAB. (MX/+45.8%), and Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing Comp. (TW +17.85%)*. The tail of the pack was made up by Samsung Electronics (KR), LG Chem. Ltd. (KR), ENN Energy Holding Ltd. (CN), PetroChina (CN), and YUM China Holdings (CN). Within the portfolio, communication, financials, consumer goods, and technology are the sectors with the best performance while materials, renewable energy, and utilities fared the worst.

Due to share redemptions, the Fund conducted roughly EUR 6 million in equities transactions over the reporting period to maintain its strategic orientation. Thanks to its orientation towards the active selection of individual instruments, ERSTE STOCK EM GLOBAL was able to make opportunistic use of market corrections in order to actively build up favourable individual positions in quality names. The individual stocks are selected using a fundamental investment process and are precisely coordinated to minimise risk, which generates a diversified emerging markets portfolio with an attractive risk/return profile.

The portfolio is broadly diversified with 130–160 issuers, two thirds of which are large caps and one third selected mid caps in the growth segment. The largest weightings are currently in China (around 31%), South Korea (around 9%), Taiwan (around 17%), India (around 14%), Brazil (around 8%), Saudi Arabia (around 4%), and Mexico (around 4%).

Exchange rate developments also played a significant role in the overall performance. Foreign currency risk is not hedged for strategic reasons. Investments in ADR and GDR were increased in some countries in Latin America (Brazil, Argentina, and Uruguay) and in China for liquidity and risk reasons. In addition, positions were set up in Invesco MSCI Saudi Arabia. The weighting of USD in the portfolio averaged roughly 14% during the reporting period.

Emerging Asia continued to dominate as the largest position with an allocation ranging between 74% and 81%. The EMEA region was weighted between 8% and 12% during the reporting period. LATAM made up between 8% and 15% of the portfolio during this period.

The sector allocation was also gradually changed during the reporting period. A sector rotation occurred on the exchanges around the world from the end of September to the beginning of October and again from February to March. The financial sector was increased slightly during the reporting period and is currently the largest sector weighting alongside IT. Because of the focus on growth companies, the technology and consumer goods sectors will still play a dominant role in the portfolio. The industrial sector remained an allocation target in light of the rising infrastructure and environmental technology investments.

Emerging Asia turned in a performance of plus 3% in euros. The exchanges in Asia delivered very mixed and volatile performance. The Asia-Pacific region remains the driver of global economic expansion and is expected to achieve above-average growth as the strongest region in 2025e.

Within the Asia portfolio, existing positions were expanded in China/Hong Kong and additional positions set up in Pop Mart International Group, Meituan, Geely Auto, Trip.Com Group, Q Techn. Group, Baidu Inc., Netease Alibaba Group, Zhongji Innolight, and Midea Group Holding. In this period, positions such as PDD Holdings, Will Semiconductor, China State Construction, LI Autos Inc., China Overseas Prop., and ASMPT Ltd. were sold after fundamental price targets were met.

In South Korea, investments were made in companies that are profiting from the megatrends of 5G, cloud computing, electric vehicles, video games, and AI. The allocation to LS Electric was increased.

Taiwan profited nicely from the full order books in the IT sector. Semiconductor manufacturers in particular reported positive corporate earnings on the back of the rapidly growing data volume. Especially Apple component suppliers saw very volatile price trends. The allocation was increased further during the reporting period (purchase of Auras Technology and Accton Tech. Corp). Due to the strong price development, profits were taken on the position in Taiwan Semiconductor Manufacturing multiple times to maintain compliance with the legal requirements (the maximum weighting for an individual security of 10%) in the Fund.

The global trend towards “friendly shoring” or “near shoring” had a significant positive effect on the listed companies in India. There were significant capital inflows from foreign investors in particular ahead of the elections in June 2024. Profit taking was seen after the elections. Especially the mid cap segment suffered price declines due to the high valuation while large caps posted a stable trend. Due to the positive corporate data and outlooks, the allocation to Indian companies was kept stable during the reporting period. Positions in Maruti Suzuki Ltd were bought. Conversely, Tata Motors and Varun Beverages were sold.

In the ASEAN countries (Thailand, Philippines, Thailand, Malaysia, Indonesia), transactions were conducted in Jasa Marga (IDR), PT Bank Rakyat (ID), Telekom Indonesia (IDR), YTL Corp (MYR), Telekom Malay. Bhd, (MYR), Bloomberry Resorts (PHP), Gamuda Berhard (MYR), Bangkok Bank (TH), and CP All (TH).

No investments were made in the Indian industrial company Larsen & Toubro Ltd. because of the EAM restricted banned weapons guideline. Likewise, ESG considerations prevented any investments in companies that generate more than 5% of their revenue from coal transactions or earn money from food speculation. No investments were made in Chinese companies on the US restricted banned list.

Derivatives were also used in the Asia portfolio during the reporting period. In this connection, FTSE China A50 future positions were held. In order to eliminate currency risk as well, a corresponding amount was held in cash for each foreign currency position. USD cash positions were also held to manage margins for future transactions.

Latin America as a region posted a negative performance of 15.8% in euros. In Latin America, we were positioned in line with the economic outlook over the reporting period. The new Trump administration has driven up volatility since the beginning of the year. Higher trade, financial, and migration risks and fluctuating commodity prices as well as sustained geopolitical tensions influenced the region. The USA has bilateral trade surpluses with nearly all larger Latin American countries aside from Mexico, meaning that the threat of tariffs is likely more a negotiation tactic than a measure to lower the US trade deficit. and profits significantly from the development of commodity prices. Inflation has declined nearly everywhere in Latin America. The economic data for Brazil exceeded the investor expectations. The positioning in Brazil was increased through high-beta companies (buy: Petrobras, Ambev and Embraer / sell Sao Martinho) to profit from the increasing economic activity on the one hand and to protect the portfolio against negative surprises on the other. We expect the companies to continue reporting high earnings projections. We changed the orientation in Mexico (Alsea, Femex, Corp Inmobol. Vesta, Grupo Traxion SE), and Argentina/Uruguay (Banco Macro, YPF) were overweighted in the portfolio. The equity market in Argentina posted strong gains in the reporting period.

The EMEA equity markets closed the period with a gain of 3.77% in euros. The exchanges delivered very mixed and volatile performance due to a series of country-specific factors. Especially the exchange in Istanbul suffered sharp losses (-29.8% in euros) while the exchange in South Africa registered strong positive growth (+20.9% in euros). The exchanges in the CEE countries also made positive contributions. The best performance came from companies in the consumer goods and financial sectors while materials, pharmaceuticals, and energy made a disappointing showing.

EMEA stocks were underweighted compared with the other regions during the reporting period. The fund management feels that the current (geo)political tensions in Ukraine/Russia, Türkiye, and the Middle East call for a higher risk premium on investments in this region. The fund management maintained the position in Saudi Arabia during the reporting period. No derivatives were used in the EMEA portfolio during the reporting period.

The open settlements of the sale transactions from 22 February 2022 (before the outbreak of the Ukraine war) in Russian positions had no prospects of fulfilment/matching for an indefinite period of time due to the Russian sanctions, and the timing of any potential claim was unclear. For this reason, the open transactions in Russian positions were cancelled by Erste Group Bank AG in November 2022. The Russian positions contained in the portfolio are valued with a haircut of 90% on the last listed prices.

It must be noted that foreign investors still do not have access to the equity or FX markets on the Russian exchange at present.

Market outlook:

In light of the trade tensions and high political uncertainty, the future course will depend on how challenges are tackled and opportunities seized. Since the end of January, there has been a flood of tariff announcements by the United States starting with Canada, China, Mexico, and critical sectors and that affected nearly every country in the world on 2 April. The effective US tariff rate exceeded the level reached during the Great Depression while reactions by key trade partners pushed the global interest rate up significantly.

It is projected that global growth will slow slightly at 2.8% for 2025e and 3.0% for 2026e. Despite the slowdown, global growth is still well above the level recorded during the recession. It is worth noting that the growth divergence between the industrialised countries and emerging markets remains. Economic growth in the emerging markets is projected at +3.7% for 2025e and +4.2% for 2026e while the industrialised countries are expected to see an increase of 1.4% for 2025e and 1.5% for 2026e. (Source: IMF, April 2025).

Global inflation for this year is being revised up by about 0.1%, but the momentum of the inflation decline remains. Global trade has been fairly resilient to date, in part due to the fact that companies were able to redirect trade flows as needed.

Especially geopolitics are likely to continue playing a major role in the emerging countries. The core issue is likely to remain the Ukraine-Russia war and the relations between the USA, Taiwan, and China. The tensions are unlikely to abate because China continues to grow and threaten America's global dominance. The Ukraine war and the Middle East conflict are further foreign-policy quagmires. Territorial integrity and not intervening in internal matters are cornerstones of China's foreign policy. Thus, Beijing is striving to remain as neutral as possible in the Ukraine war and to not exercise its influence over Russia. China abstained from the UN vote on the imposition of sanctions on Russia.

Our focus in emerging market shares remains on Asia and Latin America. The allocation to these regions was increased further even under difficult market conditions. By contrast, a significant change occurred in EMEA. Saudi Arabia is gaining further in importance. Saudi Arabia is the highest country weighting in the EMEA region, ahead of South Africa. China is the largest country weighting at over 25%. Market and industry leaders further expanded their market positions, and large caps delivered better relative performance. The emerging markets will gain further in importance due to higher economic growth than their industrialised counterparts. The emerging markets are currently weighted at around 12% in the MSCI World.

Asia will continue to profit from internal consumption due to its rapidly growing middle class, and will maintain its focus on technological innovations. For this reason, we anticipate attractive investment opportunities in technology (IoT, cloud computing, etc.), new infrastructure (5G expansion, environmental protection), health care, and consumer goods. Our preferred themes include the accelerated introduction of clean energy in China as set forth in its latest five-year plan that began in 2021. China's commitment to reaching zero net carbon emissions by 2060 will require comprehensive and rapid investments in clean energy technologies and plants over many years. New projects were also announced in areas including 5G network expansion, AI, cloud computing, health care system expansions, and more. China intends to further extend its global market leadership in many fields of technology. A strong focus is also being placed on ensuring a stable real estate market, which makes an important contribution to GDP. This sector is also a source of substantial tax revenue, and building land auctions are one of the most important income sources for local governments. The prosperity/wealth of the Chinese populace is built largely on real estate investments. This is a key reason for the high importance of the real estate sector in China.

India's economy will profit from the global efforts to diversify supply chains and from investments in manufacturing and technological infrastructure in 2025. India's population has already surpassed that of China in 2023, and its national growth rate will likely be higher than that of its peers for the foreseeable future. Due to its economic ambitions, India is attracting the attention of more and more long-term investors. India's economy is the fifth largest in the world. We expect growth of 6.2% for 2025e (2026e GDP +6.5%). While corporate earnings are set to rise by more than 15% for 2025e and 2026e according to the projections, stock valuations are not attractive compared with other EM companies.

The valuations of EM shares are still attractive compared with their 10- and 15-year average and with DM shares (P/E 12.3x vs. S&P 500: 22.4x) and are currently listing at a discount of 35%.

It is worth noting that positive EM earnings growth is expected for 2025e (+13.2%) and that gains are projected for all sectors. In absolute terms, corporate earnings are at historical highs. We feel that potential FX risks are already priced in.

Emerging market companies are on solid fundamental footing, and we believe that strong economic data and impetus from the megatrends should be good for EM investments. Many economic indicators are also at pre-crisis levels and are confirming the projections. The volatility will persist on the global equity markets due to the geopolitical uncertainty factors.

General information about performance:

The performance of unit categories with no outstanding units at the end of the reporting period or no outstanding units during the reporting period is generally based on the dividend-adjusted performance of the overall fund. In these cases, the performance is not reported below.

When a unit category is issued during the reporting period, the performance and reinvestment are calculated from the point in time that the unit category is launched. Because of this and possible other fees and currency classes, the performance and reinvestment of this unit category differ from those of comparable unit categories.

The performance is determined assuming the reinvestment of all paid dividends and amounts at their nominal value on the day of disbursement.

1. Value Development over the Accounting Year (Fund Performance)

Calculation according to the OeKB method per unit in the unit currency not accounting for a front-end surcharge

The performance of unit categories with no outstanding units at the end of the reporting period or no outstanding units during the reporting period is generally based on the dividend-adjusted performance of the overall fund. In these cases, the “performance”, the “net earnings per unit”, and the “total value including (notional) units gained through disbursement/payment” are not reported in the following.

When a unit category is issued during the reporting period, the performance is calculated from the point in time that the unit category is launched. Because of this and possible other fees and currency classes, the performance of this unit category differs from that of comparable unit categories.

Principles governing performance-based remuneration components

The Management Company has adopted remuneration principles to prevent possible conflicts of interest and to ensure compliance with the standard rules of conduct when awarding remuneration to relevant persons.

Fixed salary components make up a large enough share of the total remuneration of all employees of the Management Company that a variable remuneration policy can be applied on an individualised basis.

The total remuneration (fixed and variable components) is governed by the principle of balance and is linked to sustainability so that the acceptance of excessive risks is not rewarded. Therefore, the variable remuneration forms no more than a balanced portion of the total remuneration awarded to an employee.

The performance-based remuneration components serve the short-term and long-term interests of the Management Company and contribute to preventing risky behaviour. The performance-based remuneration components take into account individual performance as well as the profitability of the Management Company.

The size of the bonus pool is calculated based on the bonus potential that can be applied to the different employee categories. Bonus potential is a percentage of the fixed annual gross remuneration. The bonus potential can be no more than 100% of the fixed annual gross remuneration. The bonus pool is adjusted depending on the success of the Management Company. The personal bonus is linked to individual performance. The total of personal bonuses is limited by the size of the bonus pool after deduction of penalties.

The performance-based payments are capped at 100% of the annual gross remuneration for all employees, including the material risk bearers (according to the definition in the remuneration policy) and managing directors of the Management Company.

The remuneration system is made up of three components:

- 1) Fixed remuneration
- 2) Variable remuneration
- 3) Fringe benefits

The bonus potential is based on the fixed annual gross remuneration. The target agreements concluded with the employees contain qualitative and/or quantitative objectives. The payment of performance-based remuneration components is subject to a minimum profitability level for the Management Company and to performance targets.

Sixty per cent of the performance-based remuneration components are paid immediately; for employees who are involved directly in fund and portfolio management, 50% of this is paid immediately in cash and 50% is paid one year later in the form of non-cash instruments. The remaining 40% of the performance-based remuneration components are retained and paid out over a period of three years, with 50% of this also being paid in cash and 50% in the form of non-cash instruments for employees who are involved directly in fund and portfolio management. The non-cash instruments can consist of units in an investment fund that is administered by the Management Company, equivalent holdings or instruments linked to units, or equivalent non-cash instruments. Based on the principle of proportionality, the Management Company has set a materiality threshold below which there is no incentive to enter into inappropriate risks, for which reason there is no need to make delayed payment or payment in the form of a non-cash instrument. Other non-cash benefits are fringe benefits that are not associated with performance but with a specific position (e.g. company car) or that apply for all employees (e.g. holiday).

The Supervisory Board of the Management Company has set up a Remuneration Committee to ensure that the remuneration policy and its application are independently assessed. This committee consists of the following persons: Rudolf Sagmeister, Harald Gasser (remuneration expert), and Heinrich Hubert Reiner.

The complete remuneration policy of the Management Company can be viewed at http://www.erste-am.at/de/private_anleger/wer-sind-wir/investmentprozess.

The last audit of compliance with the requirements of the remuneration policy by the Supervisory Board in March 2024 revealed no deviations. There were also no material findings during the last audit by the Internal Auditing department.

No material changes were made to the remuneration policy during the past accounting year.

Audit Report*

Statement on the annual report

Audit opinion

We have audited the annual report prepared by Erste Asset Management GmbH, Vienna, for the fund under its management

ERSTE STOCK EM GLOBAL
Jointly owned fund pursuant to the InvFG

consisting of the statement of assets and liabilities as of 30 April 2025, the income statement for the accounting year ending on this date, and the other information specified in Annex I Schedule B of the Austrian Investment Fund Act 2011 (InvFG 2011).

Based on the findings of our audit, we believe that the annual report satisfies the legal requirements and provides a true and fair view of the assets and financial position as of 30 April 2025 and of the earnings position of the fund for the accounting year ending on this date in accordance with Austrian commercial law and the provisions of the InvFG 2011.

Basis for the audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with § 49 (5) InvFG 2011 and in accordance with the Austrian principles of good auditing. These principles require the application of the International Standards on Auditing (ISA). Our responsibilities under these regulations and standards are described in the section "Responsibilities of the auditor in auditing the annual report" of our audit report. We are independent from the company as specified by the Austrian commercial and industry regulations and fulfilled our other professional obligations in accordance with these requirements. We feel that the audit evidence that we obtained up to the date of the audit certificate is sufficient and suitable to serve as a basis for our audit opinion as of that date.

Other information

The legal representatives are responsible for the other information. The other information includes all information in the annual report except for the statement of assets and liabilities, the income statement, the other information specified in Annex I Schedule B of the InvFG 2011, and the audit report.

Our audit opinion does not cover this other information, and we provide no assurance whatsoever for this other information.

In the context of our review of the annual report, we are responsible for reading this other information and assessing whether the other information contains material inconsistencies with the annual report or with the information gathered by us during our audit, or appears to contain other manners of material misstatements.

Should we come to the conclusion on the basis of the work completed with the other information received before the date of the audit report that this other information contains a material misstatement, we are required to report about this fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Management and supervisory board responsibilities relating to the annual report

The legal representatives are responsible for preparing the annual report and for ensuring that this report provides a true and fair view of the assets and financial and earnings position of the fund in accordance with Austrian commercial law and the provisions of the InvFG 2011. The legal representatives are also responsible for implementing the internal controls that they deem necessary to facilitate the preparation of an annual report that is free from material misstatements due to error or fraud.

The supervisory board is responsible for monitoring the accounting process of the company as it applies to the fund under its management.

Responsibilities of the auditor in auditing the annual report

Our goals are to ascertain with sufficient certainty whether the annual report contains material misstatements due to error or fraud and to issue an audit certificate that includes our audit opinion. Sufficient certainty is a high degree of certainty but no guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Austrian standards on good auditing, which require the application of the ISA, will always discover material misstatements that may be present. Misstatements can result from fraud or errors and are considered to be material when it can be reasonably expected that individual misstatements or a combination of misstatements can influence economic decisions made by readers on the basis of this annual report.

As part of an audit conducted in accordance with the Austrian standards on good auditing, which require the application of the ISA, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism during the entire audit process.

In addition:

- We identify and assess the risks of material misstatements in the annual report due to error or fraud, plan audit steps in response to these risks, perform the planned audit steps, and collect audit evidence that is sufficient and suitable to form a basis for our audit opinion. The risk that a material misstatement resulting from fraud will remain undiscovered is greater than for misstatements resulting from error because fraudulent activity can include collusion, the falsification of documents, intentional incomplete or misleading representations, and the circumvention of internal controls.
- We familiarise ourselves with the internal control systems that are relevant for the audit to plan audit steps that are appropriate under the specific circumstances, but not so as to state an opinion on the effectiveness of the company's internal control system.

- We assess the appropriateness of the accounting methods applied by the legal representatives and the reasonableness of the estimates made by the legal representatives in the accounts and of the associated information.
- We assess the overall presentation, the structure, and the content of the annual report including the figures as well as whether the annual report depicts the underlying transactions and events in a manner that provides a true and fair view.
- We discuss the planned scope and scheduling of the audit and any material audit findings, including material defects that we discover in the internal control system during our audit, with the supervisory board, among other issues.

Article 6
Unit Categories and Use of Earnings

The Fund features three different unit categories and the corresponding certificates: dividend-bearing units, non-dividend-bearing units with capital gains tax payment, and non-dividend-bearing units without capital gains tax payment, with certificates being issued for one unit each and also for fractional units.

Various unit categories may be issued for this Fund. The creation of unit categories and the issue of units of a specific category shall be decided at the discretion of the Management Company.

The fund assets may in no case fall below the legally stipulated minimum volume for termination as a result of dividend disbursements.

The amounts shall be paid to the holders of dividend-bearing units on or after 1 August of the following accounting year. The remaining amount shall be carried forward.

An amount calculated in accordance with the InvFG must also be paid out on or after 1 August to cover the capital gains tax assessed by the tax authorities on the dividend-equivalent earnings from the fund units unless the Management Company provides suitable proof from the banks managing the corresponding securities accounts that the unit certificates can only be held by Unit-holders who are not subject to Austrian personal income tax or corporation tax or who meet the conditions for exemption from capital gains tax according to § 94 of the Austrian Income Tax Act (Einkommensteuergesetz) at the time of payment.
