SECURITIES

Article 1

(Amended, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) This Act regulates:

1. (amended, SG No. 52/2007, amended and supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) the offer of securities to the public, admission of securities to trading on a regulated market, and the issuing and disposition of dematerialized securities;

2. (amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 77/2011, supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) the operation of Central Depository AD, including the central securities register kept thereby, as well as the requirements to central securities depositories pursuant to Regulation (EU) No. 909/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 July 2014 on improving securities settlement in the European Union and on central securities depositories and amending Directives 98/26/EC and 2014/65/EU and Regulation (EU) No. 236/2012 (OJ L 257/1 of 28 August 2014), hereinafter referred to as "Regulation (EU) No. 909/2014";

3. the requirements to the public companies and to the other issuers of securities;

4. (supplemented, SG No. 39/2005, repealed, SG No. 62/2017, new, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) the activities of the Compensation Fund for Investors;

5. (new, SG No. 51/2022) the requirements for the provision of crowdfunding services, including the organization, licensing and supervision of crowdfunding service providers, the operation of crowdfunding platforms, transparency and marketing communications in connection with the provision of crowdfunding services;

6. (amended, SG No. 86/2006, renumbered from Item 5, SG No. 51/2022) the state supervision to ensure compliance with this Act.

(2) The purpose of this Act is:

1. (amended, SG No. 86/2006) to ensure the protection of investors in securities, inter alia by creating conditions to supply them with fuller and more appropriate information regarding the capital market;

2. (amended, SG No. 86/2006) to create conditions for the development of a transparent, open and efficient capital market;

3. (amended, SG No. 86/2006) to maintain the stability and the public confidence in the capital market.

(3) (New, SG No. 86/2006, amended, SG No. 52/2007) This Act shall not apply to the issuing, acquisition, redemption and transactions in government securities, the systems for registration and settlement of government securities, the regulation of the government securities market and the control over transactions in government securities, as well as to the other financial transactions effected for the purpose of management of the public debt.

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 39/2005, amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 52/2007, supplemented, SG No. 91/2017, amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) Securities shall be any transferable rights recorded in accounts with the central securities register, and, where applicable, in a central securities depository, and for government securities and securities issued by the Bulgarian National Bank – recorded in accounts with the Bulgarian National Bank or with a government securities sub-depository, or in foreign institutions conducting such activities (dematerialised securities), or any documents materialising transferable rights (physical securities) which are negotiable on the capital market, with the exception of instruments of payment, such as:

1. shares in companies and other securities equivalent to shares in companies, partnerships and other legal persons, as well as depository receipts in respect of shares;

2. bonds and other forms of debt securities, including depository receipts in respect of such securities;

3. any other securities giving the right to acquire or sell any such securities or giving rise to a cash settlement determined by reference to securities, exchange rates, interest rates or yields, commodities or other indices or measures.

(2) The debt securities within the meaning given by this Act shall express transferable claims to an income determined or determinable in advance against the issuer of the said securities, which claims have arisen out of the extension to the said issuer of a loan of money or other property rights. Debt securities may furthermore express other rights, unless this is contrary to the law.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006) "Equity securities", within the meaning given by this Act, shall be:

1. any shares in companies;

2. any other securities equivalent to shares in companies;

3. any other type of securities giving the right to acquire shares and securities equivalent to shares as a consequence of their being converted or the rights conferred thereby being exercised, provided that securities of the latter type are issued by the issuer of the underlying shares or by a legal person belonging to the group of the said issuer.

(4) (New, SG No. 86/2006) "Non-equity securities" shall be all securities that are not equity securities within the meaning given by Paragraph (3).

Article 3

Public offering of the following shall be prohibited:

1. physical securities, save in the cases provided for in a statute;
2. dematerialized securities whereof the transfer is subject to restrictions or conditions.

Article 4

(1) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 62/2017, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Offer of securities to the public shall be a notion in the meaning of Article 2 (d) of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 on the prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading on a regulated market, and repealing Directive 2003/71/EC (OJ L 168/12 of 30 June 2017), hereinafter referred to as "Regulation (EU) 2017/1129".

(2) (Repealed, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020).

(3) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 86/2006) Public offering shall not be in effect where the securities are offered in the cases of liquidation, enforcement proceedings or bankruptcy proceedings according to a procedure established by a law.

Article 5

(1) (Previous text of Article 5, SG No. 61/2002) "Initial public offering" shall mean offering made under the terms established by Article 4 herein of:

1. securities for subscribing by the issuer thereof or by an investment intermediary thereby authorized (subscription), or

2. securities for primary distribution by an investment intermediary according to an underwriting agreement concluded with the issuer of the said securities;

3. (supplemented, SG No. 39/2005, repealed, SG No. 86/2006).

(2) (New, SG No. 61/2002, repealed, SG No. 86/2006).

Article 6

(Amended, SG No. 61/2002, supplemented, SG No. 86/2006, repealed, SG No. 52/2007).

Article 7

(Amended, SG No. 86/2006, repealed, SG No. 52/2007).

FINANCIAL SUPERVISION COMMISSION

(Amended, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 8/2003, supplemented, SG No. 39/2005, amended, SG No. 86/2006) The persons, activities and transactions covered under Article 1 (1) herein shall be regulated and supervised by the Financial Supervision Commission, hereinafter referred to as "the Commission," as well as by the Deputy Chairperson of the said Commission in charge of the Investment Activity Supervision Department, hereinafter referred to as "the Deputy Chairperson".

(2) (New, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The Commission shall be a competent authority for the application of Regulation (EU) No. 2017/1129.

(3) (New, SG No. 51/2022) The Commission shall be a competent authority within the meaning of Article 29 of Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 7 October 2020 on European crowdfunding service providers for business, and amending Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 and Directive (EU) 2019/1937 (OJ L 347/1 of 20 October 2020), hereinafter referred to as "Regulation (EU) 2020/1503", and shall exercise the powers referred to in Article 2 (2) and (3), Article 12 (5) to (10), Article 13, Article 16 (2), Article 17, Article 23 (5) and (14), Article 28 (1) to (3), (7) and (8) Article 31 (1) to (7), Article 32 (1) to (3), Articles 30, Article 31 (1) to (7), Article 32 (1) to (3), Article 33, 37 and 38 of Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 with regard to crowdfunding services, with the exception of cases that are provided in the express competence of the Bulgarian National Bank under the Credit Institutions Act.

(4) (New, SG No. 51/2022) The Deputy Chairperson shall be a competent authority within the meaning of Article 29 of Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 and shall exercise the powers which are not conferred in the Commission's exclusive competence with regard to the provision of crowdfunding services.

(5) (New, SG No. 51/2022) As regards the provision of crowdfunding services, the notifications and reporting under Article 15, Paragraph 3 and Article 16, Paragraph 1 of Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 shall be made to the Commission.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Paragraph 2, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020, renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 51/2022) In performance of the functions thereof, the Commission shall adopt clear and consistent decisions, and shall be open and responsible in the acts thereof, shall assess the burden of regulatory restrictions and the benefit expected therefrom, and shall encourage fair competition.

(6) (New, SG No. 67/2025) The Commission shall be a competent authority within the meaning given by Article 44(1) of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 November 2023 on European Green Bonds and optional disclosures for bonds marketed as environmentally sustainable and for sustainability-linked bonds (OJ L 2023/2631 of 30 November 2023), hereinafter referred to as "Regulation (EU) 2023/2631", and shall exercise the powers of a competent authority with regard to compliance by issuers with the requirements referred to in Articles 10 to 15, 18, 19 and 21 of the said Regulation.

(7) (New, SG No. 67/2025) The Deputy Chairperson shall be a competent authority within the meaning given by Article 44(2) of Regulation [(EU)] 2023/2631 and shall exercise the powers of a competent authority with regard to compliance by originators with the requirements referred to in Articles 10 to 15, 18 and 19 of the said Regulation, except where these powers fall within the explicit competence of the Bulgarian National Bank according to the Credit Institutions Act.

(8) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Paragraph (2), SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020, renumbered from Paragraph (3), SG No. 51/2022, renumbered from Paragraph (6), SG No. 67/2025) In performing the functions thereof, the Commission shall adopt clear and consistent decisions, and shall be open and responsible in the acts thereof, shall assess the burden of regulatory restrictions and the benefit expected therefrom, and shall encourage fair competition.

Section IV

Investor Compensation

Article 77a

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007) There shall be established a Compensation Fund for Investors in hereinafter referred to as "the Fund," as a legal person with registered office in Sofia.

(2) The Fund shall pay compensation to the clients of an investment intermediary and of the branches thereof in host Member States under the terms and according to the procedure established by this Act through the resources raised in the Fund in the cases where the investment intermediary is unable to meet the obligations thereof to the clients for reasons directly related to the financial circumstances of the said intermediary.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006) Each investment intermediary, which holds, administers or manages money and/or financial instruments of clients and in respect of which, for this reason, obligations to clients may arise, shall be obligated to make money contributions to the Fund according to Article 77m (1) and (2) herein.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007) The obligation referred to in Paragraph (3) shall furthermore apply to the branches of investment intermediaries from a third country in the Republic of Bulgaria in the cases where:

1. (amended, SG No. 52/2007) a compensation scheme for investors in financial instruments does not operate in the State in which the registered office of the investment intermediary is situated or the said scheme does not cover the branches of the said intermediary abroad;

2. (amended, SG No. 52/2007) the level or scope of cover offered by the compensation scheme for investors in financial instruments existing in the State in which the registered office of the investment intermediary is situated is lower than the level or scope of the cover provided for in this Act; in such case the compensation provided by the Fund shall cover the excess over the compensation offered by the compensation scheme for investors in financial instruments in (the State in which) the registered office of the investment intermediary is situated.

(5) Where the level or scope, including the percentage, of the cover provided for in this Act exceeds the level or scope of the cover offered in the Member State in which the registered office of the investment intermediary which carries on business in the Republic of Bulgaria through a branch is located, the investment intermediary may participate in the Fund for the purpose of offering supplementary cover to the clients of the branch thereof. In such case the Fund shall cover the excess over the compensation offered by the compensation scheme for investors in financial instruments in (the State in which) the registered office of the investment intermediary is situated.

(6) The investment intermediary referred to in Paragraph (5) shall be obligated to make contributions solely under Article 77m (2) herein, whereof the amount shall be fixed in proportion to the supplementary cover provided by the Fund.

(7) Non-payment of the contributions due under this Act by the investment intermediary shall not deprive the rightful clients of the said investment intermediary of compensation up to the levels provided for in Article 77d herein.

Article 77b

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) The Fund shall pay compensation to the clients of the investment intermediary up to the levels provided for in Article 77d herein in the cases where:

1. bankruptcy proceedings against the investment intermediary have been instituted by judgment of the competent district court, including where the bankruptcy proceedings have been closed in pursuance of Article 632 of the Commerce Act;

2. (amended, SG No. 59/2006, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) the licence or authorization, as the case may be, for conduct of business in an investment-intermediary capacity has been revoked by a decision of the competent authority in the cases referred to in Item 6 of Article 27 (1) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act and, applicable to investment intermediaries which are banks, in the cases covered under Article 36 (2) of the Credit Institutions Act;

3. (new, SG No. 62/2017) it is established with a decision of the Commission that the following conditions are simultaneously in place:

a) the financial instruments and/or funds held by the investment intermediary on account of its clients are not available in the corresponding accounts for reasons other than the fulfilment of contractual relationships with clients;

b) in the Commission's opinion, at the specific moment the investment intermediary is unable, for reasons directly related to its financial condition, to pay funds, respectively to recover financial instruments to clients, and will not be able to do so in the short-term.

(2) (New, SG No. 62/2017, amended, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) The decision referred to in Item 3 of Paragraph 1 shall be made within 10 business days of becoming aware that the investment intermediary does not fulfil its obligations to clients for payment of funds and/or transfer of financial instruments. The Financial Supervision Commission can also make a decision under Item 3 of Paragraph 1 following the revocation of the licence of the investment intermediary for performance of activities outside the cases covered under Item 6 of Article 27 (1) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act.

(3) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, amended, SG No. 62/2017) The authority referred to in Item 1 – 3 of Paragraph 1 shall be obligated to transmit a transcript of the decision to the Fund not later than before the end of the day next succeeding the rendition of the said decision.

(4) (New, SG No. 52/2007, renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 62/2017) The Fund shall pay compensation to the clients of a foreign investment intermediary on occurrence of events analogous to those under Paragraph 1, which serve as a ground for payment of compensation under the relevant legislation.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 52/2007, renumbered from paragraph 4, amended, SG No. 62/2017) Within seven days after receipt of the decision referred to in Paragraph (1), the Fund shall give public notice, by insertion in at least two national daily newspapers and by posting on the Internet site thereof, of the decision rendered under Paragraph (1) and of the time limit under Article 77t (2) herein, wherewithin the clients of the investment intermediary may claim payment of compensation from the Fund, as well as the bank wherethrough the compensation is to be paid.

(6) (New, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 5, supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) In the cases of paragraph 1, item 1, the claims of investment intermediary's clients shall be considered made and shall be registered by the trustee in bankruptcy, of the latter's own motion, in the list referred to in item 2 of Article 686 (1) of the Commerce Act.

Article 77c

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) Compensation shall be paid for claims arising out of an inability of the investment intermediary to return the clients' assets in accordance with the legal and contractual conditions.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) "Clients' assets," within the meaning given by this Section, shall be the cash resources, financial instruments and other assets belonging to the clients of an investment intermediary which the said intermediary holds, administers or manages for the account of the said clients in connection with the services provided by the said intermediary under Article 6, Paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act including interest, dividends and other such payments. The clients' assets of any investment intermediaries which are banks shall not include the deposits within the meaning given by Item 1 of § 1 of the Supplementary Provision of the Bank Deposits Guarantee Act.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006) The amount of a claim referred to in Paragraph (1) shall be calculated on the date of rendition of the decision referred to in Article 77b (1) herein in accordance with the legal and contractual conditions, with the value of the clients' assets being determined under terms and according to a procedure established by ordinance.

Article 77d

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) The Fund shall pay each client of an investment firm compensation amounting to 90 per cent of the value of the claim, but not more than EUR 20,000.

(2) No compensation shall be paid to:

1. the members of the management body and the supervisory body of the investment intermediary, as well as to the managerial agents thereof;

2. (amended, SG No. 25/2007) the persons who or which hold, whether directly or indirectly, 5 or more than 5 per cent of the votes in the General Meeting of the investment intermediary or who or which can control the said intermediary, as well as the persons within the same group as the investment intermediary, for which consolidated accounts are prepared;

3. the registered auditor which has audited the annual financial statement of the investment intermediary;

4. the spouses or lineal relatives to any persons referred to in Items 1, 2 and 3 up to any degree of consanguinity, the collateral relatives thereto up to the second degree of consanguinity and the relatives by marriage thereto up to the second degree of affinity;

5. the investment intermediaries;

6. (amended, SG No. 86/2006) the credit institutions;

7. the insurers;

8. the pension and social insurance funds;

9. (amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 109/2013, effective 20.12.2013) the collective investment schemes, the national investment funds, the alternative investment funds managed by persons managing alternative investment funds, and the special purpose investment companies;

10. the State and the institutions of State;

11. the municipalities;

12. (amended, SG No. 103/2005, SG No. 102/2015, effective 1.01.2016) the Compensation Fund for Investors in Securities, the Bank Deposit Insurance Fund-Bulgaria and the Guarantee

Fund under Article 518 of the Insurance Code;

13. (new, SG No. 86/2006) the investors, who have taken advantage of any circumstances relating to the intermediary and which have led to a deterioration of the financial situation thereof, as well as the investors who have contributed to the said situation;

14. (renumbered from Item 13, SG No. 86/2006, amended, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) other professional clients within the meaning of § 1, item 10 of the supplementary provisions of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act.

(3) The Fund shall not pay compensation for claims arising out of and/or in relation to any transactions and actions constituting "money laundering" within the meaning given by Article 2 of the Measures against Money Laundering Act, if the perpetrator is convicted by an effective sentence.

(4) The circumstances justifying the exclusions covered under Paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be established on the date of the decision referred to in Article 77b (1) herein.

Article 77e

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) The Fund shall be transformed, dissolved and liquidated by statute.

(2) Upon liquidation of the Fund, any remainder of the property thereof after payment of the obligations thereof shall be distributed among the investment intermediaries in proportion to the contributions paid thereby, with the exception of such investment intermediaries whereof the obligations to clients have been paid by the Fund.

(3) (New, SG No. 103/2012) The Commission shall supervise the operations of the Fund. Checks shall be conducted by employees of the Commission's administration appointed by an order of the Chairperson.

(4) (New, SG No. 103/2012) Upon request, the Fund shall furnish the Commission with all information and documents related to its operations.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 103/2012) The Commission shall adopt Rules of Organization and Operation of the Fund, which shall be promulgated in the State Gazette.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, amended, SG No. 103/2012) The National Audit Office shall audit the Compensation Fund for Investors.

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) The Management Board of the Fund shall be elected by the Commission and shall consist of five members: a Chairperson, a Deputy Chairperson, and three members.

(2) The Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson of the Management Board of the Fund shall be nominated by the Deputy Chairperson of the Commission.

(3) The remaining three members of the Management Board of the Fund shall be nominated as follows:

1. (amended, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) a person nominated by an association or associations representing the persons which have obtained a licence for provision of services and performance of activities covered under Article 6, Paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act, with the exception of banks, and which are obligated to make money contributions to the Fund under the terms and according to the procedure established by this Act;

2. (amended, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) a person nominated by an association or associations representing the investment intermediaries which are banks, which have obtained a licence for provision of services and performance of activities covered under Article 6, Paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act and which are obligated to make money contributions to the Fund under the terms and according to the procedure established by this Act;

3. (amended, SG No. 62/2017) a person nominated by an association or associations representing management companies, which have obtained a licence for performance of activities and provision of services covered under Article 86 (1) and (2) of the Collective Investment Schemes and Other Undertakings for Collective Investments Act, and which are obligated to make money contributions to the Fund under the terms and according to the procedure established by this Act.

(4) In the cases where the Deputy Chairperson, as well as the association or associations referred to in Paragraph (3), fail to nominate a person for election as member of the Management Board of the Fund within the time limit referred to in Article 77g (2) herein, the Chairperson of the Commission shall nominate a person at his or her discretion.

(5) To be eligible for the office of member of the Management Board, a person must hold a degree of higher education in Economics or Law and possess professional experience of not less than five years in law, finance, accounting, trading in financial instruments, or banking.

(6) Membership of the Management Board of the Fund shall be limited to persons who:

1. have not been members of a management body or a supervisory body of, or general partner in, any corporation whereagainst bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted or any corporation dissolved by bankruptcy and leaving any creditor unsatisfied;

2. have not been adjudicated bankrupt, nor be the subject of bankruptcy proceedings as sole traders;

3. are not spouses or lineal or collateral relatives to any other member of the Management Board of the Fund up to the third degree of consanguinity, or relatives by marriage thereto up to the third degree of affinity;

4. have not been convicted of a premeditated offence at public law;

5. are under no disqualification from occupying a position of property accountability.

(7) The Chairperson and the Deputy Chairperson of the Management Board of the Fund may not engage in any other remunerative activity except research and teaching.

(8) (Amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The remunerations of the Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson and the Members of the Fund's management board shall be determined in the Fund's rules.

(9) (New, SG No. 103/2012) The relations between the Fund and the members of the Management Board shall be regulated by a management contract. The contract shall be executed in writing, on behalf of the Fund, by the Chairperson of the Commission or a person authorised thereof.

Article 77g

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) The term of office of the Management Board shall be five years. The members of the Management Board of the Fund shall continue to exercise the powers thereof and to perform the functions thereof even after expiry of the term of office thereof until the new members take office. The members of the Management Board shall be re-eligible without limitation.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) Within three months prior to the expiry of the term of office of the members of the Management Board of the Fund, the Deputy Chairperson, the association or associations referred to in Article 77f (3) herein shall submit the nominations thereof for persons to be elected as members of the Management Board of the Fund. The Deputy Chairperson shall notify the associations referred to in Article 77f (3) herein of the start of the three-month time period for submission of nominations for members of the Management Board of the Fund.

(3) The term of office of a member of the Management Board shall be terminated prior to the expiry of the said term by decision of the Commission:

1. upon tendering of resignation;
2. if the said member ceases to satisfy the requirements established by Article 77f (6) herein;
3. in the event of actual inability to discharge the duties thereof in the course of a period exceeding six months;
4. upon breach of Article 77f (7) herein;
5. upon non-attendance, without reasonable excuse, of three or more successive meetings of the Management Board;
6. (new, SG No. 42/2009, amended, SG No. 62/2017, SG No. 7/2018, SG No. 84/2023, effective 6.10.2023) upon entry into force of an act which ascertains a conflict of interest under the Counter-Corruption Act.

(4) Upon pre-term termination of the office of a member of the Management Board, a replacement shall be elected to serve the remainder of the term. Paragraph (2) shall apply accordingly.

Article 77h

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) The Management Fund of the Fund shall perform the following functions:

1. determine and collect the entrance and annual contributions from the investment intermediaries in conformity with the rules established in this Act and in the instruments for the application thereof;
2. (amended, SG No. 86/2006) identify, after collection of relevant evidence, the branches of non-resident investment intermediaries in Bulgaria in respect of which the prerequisites covered under Article 77a (4) herein are in place;
3. (amended and supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) make decisions regarding the investing of the assets of the Fund in compliance with the requirements established by this Act and adopted internal rules and limits;
4. organize the payment of compensation up to the limits provided for in Article 77d herein under the terms and according to the procedure established by this Act and the instruments for the application thereof;
5. (*) adopt an annual report on the operation of the Fund and an annual financial statement and lay the said report and statement before the Commission and before the National Audit Office on or before the 30th day of May of the next succeeding year;

Article 77m

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) The entrance contribution shall be made in a lump sum and shall amount to 1 per cent of the minimum amount of capital required for an investment intermediary depending on the licensed services and activities covered under Article 6, Paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act herein.

(2) Each investment intermediary shall make an annual contribution at the rate of:

1. up to 0.5 per cent of the total amount of the funds; and
2. up to 0.1 per cent of the total amount of the rest of the clients' assets for the last preceding year, determined on an average monthly basis.

(3) The percentages referred to in Paragraph 2 for the relevant year shall be fixed by the Management Board not later than the 31st day of December of the preceding year and shall be equal for all investment intermediaries.

(4) Annual contribution shall be remitted in four equal instalments within 30 days after the end of each quarter.

(5) Upon calculation of the amount of the annual contribution due, the funds held in foreign currency terms shall be translated at the exchange rate of the Bulgarian National Bank as applicable on the last date of the month, and the value of the financial instruments and the other assets shall be determined on the last day of the month, if possible at the market value thereof, in accordance with rules established by ordinance.

(6) The assets of the persons covered under Article 77d (2) herein shall be excluded from the total amount of the clients' assets referred to in Paragraph 2.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 62/2017) The amount of the annual contribution due by an investment intermediary which has received a business licence during the relevant year shall be calculated on the total amount of clients' assets at the end of the said year in proportion to the period commencing with the obtaining of the licence to operate as an investment intermediary and ending at the end of the year, with any such year presumed to consist of 360 days. In such cases, the contribution shall be payable on or before the 31st day of January of the year next succeeding the year during which the investment intermediary has received a business licence.

(8) (New, SG No. 103/2012) The amount of the annual contribution due by an investment intermediary whose business licence has been revoked during the relevant year shall be calculated pro rata to the time from the beginning of the year to the date of the decision revoking the licence on the basis of 360 calendar days per year.

(9) (Renumbered from Paragraph 8, SG No. 103/2012) In the event of a failure to pay the relevant instalment of the annual contribution within the time limit referred to in Paragraph 4, interest at the rate of the legal interest shall be charged and recoverable on the amount due for the period of delay.

(10) (Renumbered from Paragraph 9, SG No. 103/2012) The entrance and annual contributions shall be reported as accounting expense for the current year.

(11) (Renumbered from Paragraph 10, SG No. 103/2012) Any contributions made by the investment intermediaries shall be non-refundable, save as where misremitted or over-remitted.

(12) (Renumbered from Paragraph 11, SG No. 103/2012) On or before the 10th day of each month, the investment intermediary shall be obligated to submit to the Commission and to the Fund information of the clients' assets on the last day of the preceding month, presented in a standard form approved by the Deputy Chairperson of the Commission.

(13) (New, SG No. 62/2017, amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) Where the amount of the clients' assets referred to in Paragraph 2, determined on an average monthly basis, is above zero, the amount of the annual instalment shall be not lower than EUR 50.

(14) (New, SG No. 86/2006, renumbered from Paragraph 12, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 13, SG No. 62/2017) The investment intermediaries which are banks shall not make annual contributions under Item 1 of Paragraph 2.

Article 77n

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 59/2006, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006, amended and supplemented, SG No. 52/2007, amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) Should any investment intermediary fail to pay any exigible amount of the annual contribution, the Fund shall notify the Commission for the purpose of taking the action referred to in Article 276 (1) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act herein, and in the cases where the investment intermediary is a bank, the Bulgarian National Bank or the Deputy Governor heading the Banking Supervision Department for the purpose of taking the action referred to in the Credit Institutions Act. If despite the measures taken under the first sentence the investment intermediary fails to meet its obligation for payment, the Commission or the Bulgarian National Bank, as the case may be, shall withdraw the licence of the investment intermediary.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) Should any investment intermediary referred to in Article 77a (5) herein fail to pay any exigible amount of the annual contribution, the Fund shall notify the competent authority which has issued the licence to carry on business to the said investment intermediary for the purpose of taking the action necessary for payment of the amount due by the intermediary. Should the investment intermediary fail to pay the amount due despite the action taken, the Fund, acting with the consent of the competent authority referred to in the first sentence, may suspend the provision of supplementary cover on a twelve months' notice. The Fund shall give notice of the date as from which the provision of supplementary cover is suspended by insertion in at least two national daily newspapers.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) The Fund shall provide payment of compensation even after withdrawal of the licence of the investment intermediary to carry on business or after suspension of the provision of supplementary cover under Paragraph (2), as the case may be, in respect of any claims related to the services provided by the investment intermediary prior to the withdrawal of the said licence or prior to suspension of the provision of supplementary cover.

Article 77o

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) When so requested by the Fund, the Commission and the Bulgarian National Bank shall provide all information available thereto regarding the amount of the clients' assets held with the investment intermediaries as may be necessary for calculation of the contributions due from the investment intermediaries.

(2) The Fund may use the particulars obtained solely for the performance of the functions thereto entrusted.

(3) The members of the Management Board of the Fund and the employees of the administration thereof may not disclose, whether personally or through another person, any information as may come to the knowledge thereof in the course of performance of the functions thereof, should the said information constitute a bank secret, a trade secret or another secret protected by law.

Article 77p

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) The resources of the Fund may be used solely for payment of compensation up to the limits provided for in Article 77d herein in the cases provided for by this Act, for repayment of principal and payment of interest on loans contracted by the Fund, as well as for defrayal of the operating expenses incurred by the Fund.

(2) The resources of the Fund shall be invested in:

1. financial instruments issued or guaranteed by the (Bulgarian) State;
2. short-term deposits with banks;
3. deposits with the Bulgarian National Bank.

Article 77q

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) Should the resources of the Fund be insufficient to cover the liabilities thereof under this Act, by decision of the Management Board any such deficit shall be covered in one of the following manners:

1. by obligating the investment intermediaries to remit the entire annual contribution in a lump sum;
2. by obligating the investment intermediaries to remit the annual contribution for the next succeeding year in advance, using the total amount of the clients' assets on the last day of the last preceding month as a base for calculation of the said contribution;

3. by increasing the annual contribution;

4. by contracting loans under terms which are not less favourable than the market terms.

(2) Any decisions of the Management Board under Paragraph 1 shall have to be approved by the Commission.

(3) Any amount paid in advance under Item 2 of Paragraph 1 shall be deducted from the annual contribution due from the investment intermediary for the next succeeding year, and any amount remitted in excess shall be refundable.

(4) The maximum amount of the annual contribution as increased under Item 3 of Paragraph 1 may not exceed the double amount referred to in Article 77m (2) and (6) herein.

(5) The loans contracted by the Fund may be secured by assets of the Fund, including the future receivables of the Fund.

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) Should the resources accumulated in the Fund exceed 5 per cent of the total amount of the clients' assets with all investment intermediaries, the Management Board may make a decision that payment of the annual contributions be temporarily discontinued. Any such decision of the Management Board shall have to be approved by the Commission.

(2) Payment of annual contributions shall resume should the resources in the Fund fall below the level as specified in Paragraph 1.

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) The value of the claim referred to in Article 77d (1) herein shall be calculated on the basis of the sum total of all claims of the relevant client to the investment intermediary, irrespective of the number of accounts and the place where the said accounts have been opened.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) In the cases where the clients' assets are held in foreign currency terms or in financial instruments, the client shall be paid of the claims thereof in the amount referred to in Article 77d (1) herein, determined on the date of the decision referred to in Article 77b (1) herein.

(3) In the cases where clients' assets belong to more than one person, the share of each one of the said persons shall be taken into account in determining the aggregate amount of the claims thereof to the investment intermediary. Unless otherwise stipulated, the shares of the clients shall be presumed to be equal.

(4) In the cases where the client of the investment intermediary has acted for another's account, the compensation shall be paid to the person for whose account the said client has acted, subject to the condition that the said person is or can be identified prior to the date of the decision referred to in Article 77b (1) herein. If the client of the investment intermediary has acted for the account of two or more persons, Paragraph 3 shall apply.

(5) Any clients' assets which are encumbered or serve as collateral security shall be included in the calculation of the amount of the compensation according to the procedure established by Paragraph 1, while the relevant portion of the compensation appertaining for the clients' assets shall not be paid to the asset-holding client until release of the encumbrance or security. If any clients' assets referred to in the first sentence are subject to an effective act of a judicial authority, the Fund shall pay the compensation due in respect of the clients' assets to the person indicated in the said act as entitled to receive the compensation on the clients' assets.

(6) (New, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) In the cases where the client has any obligations to the investment intermediary, the amount of the said obligations shall be deducted upon determination of the value of the claim referred to in Article 77d (1) herein.

Article 77t

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) Within 30 days after the decision referred to in Article 77b (1) herein, the conservator, liquidator or trustee in bankruptcy as appointed shall submit to the Fund information in writing regarding the clients' assets. In the cases referred to in Item 3 of Article 77b (1), if the Commission has not made a decision for appointing a conservator, the Deputy Chairperson shall submit to the Fund information in writing regarding the clients' assets.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 62/2017) The Fund can be approached in writing with a request for payment of compensation within one year after publication of the notice referred to in Article 77b (5) herein, unless the deadline was missed due to special unforeseen circumstances. The entitlement to compensation shall be extinguished upon the lapse of the period referred to in the first sentence.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) The Fund shall consider the request as submitted and shall pay the compensation not later than three months after ascertainment of the grounds for and amount of the claim from the client of the investment intermediary.

(4) In special cases, the time limit for payment of compensation to the clients of the investment intermediary may be extended by not more than three months by permission of the Commission.

(5) (New, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) In case of a dispute regarding the right to compensation, the client may bring an action against the Fund according to the procedure established by the Code of Civil Procedure within three years after the day of receipt of the communication on the decision on the request for payment of compensation.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) The Fund shall accede to the rights of the clients against the investment intermediary up to the amount of the compensation paid.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) The Fund shall periodically notify the conservator, the liquidator or the trustee in bankruptcy of the amount of the compensation paid to each client.

(8) (Renumbered from Paragraph 7, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) In respect of any claims in excess of the amount of the compensation paid by the Fund, clients shall be satisfied from the property of the investment intermediary in accordance with effective legislation.

(9) (Renumbered from Paragraph 8, supplemented, SG No. 86/2006, effective 28.10.2006) The procedure and manner for consideration of the request and payment of compensation from the Fund shall be regulated by ordinance.

Article 77u

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

The Fund shall owe no interest on the amounts guaranteed.

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

Notwithstanding the time limit established in Article 77t (3) or (4) herein, where a client of the investment intermediary or any other person entitled to compensation be charged with the commission of a criminal offence arising from or related to money laundering, the Fund may suspend payment of compensation until pronouncement of the court.

Article 77w

(New, SG No. 39/2005)

Investment intermediaries may not advertise payment of compensation to any amounts in excess of the amounts established in this Act.

Section V

(New, SG No. 61/2002)
Special Requirements upon Initial public offering of Bonds
(Heading amended, SG No. 103/2012)

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, amended and supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) An initial public offering of covered bonds, for which there is an obligation to publish a prospectus, shall be allowed, provided that the issuer has concluded a contract with a bondholders' trustee. An issuer of covered bonds for the offer of which there is no obligation to publish a prospectus as laid down in Article 89b(2) and which, according to the conditions of the issue, are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market of securities, shall enter into a contract with a bondholders' trustee within 7 days from the date of the first general meeting of bondholders. Article 208, Article 209 (2) and Articles 210 - 213 of the Commerce Act shall not apply.

(2) (New, SG No. 62/2017) In the event that following the expiry of 6 months of the issuance of the bond issue the bonds have not been admitted to trading on a regulated market of securities, the issuer shall be obliged, at a request by a bondholder, to repurchase the bonds at their issue price within 7 days of receiving such request.

(3) (New, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 2, SG No. 62/2017, amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The trustee shall be appointed at the choice of the issuer. The general bondholders' meeting shall approve one of the minimum of two trustee nominations proposed by the issuer which shall be supported by draft contracts and the nominated persons' consent, at the first general meeting of bondholders, if the trustee is not specified in the proposal for subscription of bonds the offer of which does not involve the obligation to publish a prospectus as laid down in Article 89b(2) and which, according to the conditions of the issue, are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market of securities, or shall give its prior consent to a change of trustee, as the case may be.

(4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 62/2017) The bondholders' trustee shall act on its own behalf in the cases specified in this Act and in the contract referred to in Paragraph 1.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 62/2017) The compensation of the trustee shall be for the account of the bond issuer.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 62/2017, amended, SG No. 25/2022, effective 8.07.2022) The provisions of this Section, with the exception of Article 100i1, shall not apply with regard to any covered bonds under Article 2 of the Covered Bonds Act.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 62/2017) The requirement of Paragraph 1 shall apply in respect of any debentures if so provided for in the resolution on the issuing of the bond loan under Article 204 (3) of the Commerce Act.

(8) (Renumbered from Paragraph 6, supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 7, supplemented, SG No. 62/2017, amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) The holders of bonds of the same issue or class may resolve matters of mutual interest at a general meeting. Any such general meeting shall be convened by the bondholders' trustee according to the procedure established by Article 214 of the Commerce Act. The issuer shall assist the bondholders' trustee in the preparation for and the holding of the general meeting of bondholders. The right to vote shall be exercised by the persons registered as bondholders with the central securities register five days before the date of the general meeting.

(9) (New, SG No. 62/2017, amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Unless otherwise stipulated in the terms and conditions of the issue and/or in an agreement between the bondholders, the costs of enforcement on the issuer's assets for covering the claims of the bondholders, including but not limited to fees, legal counsel and legal fees, shall be distributed by a resolution of the general meeting of bondholders taken in accordance with the procedure established by Article 100b (4). The trustee shall not be responsible for collecting the bondholders' claims in the event that the issuer fails to discharge its obligations under the bond loan, if the general meeting of bondholders fails to vote a resolution according to the first sentence herein or if less than 80 percent of the amounts payable by bondholders for costs of enforcement according to the resolution referred to in the first sentence herein are transferred.

Article 100b

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, amended and supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) In the case of bonds the offer of which does not involve the obligation to publish a prospectus as laid down in Article 89b(2) and which, according to the conditions of the issue, are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market of securities, a prospectus for a bond issue, the document referred to in Article 89c and Article 89d, and the proposal referred to in Article 205(2) of the Commerce Act must include:

1. the terms and conditions whereunder the bond issuer is obligated to repay the bond loan before maturity;

2. an obligation of the bond issuer to observe specific financial performance indicators until redemption of the bond loan, including a maximum value of the ratio of liabilities to assets according to the balance sheet and a minimum value of an interest coverage ratio;

3. the conditions which the bond issuer must fulfil for the issuing of new bond issues of the same class;

4. (new, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) the conditions and procedures for modifying the conditions under which the bonds were issued, including the specific parameters of the bond issue subject to subsequent modification.

(2) The interest coverage rate referred to in Item 2 of Paragraph 1 shall be calculated by adding the expenses on interest payable to the profit from ordinary activities and dividing the sum total by the expenses on interest payable.

(3) (New, SG No. 62/2017) Changes in the conditions under which the bonds were issued, including the specific parameters of the bond issue, may be made no later than two months before the maturity of the bond issue.

(4) (New, SG No. 62/2017, supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Any modifications under Item 4 of Paragraph 1 shall be adopted by the general meeting of bondholders, at which not less than two-thirds of the issued bonds are represented, by a resolution taken by a majority of not less than three quarters of the represented bonds. A larger quorum and a majority for voting resolutions to change the terms, conditions and parameters of the bond issue can be envisaged in the prospectus or in the proposal for subscription of bonds. No retroaction shall be allowed for modifications referred to in Item 4 of Paragraph 1.

(5) (New, SG No. 62/2017) If the resolution referred to in Paragraph 4 is for partial repayment of the bond issue before maturity, such repayment shall be made in proportion to each issued bond.

(6) (New, SG No. 62/2017, supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Any changes in the bond issue other than those specified in Item 4 of Paragraph 1, retroaction of changes referred to in Item 4 of Paragraph 1, and any changes made in violation of Paragraphs 3 – 5, shall be null and void.

(7) (New, SG No. 62/2017) Within 5 business days from the resolution referred to in Paragraph 4, an information document shall be prepared. It shall include up-to-date information about all parameters of the bond issue. Within the time limit specified in the previous sentence, the information document shall be disclosed to the public by being provided to the Commission, the regulated market and the public in accordance with the procedure established by Paragraphs 3 and 4 of Article 100r.

(8) (*) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 62/2017) In the cases where the bond issuer has not concluded a contract with a bondholders' trustee, the said issuer shall submit a quarterly report on the compliance with the bond loan terms and conditions to the bulletin of the regulated market on which the bonds are traded and to the Commission within thirty days after the end of each quarter. Issuers that deliver consolidated statements and have undertaken to comply with financial indicators on a consolidated basis shall submit the said report within sixty days after the end of each quarter. Any such report shall contain information regarding:

1. fulfilment of the bond issuer's obligations to the bondholders according to the terms and conditions of the issue, including observance of the specific financial performance indicators;
2. the spending of the proceeds from the bond loan;
3. other circumstances as shall be specified by ordinance.

(*) Editor's Note. According to § 45, Item 1 to the Act on the Measures and Actions during the State of Emergency Declared by a Resolution of the National Assembly of 7 March 2020 (SG No. 28/2020): "In 2020: the time limits referred to in Item 1 of Article 77h (2020), the time limits referred to in Article 100b (5), Item 1 of Article 100f (8), Article 100n (2) and (1), Article 100n2 (1) and (2), Article 115 (1) and proposition two of Article 139 (2) of the Public Offering of Securities Act shall be extended until the 30th day of September 2020".

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

- (1) The bondholders' trustee shall be obligated to act in the best interest of the bondholders.
- (2) Any stipulations whereby the liability of the bondholders' trustee to the bondholders in the event of negligence is excluded or limited shall be invalid.
- (3) The bondholders' trustee shall not be liable to the bondholders for any detriment sustained thereby where the acts or omissions of the said trustee are in pursuance of a resolution of the Bondholders' General Meeting passed by a majority exceeding one half of the votes of the bondholders who subscribed for the loan.

Article 100d

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) To be eligible for the position of bondholders' trustee, a person may be a bank with registered office in Bulgaria, a bank which conducts business in Bulgaria through a subsidiary authorised by the Bulgarian National Bank, or a bank with a registered office in a European Union Member State, under the conditions of establishment.

(2) (New, SG No. 62/2017) The following investment intermediaries shall also be eligible for the position of bondholders' trustee:

1. an investment intermediary which holds a licence issued by the Commission for the provision of investment services and/or for carrying out investment activities under the Markets in Financial Instruments Act or is an investment intermediary from a Member State that carries out such activities in the territory of the Republic of Bulgaria through a subsidiary;

2. (amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) an investment firm which has equity in an amount of not less than EUR 750 000 and satisfies the requirements for capital adequacy of investment firms;

3. an investment intermediary which has sufficient personnel and information for the effective performance of its functions and duties as a trustee according to the requirements of this Act, the instruments for the application thereof and the contract under Article 100a.

(3) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, amended, SG No. 62/2017) The following banks or investment intermediaries shall be ineligible for the position of bondholders' trustee:

1. (amended, SG No. 62/2017) any bank or investment intermediary which underwrites the bond issue or which is a trustee in respect of bonds of another class issued by the same issuer;

2. (new, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) which is a bondholder and hold more than 20 percent of the same bond issue;

3. (amended, SG No. 62/2017, renumbered from Item 2, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) any bank or investment intermediary which controls the issuer, whether directly or indirectly, or which is controlled by the bond issuer, whether directly or indirectly;

4. (new, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017, renumbered from Item 3, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) any bank or investment intermediary to which the issuer, or a party economically related to the issuer within the meaning of § 1 (1) (5) of the Supplementary Provisions of the Credit Institutions Act, has a conditional or unconditional obligation under a credit agreement or under a bank guarantee issued by that bank;

5. (renumbered from Item 3, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017, renumbered from Item 4, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020, renumbered from Item 5, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) in other cases, where a conflict exists or may arise between the interest of the bank or the investment intermediary, or of a person controlling the said bank or investment intermediary, and the interest of the bondholders.

(4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, amended, SG No. 62/2017, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Should any of the circumstances covered under Paragraph 3 occur after conclusion of the contract referred to in Article 100a herein, the bondholders' trustee shall be obligated to notify forthwith the bond issuer and to eliminate the non conformity with the law within 30 days after occurrence of the said circumstances. Where the non-conformity cannot be eliminated, the bond issuer shall be obligated to terminate the contract with the bondholders' trustee not later than 45 days after occurrence of the non-conformity and to conclude a new contract under Article 100a herein with another person. Termination of the contract with the bondholders' trustee shall be effected simultaneously with concluding a contract between the issuer and the new bondholders' trustee.

(5) (New, SG No. 62/2017) The issuer shall notify the Commission and the public in accordance with the procedure established by Paragraphs 3 and 4 of Article 100r of the need to terminate the contract with the bondholders' trustee within 7 days of the expiry of the 30-day time-period defined in Paragraph 4, where the non-conformity with the circumstances specified in Paragraph 3 is not eliminated.

(6) (New, SG No. 62/2017) Within 7 days of the conclusion of the contract with the new bondholders' trustee, the change in the bondholders' trustee shall be notified to the relevant register of collaterals, without affecting the ranking of the collateral.

(7) (New, SG No. 62/2017) The change referred to in Paragraph 6 shall be recorded in the relevant register, in which the collateral is entered, based on the contract concluded with the new trustee and the resolution of the general meeting of bondholders agreeing to the change of the trustee. If the recording shall be made in the property register, the contract concluded with the new trustee shall have a notary certification of signatures.

(8) (New, SG No. 62/2017) In case of change under Paragraph 6, the current trustee shall be obliged to cooperate fully with the issuer and the new trustee in connection with the actions under Paragraphs 6 and 7, including by carrying out the necessary legal and factual actions required for the effective replacement of the trustee without changing the ranking of the collateral.

(9) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, amended, SG No. 62/2017) The provision of Paragraph 4 shall furthermore apply accordingly in the cases where the authorisation for conduct of business of the bondholders' trustee has been revoked, where a resolution on voluntary liquidation has been passed, or where bankruptcy proceedings have been instituted thereagainst.

(10) (New, SG No. 62/2017) In case a circumstance under Paragraph 9 exists, the issuer of the bonds shall be obliged to convene a general meeting of bondholders within 30 days of the date of entering the circumstance under Paragraph 9 in the commercial register. Within the time limit specified in the first sentence herein, the issuer shall be obliged to submit to the Commission the invitation together with the materials specified in the second sentence of Article 100a (3), subject to the requirements of Paragraphs 2 and 3, in accordance with the procedure established by Article 100r (4), as well as to disclose it to the public in accordance with the procedure established by Article 100r (3). The contract with the newly elected bondholders' trustee shall be concluded within the deadline specified in the second sentence of Article 100a (1).

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) The contract referred to in Article 100a herein must fully define the rights and obligations of the bondholders' trustee in respect of the bond issuer, the obligations of the trustee in respect of the bondholders, as well as the obligations of the issuer to the bondholders' trustee.

(2) The contract referred to in Article 100a herein shall be part of the prospectus for the bond issue.

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) The bond issuer shall be obligated:

1. (amended, SG No. 52/2007) to supply the bondholders' trustee with the information covered under Chapter Six "a" within the appropriate time limits;

2. (*) (amended, SG No. 103/2012) within 30 days after the end of each quarter, to furnish the bondholders' trustee with a report on the fulfilment of its obligations according to the terms and conditions of the bond issue, including the spending of the proceeds from the bond loan, the observance of the specific financial performance indicators, and the state of the collateral; Issuers that deliver consolidated statements and have undertaken to comply with financial indicators on a consolidated basis shall submit the said report within sixty days after the end of each quarter;

(*) Editor's Note. According to § 45, Item 1 to the Act on the Measures and Actions during the State of Emergency Declared by a Resolution of the National Assembly of 7 March 2020 (SG No. 28/2020): "In 2020: the time limits referred to in Item 1 of Article 77h (2020), the time limits referred to in Article 100b (5), Item 1 of Article 100f (8), Article 100n (2) and (1), Article 100n2 (1) and (2), Article 115 (1) and proposition two of Article 139 (2) of the Public Offering of Securities Act shall be extended until the 30th day of September 2020".

3. (supplemented, SG No. 62/2017, amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) to notify the bondholders' trustee, the Commission and the public, in accordance with the provisions established by Article 100r (3), not later than the end of the next succeeding working day of:

(a) any changes in the collateral as pledged to secure the bond issue, including any material changes in the value of the property pledged;

(b) any breach of the obligation to observe the financial performance indicators as specified in the contract;

(c) (new, SG No. 103/2012) any circumstance that may have a negative impact on the fulfilment of the issuer's obligations related to the bond issue;

(d) (new, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) any interest or principal payment made in respect of the bonds issued;

4. (new, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) subject to the conditions laid down in the contract, as well as upon the request of the trustee, to make available to it any other information and documents specified in the contract or necessary for the fulfilment of the trustee's obligations. If the contract is silent on the time limit for the submission of the information, it shall be made available within three business days from the date when the trustee made its request.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 62/2017) The issuer shall submit the report referred to in Item 2 of Article 1 herein to the Commission and to the public in accordance with the procedure established by Article 100r (3) and (4), as well as to the regulated market of securities to which the bonds were admitted to trading.

Article 100f1

(New, SG No. 67/2025) When carrying out the activities thereof, issuers of European Green Bonds shall furthermore comply with the requirements of the applicable guidelines adopted by ESMA, where the Commission has adopted a decision on the application of the said guidelines according to Item 26 of Article 13 (1) of the Financial Supervision Commission Act.

Article 100g

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) The bondholders' trustee shall be obligated:

1. (amended, SG No. 103/2012, supplemented, SG No. 42/2016) to analyse the issuer's financial statements and notifications under Article 100n1, where applicable, within 14 days following their disclosure and to evaluate the impact of the regulated information disclosed by the issuer in respect of the circumstances influencing its financial position within a 7-day time limit from its disclosure in terms of the issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations to bondholders;

2. (new, SG No. 103/2012) When establishing that the issuer's financial position has deteriorated, within three business days after the expiration of the time limit concerning the analysis under Item 1, to request information and evidence as to the measures taken to ensure the fulfilment of the issuer's obligations for the bond issue concerned;

3. (amended, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Item 2, amended, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 62/2017) within thirty days after the submission of the report referred to in Article 100f(1)(2), or after the expiration of the time limit to do so-if the report was not timely submitted-to furnish the regulated market on which the bonds are traded and the Commission with a report for the period lapsed, containing the information under Article 100b(8), as well as information regarding:

(a) the state of the collaterals of the bond issue, where such terms and conditions exist;

(b) the financial position of the bond issuer in terms of the ability to fulfil the obligations thereof to the bondholders;

(c) (new, SG No. 103/2012) the measures undertaken by the issuer according Item 2;

(d) (renumbered from Litterae "c", SG No. 103/2012) the acts performed thereby in fulfilment of the obligations thereof;

(e) (renumbered from Litterae "d", SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) the existence or non-existence of circumstances covered under Article 100d (3) herein;

4. (renumbered from Item 3, SG No. 103/2012) to verify regularly the availability and state of the collateral;

5. (renumbered from Item 4, SG No. 103/2012) to reply in writing to any questions by the bondholders in connection with the bond issue;

6. (new, SG No. 103/2012) to monitor the timely transfers of the payments due in respect of the bond issue in the amount set;

7. (new, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) within 14 days after the expiration of the time limit to submit the report referred to in Item 2 of Article 100f (1) - if the report was not timely submitted - to furnish the regulated market on which the bonds are admitted to trading and the Commission with information about it.

(2) Should the issuer fail to fulfil an obligation according to the terms and conditions of the bond issue, the bondholders' trustee shall be obligated:

1. (amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 62/2017) by the end of the working day following the day of becoming aware of the failure of the issuer to fulfil its obligations, to notify of such failure the regulated market on which the bonds are admitted to trading and the Commission;

2. to take steps as shall be necessary for safeguarding the rights and interests of the bondholders, including:

(a) to demand from the bond issuer the provision of additional collateral to an amount as shall be necessary to guarantee the interests of the bondholders;

(b) to notify the bond issuer of the amount of the bond loan which becomes exigible in the event of overdue payment of a specific portion of the pecuniary obligations to the bondholders;

(c) to proceed with out-of-court execution against the collateral of the bond issue in the cases admissible by the law;

d) (supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) to bring actions against the bond issuer, to represent the bondholders and to protect their rights in substantive proceedings;

e) (supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) to petition the institution of bankruptcy proceedings against the bond issuer, to represent the bondholders and to protect their rights in bankruptcy proceedings against the issuer;

f) (new, SG No. 62/2017) to proceed with individual enforcement under the Code of Civil Procedure against the issuer or third parties who have provided collateral in connection with the obligations of the issuer under the bond loan;

3. (new, SG No. 62/2017) by the end of the next succeeding working day, to notify the regulated market on which the bonds are admitted to trading and the Commission of the steps taken in accordance with Item 2 herein.

(3) (New, SG No. 62/2017) By the end of the business day on which it was notified, the regulated market shall disclose on its website the information under Items 1 and 2 of Paragraph 2 herein.

(4) (Supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 3, amended, SG No. 62/2017, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) Central Depository AD shall make available the information from the central securities register contained in the register of bondholders upon the request of the trustee that represents them or of the issuer in the cases referred to in Article 100d (5). The bondholders' trustee or the issuer, as the case may be, may furthermore receive the information contained in the register of bondholders through the central securities depository with which the securities are registered.

Article 100h

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 62/2017) The claims of the bondholders may be secured by a pledge, a mortgage or an insurance, and the bond issue shall be named secured creditor.

(2) (Repealed, SG No. 62/2017).

(3) (Amended, SG No. 62/2017) Only first-ranking pledges and mortgages may be created in favour of the bondholders, except where the bond issue is made to refinance liabilities of the issuer already secured by a pledge or a mortgage, which will serve as collateral for the new bond issue. Pledges and mortgages established in favour of the bondholders may be other than first-ranking, and the terms and conditions of the issue shall stipulate the time limit during which the collaterals on the refinanced obligations shall be deleted, and following such deletion the collaterals for the new bond issue will become first-ranking.

(4) (New, SG No. 62/2017) In the event that the collateral is in the form of insurance, the latter shall be taken from an insurer with the minimum credit rating specified in the ordinance referred to in Item 4 of Article 100n (4). An insurance shall be accepted as collateral within the meaning of Paragraph 1 only if the insurer has assumed an unconditional obligation for the entire duration of the insurance contract, regardless of whether the premium has been paid in full.

Article 100i

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, effective 29.03.2013, amended and supplemented, SG No. 62/2017, amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Initial public offering of a bond issue for which collateral is envisaged shall be permitted after the collateral has been established, unless the terms and conditions of the bond issue provide that the funds raised from the bond loan can be released after the collateral is established within a time limit specified in the terms and conditions of the issue. If a collateral is not established within the time limit referred to in the first sentence herein, the funds raised shall be returned to the subscribers of the bonds under the conditions and within the time limits specified in Article 89l. In the event of an unsuccessful initial public offering of a bond issue covered by collateral, as well as after paying the issuer's obligations under a bond issue covered by collateral, the trustee shall give its consent for the deregistration of the security interest within three days upon the request of the issuer or a third party that has provided the collateral.

(2) The requirement referred to in Paragraph 1 shall not apply where the collateral is property acquired on funds raised by the bond loan. Until acquisition of the said property, the funds raised shall be kept on a bank account in the name of the trustee. The trustee shall see to the creation of collateral according to the terms and conditions of the contract referred to in Article 100a herein.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 103/2012, effective 29.03.2013, SG No. 109/2013, effective 20.12.2013, SG No. 62/2017) At the time of creating collateral - or, if it was created before the contract was concluded, immediately thereupon - and within the time limits set in the contract, but at least once a year, as well as upon the occurrence of events enabling the presumption that the collateral value has been decreased by at least 5 per cent, the trustee shall commission, at the issuer's expense, independent valuers under Article 5 of the Independent Valuers Act to determine the market value of the property pledged and mortgaged.

(4) The initial appraisal of the collateral referred to in Paragraph 1 shall be attached to the prospectus for the bond issue, and in the rest of the cases the appraisals shall be attached to the reports of the issuer on fulfilment of the obligations thereof under the loan.

therefrom during the reporting period; when no such policy is applied, the declaration shall contain an explanation regarding the reasons for that.

(9) (New, SG No. 42/2016) The corporate management code under Paragraph 8, Item 1, Letter "a" shall be published on the web page of the Commission. When the issuer has adopted another code under Paragraph 8, Item 1, Letter "b" to comply with, the corporate management declaration shall state explicitly where the respective texts are accessible to the public. In the cases under Paragraph 8, Item 1, Letter "c", the issuer shall disclose to the public details about its corporate management practices.

(10) (New, SG No. 42/2016) The registered auditor, which performs an independent financial audit of annual and consolidated financial statements, shall obligatorily express in the auditor's report an opinion under Paragraph 8, Items 3 and 4 and shall verify whether the information under Paragraph 8, Items 1, 2, 5 and 6 has been presented.

(11) (New, SG No. 42/2016) The requirements of Paragraph 8, Items 1, 2, 5 and 6 shall not be applied to issuers who have issued securities, other than shares of stock, admitted to trade on a regulated market only, unless such issuers have issued shares of stock which are traded on a multi-lateral trading system.

(12) (New, SG No. 42/2016) The requirements of Paragraph 8, Item 6 shall not be applied to the small and medium enterprises.

(13) (New, SG No. 72/2024, effective 6.07.2024) The obligation under Paragraph 8, Item 6 shall be considered fulfilled also when the issuer has included the requisite information as part of the sustainability reporting and has stated that in the corporate management declaration.

(14) (New, SG No. 72/2024, effective 6.07.2024) Where the issuer prepares a sustainability report according to Article 41 of the Accountancy Act, it shall also be obligated to disclose publicly, together with the annual financial statements, the auditor's opinion report on the sustainability report.

(15) (New, SG No. 26/2020, effective 1.01.2021, renumbered from Paragraph 13, SG No. 72/2024, effective 6.07.2024) The registered auditor which performs an independent financial audit of the annual financial statements of the public company must express in the audit report an opinion as to whether a report on the implementation of the remuneration policy has been submitted and whether said report meets the requirements defined in the Ordinance referred in Article 116c(1).

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 42/2016) The issuer shall be obligated to disclose to the public a 6-month financial statement on its activities, encompassing the first 6 months of the financial year, within a time limit of 30 days from the end of the relevant 6-month period.

(2) (*) (Amended, SG No. 42/2016) The issuer, which prepares the consolidated annual financial statements, shall be obligated to disclose to the public a 6-month consolidated financial statement on its activities, encompassing the first 6 months of the financial year, within a time limit of 60 days from the end of the relevant 6-month period.

(*) Editor's Note. According to § 45, Item 1 to the Act on the Measures and Actions during the State of Emergency Declared by a Resolution of the National Assembly of 7 March 2020 (SG No. 28/2020): "In 2020: the time limits referred to in Item 1 of Article 77h (2020), the time limits referred to in Article 100b (5), Item 1 of Article 100f (8), Article 100n (2) and (1), Article 100n2

(1) and (2), Article 115 (1) and proposition two of Article 139 (2) of the Public Offering of Securities Act shall be extended until the 30th day of September 2020".

(3) (Amended, SG No. 42/2016) The issuer shall be obligated to ensure that the six-month financial report and the six-month consolidated financial statements remain publicly available for a period of at least ten years.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 42/2016) The six-month financial report on the activity shall contain:

1. a set of financial statements drawn up in accordance with the applicable accounting standards;

2. an interim report on the activity containing information about major events in the six-months, and about their impact on the results in the financial statements, as well as a description of major risks and uncertainties faced by the issuer in the remaining part of the year; for the issuers of shares the report shall contain information about large transactions concluded between close links, whose minimum contents shall be specified by ordinance.

3. declarations by the responsible persons within the issuer, specifying their names and functions, certifying that to the best of their knowledge:

a) the financial statements, prepared in accordance with the applicable accounting standards, present truly and fairly the information about the issuer's assets and liabilities, financial standing and profit or loss and of the companies included in the consolidation;

b) the interim report on the activity shall contain a truthful review of the information under item 2;

4. any other information as shall be specified by ordinance.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 42/2016) Where the issuer is obligated to prepare consolidated financial statements, the six months consolidated activity report shall have the contents laid down in paragraph 4, and the financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with the International Accounting Standards applicable to the preparation of interim statements.

(6) Where the issuer is not obligated to prepare interim consolidated financial statements under Paragraph 5, in the cases where they are not prepared in accordance with the International Accounting Standards, they shall contain at least a condensed balance sheet, a condensed income statement and selected notes whose contents shall be specified by ordinance. The same principles of recognition and reporting shall apply to the preparation of the condensed balance sheet and the condensed income statement as those applied to the preparation of the annual financial statements.

(7) If the interim financial statements have been audited by a registered auditor or an audit review has been conducted thereof under conditions and with contents as specified by ordinance, the auditor report or the results of the review, as the case may be, shall be made public together with the financial statements. If the financial statements are not audited or no review thereof has been conducted, the issuer shall state this circumstance.

Article 100n1

(New, SG No. 42/2016)

(1) The issuer shall be obligated to disclose to the public a notification of its financial conditions within a time limit of 30 days from the end of the first, third and fourth quarter.

(2) (*) Any issuer who is obligated to prepare annual consolidated financial statements shall disclose a public notification of its financial condition on a consolidated basis within a time limit of 60 days from the end of the first, third and fourth quarter.

(*) Editor's Note. According to § 45, Item 1 to the Act on the Measures and Actions during the State of Emergency Declared by a Resolution of the National Assembly of 7 March 2020 (SG No. 28/2020): "In 2020: the time limits referred to in Item 1 of Article 77h (2020), the time limits referred to in Article 100b (5), Item 1 of Article 100f (8), Article 100n (2) and (1), Article 100n2 (1) and (2), Article 115 (1) and proposition two of Article 139 (2) of the Public Offering of Securities Act shall be extended until the 30th day of September 2020".

(3) The issuer shall be obligated to ensure that the notifications under Paragraphs 1 and 2 remain available to the public for a period of not less than 5 years.

(4) The notifications under Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall contain:

1. information summaries according to a template specified by the Deputy Chairperson;

2. explanatory notes;

3. (new, SG No. 16/2022) declarations by the persons responsible within the issuer stating their names and functions, certifying that to the best of their knowledge the public notification of the issuer's financial status fully and correctly reflects the information about the assets and liabilities, financial status and profit or loss of the issuer and of the companies included in the consolidation;

4. (renumbered from Item 3, SG No. 16/2022) other information determined by an ordinance.

(5) The explanatory notes under Paragraph 4, Item 2 shall contain, as a minimum, information on important events that have occurred during the respective quarter and with accrual from the beginning of the financial year to the end of the respective quarter, and on their impact on the results contained in the information summaries under Item 1, as well as a description of the major risks and uncertainties confronting the issuer during the remainder of the financial year, transactions with related persons or stakeholders, as well as information on newly-arising significant receivables and/or liabilities for the respective reporting period.

(6) (Supplemented, SG No. 16/2022) The notifications under Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be signed by the person who represents the issuer and by the person who has prepared the public notification of financial status.

(7) The requirements of Paragraphs 1 - 6 shall not be applied in case the issuer discloses to the public quarterly financial reports on its activity, within a time limit of 30 days from the end of the first, third and fourth quarter, having the respective content under Article 100n (4) and subject to appropriate application of Article 100n, Paragraphs 2, 5, 6 and 7. In this case the issuer shall ensure that the quarterly financial report and the quarterly consolidated financial statements remain publicly available for a period of at least 5 years.

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 21/2012, amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The requirements under Article 100m, Article 100n and Article 100n1 shall not apply to issuers from a third country if the Commission deems that the law of such third country stipulates requirements equivalent to the requirements laid down in of this Act and in its implementation acts. The Commission shall notify ESMA of its judgement under the first sentence. The conditions under which the Commission may deem that the requirements of the law of that country are equivalent to the requirements herein and the statutory instruments for the application of this Act shall be set out by ordinance.

(2) The information that the persons under Paragraph 1 must disclose in accordance with their national law shall be disclosed under the terms and procedure of Articles 100r and 100t.

(3) The persons under Paragraph 1 shall furthermore disclose information under the terms and procedure of Articles 100r and 100t, as required under their national law, including where it is not regulated but could be of importance for the public in the Member States.

(4) The Commission shall publish on its website a list of the countries in respect of which it considers that their laws set out requirements equivalent to the requirements herein and the statutory instruments for application of this Act.

(3) The issuer under Article 100t1 shall be obligated to ensure that the annual payments statement and the consolidated statement on payments remain publicly available to the public for a period of at least 10 years.

Article 100t3

(New, SG No. 42/2016)

The content and scope of the annual payment report, as well as the applicable definitions shall be stipulated by the Accountancy Act.

Section III

Requirements to issuers of bonds for provision of information to the holders of bonds and other debt securities

Article 100u

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) The issuer of bonds shall ensure equal treatment of the bondholders enjoying equal status regarding all rights attaching to the bonds.

(2) The bondholders may be represented by a proxy with a power of attorney executed in accordance with the laws of the country in which the registered office of the issuer is located.

(3) The person under Paragraph 1 shall:

1. ensure all the necessary conditions and information so as to enable the bondholders to exercise their rights, as well as to guarantee the completeness of such information;

2. submit a copy of the power of attorney under Paragraph 2 on paper or electronically, where applicable, together with the materials for the general meeting or on request and after its convening;

3. specify at least one financial institution through which payments on the bonds shall be made; the types of financial institutions through which payments may be made shall be set out by ordinance.

(4) The issuer may use electronic means to provide information to the bondholders if the general meeting has passed a resolution thereof and subject to the following conditions:

1. use of electronic means is not contingent on the registered office or address of the bondholders or their proxies;

2. measures are taken for identification so as to ensure effective provision of the information to the bondholders;

3. the bondholders have expressly stated their written consent for providing the information electronically or within 14 days from receipt of a request from the issuer of such consent have not expressly objected thereof; at request of the bondholders the issuer shall also provide the information to them at all times on paper;

4. determination of the costs for the provision of information electronically does not prejudice the principle under Paragraph 1 for ensuring equal treatment.

(5) Paragraphs 1 - 4 shall apply mutatis mutandis to provision of information by issuers of other debt securities to their holders.

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 62/2017) The issuer of bonds shall send to the Commission and disclose to the public in accordance with the procedure established by Article 100r (3) and (4) the invitation under Article 214, Paragraph 1 of the Commerce Act at least 15 days before the general meeting, and the minutes of the general bondholders' meeting within three business days afterwards. In addition to the information under Article 223, paragraph 4 of the Commerce Act, the invitation for the general meeting shall include information about the right of the bondholders to participate in it.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) The issuer of bonds shall notify the Commission of and disclose to the public in accordance with the procedure established by Article 100r (3) and (4):

1. (repealed, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020);

2. (supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) the decisions on conversion, repayment before maturity, buy-back, exchange, subscription or cancellation of rights on the bonds and payments thereon.

(3) The obligation under paragraph 2 shall be performed by the end of the working day following the day of taking the decision, and where it is subject to entry in the commercial register, by the end of the working day following the day of coming of knowledge of the entry but no later than 7 days after the entry.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 42/2016, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) Where the invitation for the general meeting refers only to holders of bonds with single nominal value of at least EUR 100,000 or the equivalent amount of another currency in which the bonds are denominated at the date of their issue, the issuer of the bonds for whom the Republic of Bulgaria is a Member State of origin may take a decision for the general meeting to be held in any Member State, provided that all the necessary conditions and information are ensured in such Member State so as the bondholders be able to exercise their rights. In this case the issuer shall notify the Commission of its choice.

(5) (New, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) While complying with the requirements of Paragraph 4, the procedure set out therein shall also apply to holders of bonds the denomination per unit of which is at least EUR 50,000 or the equivalent amount in any other currency of denomination of the bonds at the date of the issue, which were admitted to trading on a regulated market in the European Union before 31 December 2010.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 103/2012) The Commission shall make public the information received through the register of public companies and other issuers of securities kept by it.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 6, amended, SG No. 103/2012) Paragraphs 1 - 6 shall apply mutatis mutandis to issuers of other debt securities.

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 21/2012) The requirements under this Section shall not apply to issuers from a third country if the Commission deems that the law of the third country in question lays down equivalent requirements to those stipulated herein and in the statutory instruments for application of this Act. The Commission shall notify ESMA of its judgement under the first sentence. The conditions under which the Commission may deem that the requirements of the law of the third country are equivalent to the requirements herein and the statutory instruments for application of this Act shall be set out by ordinance.

(2) The information that the persons under Paragraph 1 shall disclose according to national law shall be disclosed under the terms of Articles 100r and 100t.

(3) The persons under Paragraph 1 shall disclose under the terms of Articles 100r and 100t the information which they disclose under their national law and which may be of importance for the public in the Community, even if such information is not regulated information.

(4) The Commission shall publish on its website a list of the countries whose laws provide for requirements equivalent to the requirements herein and the statutory instruments for application of this Act.

Section V

Supervision and cooperation

Article 100z

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) To ensure compliance with the provisions of this Chapter, besides the powers provided for in the other titles herein and in the statutory instruments for application of this Act, the Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as appropriate, may:

1. require from auditors, the issuer and the persons controlling it or which are controlled by it to provide specific information and documents;

2. require from the issuer to disclose publicly the information under item 1 in a manner and within a time limit set out by him/her;

3. publish, after presentation of an explanation by the issuer, the information under item 1 at his/her own initiative in the cases where the issuer or the persons that control it or are controlled by it have not fulfilled their obligation under item 2;

4. require from the members of the management and supervisory bodies and the procurators of the issuer to provide information set out in this Chapter and where necessary, additional information and documents;

5. ban trading in specific securities on a regulated market for a period not exceeding 10 days if he/she has reasonable grounds to assume that the provisions of this Chapter and the instruments for its application are violated;

6. ban trading on a regulated market if the provisions of this Chapter and the instruments for its application are violated or there are reasonable grounds for him/her to assume that they are violated;

7. obligate the issuer to take specific measures for timely disclosure of information to ensure public access to it simultaneously in all Member States in which the issuer's securities are admitted to trading;

8. (repealed, SG No. 42/2016);

9. obligate the issuer within a reasonable time limit set by it to remove any deficiencies or non-conformities herewith and with the statutory instruments for application of this Act, including the International Accounting Standards, established in the financial statements, records and other accounting documents.

(2) In the cases under Paragraph 1, item 1 the auditor shall be exempt from the limitations on disclosure of information set out in law, by-law or contract. The auditor shall not be responsible for disclosure of information under Paragraph 1, item 1 to the Commission and the Deputy Chairperson.

(3) (New, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The powers referred to in Paragraph 1, Items 2, 3, 5 and 6 shall be exercised by the Commission on the initiative of the Deputy Chairperson, and the powers referred to in Paragraph 1, Items 1, 4, 7 and 9 – by the Deputy Chairperson in accordance with the procedure established by Article 213 herein.

(4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, amended, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) The Commission in accordance with the procedure of Article 212a, paragraph 6 shall disclose on its website, as soon as possible, any administrative measure applied and any penal decree issued for violating the provisions of this chapter and of the acts for its implementation.

Article 100aa

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) The Commission shall cooperate and exchange information with relevant competent authorities of the other Member States, where this necessary for the purpose of carrying out its duties and shall render assistance in view of the exercise of their functions.

(2) (New, SG No. 21/2012) Where a request of the Commission for cooperation under Paragraph 1 is refused or where no timely actions have been taken upon such request, the Commission may notify ESMA in order to ensure cooperation in accordance with Regulation (EU) No. 1095/2010.

(3) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, supplemented, SG No. 21/2012, amended, SG No. 42/2016) Where the Republic of Bulgaria is a host country and the Commission establishes that an issuer violates the Act and the statutory instruments for its application it shall notify the competent authority in the Member State of origin and ESMA thereof.

(4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, supplemented, SG No. 21/2012, amended, SG No. 42/2016) If, despite the measures taken by the competent authority in the Member State of origin or where such measures prove inadequate, the issuer persists in infringing this Act or the statutory instruments for its application, the Commission may, after informing the competent authority of the Member State of origin, take all the appropriate measures in order to protect investors. The Commission shall notify the European Commission and ESMA of the measures taken within 7 days after their implementation.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 21/2012, amended, SG No. 42/2016) Where the Commission is notified by the relevant competent authority of the host country of an issuer for whom the Republic of Bulgaria is a Member State of origin and who infringes the law of the Member State on whose territory its securities are admitted to trading, the Commission, the Deputy Chairperson respectively, shall apply relevant enforcement administrative measures.

(5) (New, SG No. 61/2002) During any calendar year, a public company may not acquire more than 3 per cent of its own voting shares in the event of reduction of capital by cancellation of shares and repurchase save under the terms and according to the procedure of tender offering under Article 149b herein. In such a case, the requirements to holders of at least 5 per cent wishing to acquire more than one third of the voting shares shall not apply.

(6) (New, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended and supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) A public company shall be obligated to notify the Commission and the public in accordance with the procedure established by Article 100r (3) and (4) of the number of own shares which the said company will repurchase within the restriction referred to in paragraph 5 and regarding the investment intermediary wherewith an order of the repurchase has been placed. Notification shall be made no later than the close of the working day preceding the date of the repurchase.

(7) (New, SG No. 61/2002) Upon an offer to acquire its own non voting shares in the cases covered under Paragraph 5, any public company shall be obligated to repurchase the shares held by the shareholders who or which have accepted the offer in proportion to the capital stock held thereby prior to the purchase. In such a case, Article 149b herein shall not apply.

(8) (New, SG No. 62/2017) A public company shall be obligated to notify the Commission and the public in accordance with the procedure established by Article 100r (3) and (4), as well as the regulated market on which the shares are admitted to trading, of the number of own shares repurchased not later than the end of the working day following the working day of the repurchase made in accordance with Paragraph 5.

(9) (New, SG No. 62/2017) In case of non-observance of Article 187a (5), respectively of Article 187d of the Commerce Act, the public company shall be obliged, within one month of the expiration of the time limit stipulated in Article 187a (4), respectively Article 187d of the Commerce Act, to convene a general meeting of the shareholders to vote a resolution on the reduction of the company's capital as a result of the cancellation of the own shares held in violation of these provisions.

(10) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, renumbered from Paragraph 8, SG No. 62/2017) A public company which acquires or transfers its own shares directly or through another person acting on own behalf but on the account of the public company, shall disclose information about the number of votes attaching to such shares, under the terms and procedure of Articles 100r and 100t forthwith, but no later than 4 working days after the acquisition or transfer thereof, where their number reaches, exceeds or falls below 5 or 10 per cent of the voting shares.

(11) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, renumbered from Paragraph 9, SG No. 62/2017) The voting rights shall be calculated on the basis of the total number of voting shares.

Article 111a

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) Any public company shall disclose under the conditions of Articles 100r and 100t any changes in the rights of separate classes of shares, including changes in the rights to derivative financial instruments issued by it, which give right to acquisition of shares of the company.

(2) Any public company shall notify the Commission of any decision on issuance of new shares, including decisions on distribution, subscription, cancellation or conversion of bonds into shares.

(3) The obligation under Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be discharged by the close of the working day following the day of taking the decision, and where it is subject to entry in the commercial register, by the close of the working day following the day of coming of knowledge of the entry but no later than 7 days after the entry.

(4) The Commission shall make public the information received through the register of public companies and other issuers of securities kept by it.

Article 112

(Amended, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) Upon increase of capital of any public company, each shareholder shall have the right to acquire shares in proportion to the capital stock held thereby prior to the increase. Article 194 (4) and Article 196 (3) of the Commerce Act shall not apply.

(2) Upon increase of capital of any public company by issuing of new shares, rights as defined in Item 3 of § 1 herein shall be issued. One right shall be issued for each existing share.

(3) (New, SG No. 103/2012, amended and supplemented, SG No. 26/2020) The requirement set out in Paragraph 2 shall not apply to cases of increasing the capital of public companies in which only its employees are eligible to participate. The capital of public companies may not be increased under the first sentence by more than 1 per cent in a given year, whereby no successive increases of capital exceeding 3 per cent of its amount may be made as per this procedure, regardless of the period lapsed between them, unless the capital was successfully increased meanwhile pursuant to Paragraph 2 by at least 10 per cent. Shares issued pursuant to the first sentence may not, at any time, exceed 5 per cent of the capital of the public company. Decisions for capital increase covered by the first sentence may only be taken by the general meeting of shareholders of the public company in compliance with the requirements set out in this Act and in the instruments for its application.

(4) (New, SG No. 26/2020) An increase of the capital of a public company, in which only the members of its management and/or supervisory body are allowed to participate, shall be carried out in compliance with the requirements set out in Paragraph 3 and provided that the remuneration policy adopted by the company in accordance with Article 116c(1) provides for a scheme for providing variable remuneration in the form of shares in the company.

(5) (New, SG No. 26/2020) When decisions on capital increases covered by Paragraph 4 are voted, the members of the management and the supervisory body who are shareholders with voting rights according to Article 115b(1) may not exercise their voting right.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 26/2020) The capital of a public company may not be increased by increase of the nominal value of previously issued shares, nor by conversion into shares of bonds which have not been issued as convertible.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 26/2020) Upon increase of the capital of a public company, the issue price of the new shares must be fully paid up, except upon increase of capital according to Article 197 of the Commerce Act, as well as through conversion of bonds into shares. Sentence two of Article 188 (1) of the Commerce Act shall not apply.

Article 112a

(New, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005, repealed, SG No. 86/2006).

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(3) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 62/2017, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Upon publication of the notice referred to in Article 89r(1), the regulated market whereon the shares are traded shall forthwith announce the latest date for conclusion of transactions in such shares as a result of which the transferee of any such shares shall have the right to participate in the capital increase. For the duration of the period wherein the shares are transferred with a right to participate in the increase of capital, the regulated market may apply special rules regarding price restrictions on the orders or quotations as entered and on the transactions as concluded.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The period for transferring the rights may not be shorter than 5 working days.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The earliest date for subscription for shares shall be identical with the earliest date for transfer of the rights. The latest date for subscription for shares shall be at least 5 business days after the latest date for transfer of the rights.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 86/2006) The transfer of the rights shall be effected on a regulated market. The regulated market, whereto shares in the public company have been admitted to trading, shall be obligated to admit to trading the rights issued by the said company.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) On the second working day after the latest date for transfer of the rights, the public company, acting through the investment firm referred to in Paragraph 1, shall offer the rights in respect of which no shares of the new issue have been subscribed before the latest date for transfer of the rights, for sale under the terms of open-bidding auction on the regulated market.

(8) (Amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020; amended and supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The proceeds from the sale of rights shall be credited to a special account opened by the central securities depository in which the securities are recorded and may not be used until recording of the increase of capital. The central securities depository shall distribute the proceeds from the sale of unexercised rights, less the cost of the sale, proportionately among the holders of the rights.

(9) (Amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) The public company shall organize the subscription in a manner affording an opportunity for remote subscription for shares through the Central Depository and the members thereof.

(10) (Amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) At the beginning of each business day during the subscription in which the securities are recorded shall disclose publicly information about the rights exercised by the end of the previous business day and shall notify the central securities depository.

(11) Paragraphs (1) to (10) shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the issuing of warrants and convertible bonds.

(12) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005) Within three business days after the closure of the subscription, the public company shall notify the Commission of the conduct of the said subscription and the results thereof, including any difficulties, disputes and other such in the trading of the rights and the subscription for the shares. The said notification may not contain any untrue or deficient material particulars.

(13) (New, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Public companies may issue rights in respect of shares subscribed in the period between the subscription completion and the issue of the new shares subscribed at the time of capital increase. The capital increase prospectus shall specify the intentions of the public company to issue rights in respect of shares subscribed, the related risks, and the conditions and procedures concerning the issue and transfer of those shares.

(14) (New, SG No. 62/2017) The Commission shall adopt an ordinance on the application of this article.

Article 112c

(New, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 34/2006, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, SG No. 23/2009, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 26/2020)

Recording in the Commercial Register of the increase of capital of a public company shall be admissible solely subject to the condition of compliance with the provisions of this chapter. The company shall be obligated to present proofs that the requirements of Article 112 (7), Article 112b (2) and (8) and the first sentence of Article 112b (12) herein have been complied with or, where the decision on increase of capital of the company has been made by the General Meeting, also the requirements of Article 115 (4) herein.

Article 112d

(New, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 67/2003, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 86/2006, repealed, SG No. 62/2017).

Article 112e

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 109/2013, effective 20.12.2013)

Any public company shall disclose under the conditions of Articles 100r and 100t information about the total number of voting shares and the size of the capital at the end of the month in which the change in the capital occurred no later than the 10th day of the month following that in which an increase or reduction occurred. The information shall be disclosed for every class of shares.

(Effective 30.12.1999)

(1) (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 61/2002) The capital of a public company may not be increased according to the procedure established by Articles 193, 195 and Article 196 (3) of the Commerce Act.

(2) Paragraph 1 shall not apply:

1. (amended, SG No. 103/2012) to any bank, investment intermediary, insurance company or other company, where the increase of capital is necessary in order to implement a rehabilitation programme to align their capital adequacy with the requirements of the law or where a coercive administrative measure requiring an increase of their capital as per the procedure set out in Article 195 of the Commerce Act has been applied;

2. where the increase of capital according to the procedure established by Article 195 of the Commerce Act shall be necessary for merger by acquisition, tender offer for exchange of shares, or safeguarding the rights of the holders of warrants or convertible bonds.

Article 114

(1) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 103/2012) Persons managing and representing a public company, including the representatives of any legal person that is a member of the public company's management body, may not-without being expressly empowered by the general meeting of the public company concerned-effect transactions as a result of which:

1. (amended, SG No. 103/2012) the company acquires, transfers, receives or surrenders for use or furnishes as security in any form whatsoever any assets to a value exceeding:

(a) (amended, SG No. 62/2017) one third of the lower value of the assets according to the last two prepared balance sheets of the company, at least one of which has been audited and which have been disclosed to the public in accordance with the procedure of Article 100r;

(b) (amended, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 62/2017) 2 percent of the lower value of the assets according to the last two prepared balance sheets of the company, at least one of which has been audited and which have been disclosed to the public in accordance with the procedure of Article 100r, where interested parties are involved in the transactions;

2. (amended, SG No. 103/2012) the company incurs obligations to a single person or to related parties to an aggregate value exceeding the value referred to in Littera (a) of Item 1 or, where the said obligations are incurred to interested parties or in favour of interested parties, to an aggregate value exceeding the value referred to in Littera (b) of Item 1;

3. (amended, SG No. 103/2012) the receivables of the company from a single person or from related parties exceed the value referred to in Littera (a) of Item 1 or, where interested parties are debtors of the company, over 50 per cent of the value referred to in Littera (b) of Item 1;

4. (new, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) the company participates in the establishing or increasing of the capital of a company or makes additional financial contributions to a company whose total assets value exceeds ten percent of the lower value of the assets according to the last two prepared balance sheets of the company, at least one of which has been audited and which have been disclosed to the public in accordance with the procedure of Article 100r, and where the transactions are closed in the ordinary course of business of the company and in favour of a subsidiary – whose total asset value exceeds the value referred to in Item 1(a);

5. (new, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) the company participates in the establishing or increasing of the capital of other companies or makes additional financial contributions to companies whose total assets value, for each of the companies, is lower than the threshold referred to in Paragraph 4, if their total value within a given calendar year exceeds the value referred to in Item 1(a);

6. (new, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) the company acquires or transfers a commercial enterprise or acquires or transfers a set of rights, obligations or factual relations comprising part of a commercial enterprise;

7. (new, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) the company transfers, grants the use of, or grants as collateral for a subsidiary assets whose total value exceeds ten per cent of the lower value of the assets according to the last two prepared balance sheets of the company, at least one of which has been audited and which have been disclosed to the public in accordance with the procedure of Article 100r.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 103/2012) Any transactions of a public company involving the participation of interested parties, other than those covered under Paragraph 1, shall be subject to advance endorsement by the management body of the public company.

(3) (New, SG No. 103/2012) Persons managing and representing a non-public company which is a public company's subsidiary, including the representatives of any legal person that is a member of that company's management body, may not-without the prior approval of the public company's management body-make transactions as a result of which the subsidiary:

1. (amended, SG No. 109/2013, effective 20.12.2013, amended and supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) acquires, transfers, grants the use of, or provides as collateral, in any form, assets whose total value exceeds:

(14) (New, SG No. 62/2017) In the cases of a transaction under Item 5 of Paragraph 10, the persons managing and representing the public company shall be obligated to notify the Commission within seven days prior to the conclusion of such transaction and to disclose, in accordance with the procedure established by Article 100r (3), information regarding the grounds for its conclusion and its terms and conditions, including the parties, subject matter, value, deadline and involvement of stakeholders. If the disclosure of certain data about the transaction might cause material damage to the subsidiary, the data concerned shall not be included in the information under the first sentence, whereby a statement to this effect shall be made. If it is impossible to state certain data in view of the nature of the transaction, a statement to this effect shall be made.

Article 114a

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) The management body shall present to the General Meeting a reasoned report on the expediency and terms and conditions of the transactions covered under Article 114 (1) herein. The said report shall be part of the materials provided to shareholders upon convocation of the General Meeting. The circumstances disclosable by the management body to the General Meeting shall be prescribed by ordinance.

(2) (New, SG No. 26/2020) The members of the management body that are interested parties shall not take part in drafting the reasoned report.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 62/2017, renumbered from Paragraph 2, SG No. 26/2020) In the cases of acquisition or disposition of assets referred to in Article 114 (1) herein, the General Meeting of the company shall pass a resolution by a majority of three quarters in value of the capital stock represented and, in the rest of the cases, by a simple majority.

(4) (New, SG No. 103/2012, supplemented, SG No. 62/2017, renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 26/2020) The management body of the subsidiary shall furnish the management body of the public company with a request for approval under Article 114 (3), with information concerning the appropriateness and fundamental conditions of the transaction, including the parties, subject, value, lifetime and participation of interested parties, as well as the relevant balance sheets underlying the judgment as to exceeding the applicable threshold under Article 114 (3). If the disclosure of certain data about the transaction might cause material damage to the subsidiary, the data concerned shall not be included in the information under the first sentence, whereby a statement to this effect shall be made. The public company shall notify the Commission of such requests and shall submit the documents and information received within up to 4 days thereupon.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, amended, SG No. 103/2012, amended and supplemented, SG No. 62/2017, renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 26/2020) Upon passage of a decision under Article 114 (1) herein, the interested parties shall not exercise their voting power. When determining the quorum for passing resolutions under the first sentence, all votes represented at the general meeting shall be taken into account, and when determining the majority for passing resolutions, the votes of interested parties shall not be included. The members of the management body of the public company that are interested parties shall not take part in decision-making under Article 114 (2) and (3) herein.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 109/2013, effective 20.12.2013, supplemented, SG No. 62/2017, renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 26/2020) The transactions referred to in Item 1 of Article 114 (1) and in Article 114 (2) herein, as well as in Item 6 of Article 114 (1) herein, wherein interested parties participate, may be effected solely at market price. Valuation shall be prepared by the management body or, in the cases of Litterae (b) of Item 1 of Article 114 (1) and Item 6 of Article 114 (1), by independent valuers under Article 5 of the Independent Valuers Act designated by the said management body.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, amended, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 62/2017, renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 26/2020) The decision referred to in Paragraphs 1 - 3 of Article 114 must specify the fundamental conditions of the transaction, including its lifetime, parties, subject and value, as well as in whose favour the transaction is effected. If the decision does not specify counterparty in the transaction, the calculations for the purposes of Article 114 (1) and (3) shall be made while applying the thresholds for transactions that entail the participation of interested parties. The decision may abstain from specifying the transaction value provided that it refers to both a minimum amount and a maximum amount, whereby the calculation for the purposes of Article 114 (1) and (3) shall be based on latter.

(8) (New, SG No. 26/2020) The members of the management bodies and supervisory bodies of the public company, the representatives of legal persons that are members of such bodies, the managerial agent of the public company, and any persons that hold, directly and/or indirectly, at least 25 per cent of the votes in the general meeting of the company or control said company shall inform the public company of any transactions above the threshold set out in Article 114(3)(1)(b) concluded with a subsidiary of the public company to which the persons listed above are parties, including of the time limits, subject, value and beneficiaries of said transactions, before the transactions are concluded.

(9) (New, SG No. 103/2012, renumbered from Paragraph 7, SG No. 26/2020) Public companies shall disclose, as per the conditions and procedures set out in Article 100r(1) and (3), transactions concluded under Article 114(3) within 7 days from the date when they came to the knowledge of the public company concerned.

Article 114b

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 86/2006) The members of the management bodies and supervisory bodies of a public company, the managerial agent of any such company, and the persons holding, directly or indirectly, at least 25 per cent of the votes in the General Meeting of the company or controlling the company, shall be obligated to disclose to the management body of the public company, as well as to the Commission and the regulated market whereon the shares in the company have been admitted to trading, information:

The general meeting minutes shall have an attached list of all persons who have exercised their general meeting voting right by electronic means, as well as the number of shares held. The aforementioned list shall be certified by the general meeting Chairperson and Secretary.

(11) (Repealed, SG No. 61/2002, new, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009, renumbered from paragraph 10, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) The public company shall ensure proper means for identification of shareholders and persons representing them in their participation in the general meeting using electronic means, and connection security, as needed for these purposes.

(12) (New, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) When a general meeting is held by electronic means, the public company shall provide an opportunity for immediate electronic confirmation of receipt of the votes of the shareholder or its proxy prepared in accordance with Implementing Regulation (EU) 2018/1212. In the case of a chain of intermediaries, the confirmation shall be transmitted between them in a timely manner.

(13) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009, renumbered from Paragraph 11, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) The members of the management bodies and supervisory bodies and the managerial agent of the company shall be obligated to give true, exhaustive and to-the-point answers to questions posed by the shareholders at the General Meeting regarding the state of economic affairs, the financial position and the business activities of the company, except regarding any circumstances constituting inside information. The shareholders may pose such questions regardless of whether the said questions are relevant to the agenda.

(14) (Repealed, SG No. 61/2002, new, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009, renumbered from Paragraph 12, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) Upon lack of quorum in the cases under Article 227, Paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Commerce Act, a new session may be scheduled in as early as 14 days at least, and it shall be legally independent of the capital presented thereat. The date of the new session may also be indicated on the invitation for the first session. The new session agenda may not include items under the procedure of Article 223a of the Commerce Act.

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

Any public company may use electronic means to provide information to the shareholders where the general meeting has taken such a decision and all of the following conditions obtain:

1. the use of electronic means is not contingent on the registered office or address of the shareholders or of the persons under Article 146, Paragraph 1, items 1 - 8;

2. measures for identification are taken so as to ensure effective provision of the information to the shareholders or the persons who are entitled to exercise the voting right or determine its exercise;

3. the shareholders or the persons under Article 146, Paragraph 1, items 1 - 5 who have the right to acquire, transfer or exercise the voting right have expressly stated their written consent for the provision of the information via electronic means or within 14 days from receipt of a request of such consent from the public company have not expressly objected thereof; on request from the persons under the first sentence the public company shall also provide them at all times with the information on paper;

4. determination of the costs relating to the provision of information via electronic means does not prejudice the principle under Article 110b on ensuring equal treatment.

Article 115b

(New, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Article 115a, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 62/2017, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) The right to vote shall be exercised by the persons registered as persons with voting rights in the central securities register 14 days before the date of the general meeting.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009, amended and supplemented, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) The central securities depository shall provide to the company lists of shareholders referred to in Paragraph 1 and of foreign persons under Article 136, Paragraph 1, upon request by the person empowered to manage and represent the company. The information under sentence one may furthermore be provided upon the request of the company through the central securities depository with which the securities are registered and which offers the services under Item 2 "a" of section B of the Annex to Regulation (EU) No. 909/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 July 2014 on improving securities settlement in the European Union and on central securities depositories and amending Directives 98/26/EC and 2014/65/EU and Regulation (EU) No. 236/2012 (OJ, L 257/1 of 28 August 2014), hereinafter referred to as "Regulation (EU) No. 909/2014".

(3) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, repealed, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009, new, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) In the case of a chain of intermediaries, at the request of the shareholder or the third party nominated by the shareholder the last intermediary shall confirm the number of voting shares as of the date referred to in Paragraph 1. The confirmation referred to in the first sentence shall be prepared in accordance with Implementing Regulation (EU) 2018/1212.

(4) (New, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) If required by the public company, the shareholder may request the intermediary to transmit a notice of participation to the public company in accordance with Implementing Regulation (EU) 2018/1212. Where the notice of participation includes information about the votes, the last intermediary shall ensure that the number of voting shares in the notice corresponds to the number of voting shares as of the date referred to in Paragraph 1. In the event that the notice is transmitted along the chain of intermediaries ahead of the date referred to in Paragraph 1, the last intermediary shall update the notice, if necessary. The confirmation of the right to participate shall be prepared in accordance with Implementing Regulation (EU) 2018/1212.

(5) (New, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009, renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) The public company may provide in its Articles of Association the option for the voting right to be exercised prior to the date of the general meeting, using mail-in, including e-mail, courier, or other technically feasible means.

(6) (New, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009, renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) Mail-in voting shall be deemed valid if the vote has been received no later than the day before the date of the general meeting. Shares of mail-in voters shall be taken into account in determining the quorum, and the voting shall be registered in the general meeting minutes. The general meeting minutes shall have an attached list of all persons who have exercised their general meeting voting right using mail-in, as well as the number of shares held. The aforementioned list shall be certified by the general meeting Chairperson and Secretary

(7) (New, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009, renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) If the shareholder is attending the general meeting personally, its mail-in vote shall be deemed valid, unless the shareholder requests otherwise. The shareholder's mail-in votes shall be discarded in respect of any issues on which the shareholder personally votes at the general meeting.

(8) (New, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009, renumbered from Paragraph 7, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) The public company may introduce requirements on shareholder capacity and mail-in voting identification, for the purposes of shareholder identification, only to the extent needed for this purpose.

(9) (New, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020) Within three months of the date of the general meeting, at the request of the shareholder or of a third party nominated by the shareholder, the public company shall provide confirmation that the shareholder's vote has actually been recorded and counted by the company. Where the confirmation is received by an intermediary, said intermediary shall transmit the information to the shareholder or to the third party nominated by the shareholder in a timely manner. In the case of a chain of intermediaries, the confirmation shall be transmitted between them in a timely manner unless it can be transmitted directly to the shareholder or to a third party nominated by the shareholder. Confirmations or receipt of votes and the recording and counting of votes shall be prepared and transmitted in accordance with Implementing Regulation (EU) 2018/1212.

(New, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Article 115b, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, SG No. 62/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Public companies shall have the right to pay a 6-monthly and an annual dividend if this is provided for in the Articles of Association and subject to the corresponding application of Article 247a of the Commerce Act.

(2) (New, SG No. 62/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Public companies shall have the right to pay an interim dividend based on 6-month financial statements only if the following conditions are met:

1. 6-month financial statements have been prepared; as part of these, a report has been prepared on the basis of the accounting information proving that the company has sufficient funds to pay the dividends and that their payment will not result in the company's indebtedness to creditors, personnel, the budget, etc.;

2. the financial result for the 6-month period is profit and there is a resolution of the general meeting of shareholders on distribution of profit;

3. the amount of funds that can be distributed in accordance with Article 247a of the Commerce Act, shall not exceed the total profit obtained as follows:

a) the current financial result for the period from 1 January till 30 June of the current year;

b) the retained earnings from prior years;

c) the amount of reserves, the distribution of which is not prohibited by law or by the company's Articles of Association;

d) the total amount under letters "a" – "c" shall be reduced with the incurred loss and the statutory reserves formed in accordance with the requirements of Article 246 of the Commerce Act and/or the statutory reserves according to the company's Articles of Association;

4. the joint-stock company has no assumed and outstanding liabilities the repayment period of which has expired prior to the adoption of the resolution on distribution of profit, and will be able to discharge its liabilities for the current financial year after the payment of the interim dividend.

which payments will be made. The types of financial institutions through which payments may be made shall be set out by ordinance.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, amended, SG No. 62/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Upon receipt of any notice referred to in Paragraph 4, the regulated market on which the shares are admitted to trading shall forthwith announce the latest date for conclusion of transactions in such shares as a result of which the transferee of any such shares shall have the right to claim the dividend carried by the said shares as voted by the General Meeting.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, amended, SG No. 62/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Until the lapse of the business days next succeeding the day of notification under Paragraph 4 and the latest day for conclusion of transactions under Paragraph 5, special rules may be applied on the regulated securities market regarding price restrictions on the orders or quotations as placed and the transactions as concluded.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, amended, SG No. 62/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The company shall be obligated to ensure payment of the dividend as voted at the General Meeting to the shareholders within 60 days of the holding the said meeting. The costs of payment of the dividend shall be for the account of the company.

(8) (Renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 62/2017, effective 1.01.2018, amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) Dividend payment shall be made with the assistance of the central securities depository in which the securities are recorded and which offers the services under Item 2 "a" of Section B of the Annex to Regulation (EU) No. 909/2014. The procedure for payment of dividend shall be established by ordinance.

(New, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009)

(1) Public company shareholders shall be entitled to authorise any natural person or legal entity to attend and vote in the general meeting on their behalf as proxy. Article 220, Paragraph 1, Sentence Three of the Commerce Act shall not apply if the shareholder has expressly stated the means of voting on each item on the agenda.

(2) The proxy shall have the same rights to speak and pose questions at the general meeting, as the rights of the shareholder represented.

(3) The proxy shall vote according to the shareholder's instructions contained in the letter of authorisation.

(4) The proxy may represent more than one shareholder at the public company general meeting. In this case, the proxy may vote differently on the different shares held by the different shareholders represented.

(5) The authorisation may be performed electronically as well. The public company shall ensure at least one way to receive authorisations using electronic means. It shall publish on its web site the terms and procedure to receive authorisation using electronic means.

(6) The public company may introduce requirements in respect of the authorisation, the presentation of the letter of authorisation to the company, and the way voting instructions are to be given by the shareholder, if any. These requirements are required for the purpose of shareholder or proxy identification, or to provide a way to verify the instruction contents, and only to the extent required for these purposes.

(7) The procedure under Paragraphs 5 and 6 shall also apply in cases of letter of authorisation withdrawals as well.

Article 116

(1) (Amended, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009) Any written letter of authorisation to represent a shareholder at the Shareholders' General Meeting of any public company must be granted for a specific General Meeting, must be expressly formulated and contain at least:

1. the data about the shareholder and the proxy;
2. the number of shares to which the letter of authorisation applies;
3. the items on the agenda;
4. the decision proposals regarding each item on the agenda;
5. the voting instructions in respect of each item, if applicable;
6. date and signature.

(2) (Repealed, SG No. 61/2002, new, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009) If the letter of authorisation does not contain specific voting instructions in respect of each item on the agenda, it should state that it is within the proxy's discretion whether and how to vote.

(3) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Any public company shall submit a copy of the written power of attorney on paper or electronically, where applicable, together with the materials for the general meeting or at request after its calling.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Any sub-delegation of the rights referred to in Paragraph 1, as well as any proxy granted in breach of the rules established by Paragraphs (1) and (2), shall be void.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Any solicitation of proxy from a shareholder or shareholders holding more than 5 per cent of the votes in the Shareholders' General Meeting of any public company must be inserted in a national daily newspaper or dispatched to each shareholder concerned. Any such solicitation shall contain at a minimum the following particulars:

1. the agenda of the matters proposed for consideration at the General Meeting, and the motions for resolutions thereon;
2. an invitation to the shareholders to provide instructions as to the manner of voting on the matters on the agenda;
3. a statement of the manner in which the solicitor will vote on each of the matters on the agenda, should the shareholder who or which accepts the solicitation fail to provide instructions as to the voting.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) The solicitor shall be obligated to vote at the General Meeting of the company in conformity with the instructions of the shareholders as stated in the proxy or, should no such instructions have been provided, in conformity with the statement referred to in Item 3 of Paragraph 5. The solicitor may depart from the instructions of the shareholders or from the statement of the solicitor as to the manner of voting, as the case may be, if:

- (a) any circumstances have occurred which were not known at the time of making of the solicitation or of signing of the proxy by the shareholders;
- (b) the solicitor has been unable to request in advance new instructions and/or to make a new statement, or has not received promptly new instructions from the shareholders;
- (c) the departure is necessary for safeguarding the interests of the shareholders.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) The company may not require presentation of the proxies referred to in Paragraph 1 earlier than two business days before the day of the General Meeting. The company shall inform those present at the Shareholders' General Meeting of the proxies as received upon the opening of the General Meeting.

(8) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Paragraph 7, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Should more than one proxy referred to in Paragraph 1 be presented as granted by one and the same shareholder, the proxy which has been granted later shall prevail.

(9) (Renumbered from Paragraph 8, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Unless the company receives written notice from a shareholder of withdrawal of any proxy prior to the opening of the General Meeting, any such proxy shall be deemed to be valid.

(10) (Renumbered from Paragraph 9, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) If the shareholder attends the General Meeting in person, any proxy granted thereby and applicable to the said General Meeting shall be valid unless the said shareholder states otherwise. In respect of the matters on the agenda whereon the shareholder votes in person, the respective right of the proxy shall lapse.

(11) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Paragraph 10, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, repealed, SG No. 62/2017).

(12) (New, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Paragraph 11, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, repealed, SG No. 23/2009, effective 27.03.2009).

(New, SG No. 26/2020)

(1) In order to perform an activity as a proxy advisor, the person must be entered in the register referred to in Article 30(1)(21) of the Financial Supervision Commission Act according to an ordinance issued by the Commission.

(2) Authorised proxies shall apply codes of conducts and publicly disclose said codes of conduct.

(3) Where proxy advisors do not apply a code of conduct, they shall provide a detailed explanation why this is the case.

(4) Where proxy advisors depart from any of the rules in the code of conduct, they shall publicly disclose from which rule they depart, provide explanations for doing so and indicate, where appropriate, any alternative measures adopted.

(5) Proxy advisors shall publicly disclose at least the following information:

1. the essential features of the methodologies and models they apply;
2. the main information sources they use;
3. the procedures put in place to ensure quality of the research, advice and voting recommendations and qualifications of the staff involved;
4. whether and, if so, how they take national market, legal, regulatory and company-specific conditions into account;
5. the essential features of the voting policies they apply for each market;
6. whether they have dialogues with the companies which are the object of their research, advice or voting recommendations, and, if so, the extent and nature thereof;

7. the policy regarding the prevention and management of potential conflicts of interests.

(6) The information set out in Paragraphs 2 to 5 shall be made publicly available on the websites of proxy advisors, shall be updated on an annual basis and shall remain available free of charge. The information referred to in Paragraph 5 shall be accessible for a period of at least three years after its publication.

(7) Proxy advisors shall identify and disclose fully and in writing without delay to their clients any actual or potential conflicts of interests or business relationships that may influence the preparation of their research, advice or voting recommendations and the actions they have undertaken to eliminate, mitigate or manage the actual or potential conflicts of interests.

(New, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Article 116a, SG No. 26/2020)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 62/2017, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Persons who have been convicted with an enforceable sentence for an intentional crime prosecutable under public law committed in the Republic of Bulgaria or in another state, unless rehabilitated, shall not be eligible to become members of the management and supervisory bodies of a public company.

(2) At least one third of the members of the Board of Directors or of the Supervisory Board of any public company must be independent persons. To qualify as independent, a member of the board may not be:

1. a person serving the public company;
2. a shareholder holding, whether directly or through connected persons, at least 25 per cent of the votes in the General Meeting, or a person connected with the company;
3. a person who is in a sustained business relationship with the public company;
4. a member of a management body or supervisory body, a managerial agent or a person serving any commercial corporation or any other legal person referred to in Items 2 and 3;
5. a person connected with another member of a management body or supervisory body of the public company.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Persons, who have been elected to management bodies and supervisory bodies, shall be obligated to notify immediately the management body of the public company in the event of occurrence of any circumstances covered under Paragraphs (1) or (2). In such a case, the said persons shall cease to perform the functions thereof and shall not receive compensation.

(4) (Supplemented, SG No. 103/2012) The candidate for elective office shall prove the non-existence of the circumstances covered under Paragraph 1 by means of a conviction status certificate, and the non-existence of the circumstances covered under Paragraph 2 by a declaration. The documents referred to in the first sentence shall form part of the written material for the general meeting the agenda of which entails the election of members of the board of directors or supervisory board. The persons referred to in the first sentence shall confirm the truthfulness of the documents provided pursuant to the preceding sentence at the general meeting to which their nominations have been put forward for election.

(5) (New, SG No. 103/2012) When electing independent members of the public company's board of directors or supervisory board, the capital presented to the general meeting shall include the shares held by persons referred to in Paragraph 2, Items 1 - 5 only if no other shareholders are present or represented at the general meeting.

(6) (New, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The requirements under Paragraphs 1 - 4 shall furthermore apply to natural persons who represent legal entities such as members of the management and supervisory bodies of a public company.

Article 116b

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) The members of the management bodies and supervisory bodies of any public company shall be obligated:

1. to perform the duties thereof exercising the care of responsible merchantship, in a manner which they reasonably believe is in the interest of all shareholders of the company, and by using solely information which they reasonably believe is true and comprehensive;

2. to show loyalty to the company by:

(a) placing the interest of the company before their own interest;

(b) (amended, SG No. 62/2017) avoiding direct or indirect conflict of interests between their own interest and the interest of the company or, should any such conflict arise, disclosing the said conflicts promptly and fully in writing to the competent body and not participating nor exerting influence on the rest of the members of the board in decision-making in such cases;

(c) not disclosing nonpublic information of the company even after they cease to be members of the relevant bodies until public disclosure of the relevant circumstances by the company.

(2) The provision of Paragraph 1 shall furthermore apply to any natural persons representing legal persons which are members of the management bodies and supervisory bodies of the company, as well as to any managerial agents of a public company.

(3) (New, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 26/2020) The members of the management body of public companies shall:

1. (amended, SG No. 26/2020) exercise ongoing control as to the observance of the requirements set out in Article 114(4) and Article 114a(4) in the course of business of the public company's subsidiaries; in connection with the obligation under the first sentence, the public company's representative shall make sure that the subsidiary will provide the relevant information, as well as information concerning all transactions concluded under Article 114(3) within 5 days after their execution date;

2. (repealed, SG No. 51/2022).

(4) (New, SG No. 51/2022) The persons who manage and represent the public company shall submit to the Commission the minutes of the meeting of the management body of the public company, demonstrating the authorising decisions under Article 114, Paragraphs 2 and 3, within 4 business days from the date of holding the meeting.

(5) (New, SG No. 62/2017, renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 51/2022) "Conflict of Interest" within the meaning of Paragraph 1, Item 2, letter "b" exists where there is a conflict between the duties of a member of a management or supervisory body of a public company in that capacity on the one hand and their private interest on the other hand. Private interest is any interest which results in a benefit of a material or non-material nature to the person or to related persons thereof, including income in cash or in the form of property, acquisition of units or shares, granting, transferring or waving of rights, obtaining goods or services free of charge or at prices below the market ones, receiving support or influence, advantage, obtaining or promise of work, position, gift, reward or promise to avoid loss, liability, sanction or other unfavourable event.

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 21/2012, amended, SG No. 26/2020) The public company shall adopt and apply a remuneration policy for the members of its management and supervisory bodies; the requirements to the remuneration policy and its adoption, application, disclosure and implementation shall be laid down in an ordinance. The remuneration policy shall be adopted by the first regular annual general meeting after the company becomes public. The compensations and tantiemes of the members of the management bodies and supervisory bodies of any public company, as well as the period in respect of which they are payable, shall mandatorily be fixed by the General Meeting.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Persons referred to in Paragraph 1 must deposit a bond guaranteeing their management services within 7 days of their election or the recordation of the company in the register referred to in Article 30(1)(3) of the Financial Supervision Commission Act, as the case may be.

(3) (Supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020, amended, SG No. 70/2024, effective from the date stipulated in the Council Decision of the European Union on the adoption by the Republic of Bulgaria of the euro, adopted in accordance with Article 140(2) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in the Council Regulation adopted in accordance with Article 140(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union) The bond shall be furnished in Euro. The amount of the bond shall be fixed by the General Meeting of Shareholders and may not be less than the three-month gross compensation of the persons referred to in Paragraph 1. Where the General Assembly has set a remuneration amount as referred to in Paragraph 1 but has not set an amount for the management bond, the latter's size shall be deemed equal to the quarterly gross remuneration of the persons referred to in Paragraph 1.

(4) The bond shall be blocked in favour of the company with a bank within the territory of Bulgaria. Interest accruing on the bonds blocked with a bank shall not be blocked and shall be withdrawable on demand by the bond furnisher.

(Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) (New, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The Commission shall deliver a decision on the application referred to in Article 124 (2) within 20 business days upon receiving it; the same time limit shall apply when additional information and documents are requested.

(2) (Previous text of Article 125, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) The Commission shall refuse to grant approval if the written materials covered under Article 124 (2) herein do not satisfy the requirements of the law, if the information contained therein is not presented in a way comprehensible to shareholders or does not disclose truthfully and fully the material circumstances of relevance to the making by shareholders of a reasoned decision on the proposed transformation, or if the interests of the shareholders are prejudiced in any other manner. Article 89p(2) and (3) and Article 119(5) and (6) herein shall apply accordingly.

(Amended, SG No. 39/2005)

(1) Each shareholder, who or which has withdrawn from the company according to the procedure established by Article 263q of the Commerce Act, shall be entitled to receive the equivalent of the shares held thereby prior to the transformation at the price specified in the transformation plan or agreement. In such case, Article 111 (5) herein shall not apply.

(2) Within thirty days after the date of notice of termination of participation under Article 263q of the Commerce Act, the new company and/or the acquiring company shall be obligated to buy out the shares held by the shareholders referred to in Paragraph 1.

Article 126a

(New, SG No. 61/2002, repealed, SG No. 39/2005).

Section III

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

Contract of Joint Venture

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) By a contract of joint venture, a public company undertakes to carry on the core business thereof or part of the said core business in common interest with another company which holds, directly or indirectly, at least 25 per cent of the votes in the General Meeting of the public company, which controls the said public company or is connected therewith.

(2) "Core business", within the meaning given by Paragraph 1, shall be the totality of legal and factual acts and transactions by the company which generate not less than 25 per cent of the income accruing thereto from the sale of goods and provision of services in conformity with the latest audited annual financial statement.

(3) Any joint venture shall be managed jointly by the management bodies of the companies parties to the contract or independently by the management body of one of the said companies or by persons designated by the management bodies, as the case may be.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended and supplemented, SG No. 42/2016) The persons referred to in Paragraph 3 shall submit to the Commission an annual and a 6-month financial reports on their activity and a notification on the financial conditions or a quarterly financial report under Chapter Six "a", Section II, as well as any other information specified by ordinance. The procedure, terms and the manner of submitting the information under the first sentence to the Commission and the procedure, terms and manner of its dissemination shall be set out by ordinance.

(5) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) The Commission shall make public the information received under Paragraph 1 through the register kept by it under Article 30, Paragraph 1 of the Financial Supervision Commission Act.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5 - SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) The distribution of the operating profit and loss of the joint venture shall conform to the proportion between the assets and the other forms of contribution whereby each of the companies participates in the joint venture.

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 6 - SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) The contract must regulate the form and manner of participation of each of the companies in the joint venture, the objects, the manner of management, the methods of distribution of the profit and loss of the joint venture, as well as the terms and procedure for termination of the contract.

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) The management body of each public company party to the contract of joint venture shall prepare a written report containing the legal and economic reasoning of the contract, an appraisal of the assets and the other forms of contribution whereby each one of the companies participates in the joint venture, as well as a justification of the fair price of the shares in the relevant public company proceeding from generally accepted valuation methods. The requirements to the contents of the justification of the fair price, including the application of valuation methods, shall be established by ordinance.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 109/2013, effective 20.12.2013, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The report referred to in Paragraph 1 must be examined by not more than three independent valuers under Article 5 of the Independent Valuers Act, approved by the Commission on a motion by the companies parties to the contract. The costs of the expert examination shall be for the account of the companies. The costs of the expert examination shall be for the account of the companies.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 109/2013, effective 20.12.2013) The independent valuers shall prepare a written report to the shareholders, which must specify the methods of valuation of the forms of contribution of the contracting parties and the methods of determination of the fair price of the shares in the public company, how far application of these methods is appropriate, as well as the valuation difficulties, should any such have arisen. The said report shall furthermore indicate any other material circumstances of relevance to the making by shareholders of a reasoned decision on the draft contract.

(4) (New, SG No. 39/2005, amended, SG No. 109/2013, effective 20.12.2013) Each independent valuer shall have the right to access to any information and written materials concerning each of the companies participating in the joint venture as are relevant to the assignment thereof, as well as to conduct all requisite examinations.

Article 126d

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, supplemented, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The draft contract of joint venture and the reports covered under Article 126c herein must be approved by the Commission on a motion by the Deputy Chairperson.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Each public company party to the contract of joint venture shall submit an application for endorsement to the Commission, enclosing therewith documents referred to in Paragraph 1 and other documents as shall be prescribed by ordinance. The Commission shall pronounce on any such application within thirty days after the date of receipt thereof or, where rectification of deficiencies and non-conformities or submission of additional information has been requested, within fourteen days after the additionally submitted documents.

(3) (New, SG No. 52/2007, amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Based on the documents submitted the Commission shall determine the extent whereto the requirements for issuing of the approval as requested have been satisfied. Should the particulars and documents as submitted be found deficient or invalid, or should any additional information or evidence authenticating the particulars be required, the Commission shall transmit a communication and shall set a time limit for removal of the deficiencies or non-conformities found and/or for submission of the additional information and documents required.

(4) (New, SG No. 52/2007) If the notification under Paragraph 3 is not accepted at the correspondence address specified by the applicant, the time limit for their submission shall be effective from posting thereof on a notice board expressly provided therefor on the premises of the Commission. Any such posting shall be attested by a memorandum drawn up by officers designated by an order of the Chairperson of the Commission.

(5) (New, SG No. 52/2007) The applicant shall be notified in writing of the decision taken within 7 days.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 52/2007, amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The Commission shall issue a reasoned refusal of endorsement solely if the documents referred to in Paragraph 1 do not satisfy the requirements of the law, if the information contained therein is not presented in a way comprehensible to shareholders or does not disclose fairly and fully material circumstances of relevance to the making by shareholders of a reasoned decision on the draft contract, or if the interests of the shareholders in a public company party to the contract of joint venture are prejudiced in any other manner.

Article 126e

(1) The contract of joint venture shall enter into force after endorsement by the general meeting of each one of the companies parties to the contract. Any such General Meeting resolution shall be passed by a majority of three-quarters in value of the capital stock represented.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 8/2003, amended and supplemented, SG No. 39/2005, amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018, SG No. 24/2018) The companies shall submit the contract of joint venture, the decision of the Commission on the approval of the said contract and the resolutions of the general meetings thereof to the Commercial Register within seven days after the entry of the said contract into force. Within the same time limit, the public company party to the contract shall furthermore declare the said contract for recording in the register referred to in Item 3 of Article 30 (1) of the Financial Supervision Commission Act.

(3) The termination and rescission of a contract of joint venture shall have a proactive effect. In such cases, Paragraph 1 shall apply accordingly.

(4) Any supervening amendments to the contract of joint venture shall follow, mutatis mutandis, the provisions of this Chapter.

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Each shareholder in a public company party to a contract of joint venture shall be entitled to request that the company buy out all or part of the shares owned by the said shareholder at the price named in the report of the management body of the said company as approved by the Commission, if the said shareholder has voted against the General Meeting resolution on approval of the contract or of a supervening amendment thereto. In such a case, Article 111 (5) herein shall not apply.

(2) The contract may provide for an entitlement of the persons referred to in Paragraph 1 to request, in lieu of buy-out by the public company, exchange for shares in the company counterparty to the contract. In such a case, the report of the management body referred to in Article 126c herein must contain data on the rights attaching to the shares in the controlling company and a justification, proceeding from generally accepted valuation methods, of the fair price of the shares in the controlling company and of the ratio of exchange for shares in the public company.

(3) The persons referred to in Paragraph 1 must submit a request for buy-out or exchange of shares to the relevant public company within thirty days after the date of the General Meeting.

(4) Within thirty days after the expiration of the time limit referred to in Paragraph 3, but not prior to the entry into force of the contract of joint venture, the public company shall be obligated to buy out the shares held by the shareholders who or which have so requested.

Article 126g

(New, SG No. 61/2002)

(1) The persons who manage the joint venture shall be obligated to act in the interest of the parties to the contract and the shareholders thereof. Article 116b herein shall apply accordingly.

(2) The persons referred to in Paragraph 1 shall incur joint liability for any detriment as may be inflicted on each of the companies that are parties to the contract of joint venture by reason of dereliction of the duties of the said persons in the course of management of the joint venture.

(3) Any person, who or which, by means of the influence thereof on another person managing the joint venture, has procured the latter person to act or to refrain from acting against the interest of the parties to the contract, shall incur joint liability for the detriment inflicted.

(4) Any persons holding, whether jointly or separately, at least 5 per cent of the capital of any public company party to a contract of joint venture may bring before the district court exercising competence over the registered office of the public company action for indemnification of any detriment inflicted on the said public company through acts or omissions by the persons referred to in Paragraph 2.

Article 126h

(1) The contracts of joint venture with an international element shall be governed by the provisions of this Section and the mandatory provisions of Bulgarian law.

(2) Any parties to the contract, who or which are non-resident persons, as well as any non-resident persons who or which manage the joint venture, shall be obligated to name a representative and an address in Bulgaria.

Article 131

(Amended, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) (1) Any investor shall be entitled to access to the central securities register only in regard to the information relating to the financial instruments held thereby, and the information relating to transactions in financial instruments to which it is a party.

(2) Access under Paragraph 1 shall be performed directly through electronic means or by means of:

1. investment firms;
2. banks acting as investment firms;
3. management companies;
4. central securities depositories and clearing institutions.

(3) Recorded in the central securities register shall be information about central securities depositories in which the relevant issues of dematerialised securities are recorded.

(4) Central Depository AD shall charge fees for the services it provides in relation to the keeping of the central securities register. The fees under sentence one shall be non-discriminatory and proportional to the actually incurred costs for the provision of the services and shall be disclosed on the website of Central Depository AD.

Article 131a

(New, SG No. 26/2020, effective 3.09.2020)

(1) The central securities depository with which the relevant securities issues are registered and the other intermediaries shall make publicly available on their websites all applicable fees in connection with the shareholder identification services, the transmission of information and the facilitation of the exercise of shareholder rights provided in accordance with Chapter Eight, Section I, for each service separately.

(2) The fees referred to in Paragraph 1 shall be non-discriminatory and proportionate to the actual cost of providing the services. Fees for the exercise of shareholder rights at national and cross-border levels may be different when this is due to a difference in the actual costs incurred in providing the services.

(Amended, SG No. 39/2005, amended and supplemented, SG No. 57/2011, amended, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) (1) Central Depository AD shall establish a guarantee fund for compensation of damages arising from the performance of its activities, and a guarantee settlement mechanism for financial instruments, which includes a settlement guarantee fund for financial instruments.

(2) The persons under Article 131 (2) shall pay initial and annual cash contributions to the guarantee fund for compensation of damages arising in the performance of the activities of Central Depository AD in an amount set out in the rules under Article 130 (1). Other sources for raising resources for the said fund shall be deductions from revenue of the company's operations in accordance with the terms and procedure set out in the Rules of Central Depository AD, loans, donations, international aid, etc.

(3) The participants in the settlement system of Central Depository AD shall pay initial and monthly fees to the settlement guarantee fund for financial instruments in an amount set out in the rules under Article 130 (1).

Article 133

(1) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 103/2012, repealed, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) Each investor shall have the right to access to the registers of the Central Depository through a member of the said Depository solely in respect of the information concerning the financial instruments held by the said investor and transactions in financial instruments whereto the said investor is a party. The Central Depository or any member thereof may not refuse to provide the services referred to in the first sentence.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) No member of the Board of Directors of Central Depository AD, no employee thereof, nor any other person working for Central Depository AD may disclose, unless authorised therefor, or use to their own benefit or to the benefit of any other persons any facts and circumstances regarding the assets and operations on the financial instruments accounts maintained by Central Depository AD which may have come to the knowledge thereof in the discharge of the official and professional duties thereof.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) Upon assumption of position or commencement of activity at Central Depository AD, any person covered under Paragraph 2 shall sign a declaration, pledging to safeguard any secrets covered under Paragraph 2.

(4) The provision of Paragraph 2 shall furthermore apply to the cases where the said persons are off duty or have been suspended.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 103/2012, amended and supplemented, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) Except to the Commission or to the Deputy Chairperson, as the case may be, for the purposes of the control activities thereof, Central Depository AD may disclose any information from the central securities register regarding available funds and operations on the financial instruments accounts kept thereby solely:

13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) with the consent of the holders of financial instruments and to the persons referred to in Article 131 (2);

2. (amended, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) in pursuance of a judgment of the [competent] court of law rendered under the terms and according to the procedure established by Article 91, paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act;

3. (new, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended, SG No. 109/2007, SG No. 69/2008, SG No. 93/2009, effective 25.12.2009) on a written request from the director of the National Investigation Service, the Chair of the State Agency for National Security or the Secretary General of the Ministry of the Interior regarding companies with over 50 per cent state and/or municipal participation;

4. (new, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) on a request from the chief prosecutor or his/her authorized deputy upon available data about organized criminal activity or money laundering;

5. (new, SG No. 62/2016, effective 9.08.2016) by request of the chief inspector or of an inspector from the Inspectorate at the Supreme Judicial Council.

Article 145

(Amended and supplemented, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 8/2003, amended and supplemented, SG No. 39/2005, amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) Any shareholder who acquires or transfers directly and/or under Article 146 a voting right in the general meeting of the public company shall notify the Commission and the public company where:

1. following the acquisition or transfer his voting right reaches, exceeds or falls below 5 per cent or a multiple of 5 per cent of the number of voting rights in the general meeting of the company;

2. his voting right reaches, exceeds or falls below the thresholds under item 1 as a result of events leading to a change of the total number of voting rights based on the information disclosed under Article 112e.

(2) The voting rights shall be calculated on the basis of the total amount of voting shares regardless of whether a restriction is imposed on the right to exercise it. Calculation shall be made for every class of shares.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) Where the thresholds under Paragraph 1 are reached or exceeded as a result of direct acquisition or transfer of voting shares, the obligation under Paragraph 1 shall also arise for the central securities depository. The format, content and the procedure for notification shall be set out by ordinance.

(4) Paragraph 1 shall not apply to voting rights attaching to:

1. shares acquired only for the purpose of making clearing or settlement within the normal settlement cycle, which may not be longer than three working days from the conclusion of the transaction;

2. shares held by custodians in said capacity and provided that they may exercise voting rights attaching to the shares only on the order of a client given in writing or electronically.

(5) (Supplemented, SG No. 42/2016) No notification is required from a market maker acting in said capacity, where his voting right reaches, exceeds or falls below 5 per cent of the number of the votes in the general meeting, provided that the market maker:

1. (amended, SG No. 42/2016, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) the said market maker has obtained a licence for performing activities as an investment intermediary according to the Markets in Financial Instruments Act, the applicable law of another Member State and possesses initial capital according to Article 10 (1) of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act;

2. does not participate in the management of the company and does not exert influence on the company for the purchase of the shares or maintenance of their prices.

(6) (New, SG No. 42/2016, amended, SG No. 25/2022, effective 29.03.2022) Paragraph 1 shall not be applied to the voting rights or to the voting rights associated with shares held in a trading portfolio within the meaning of Article 102 of Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 regarding the Prudential Requirements to the Credit Institutions for Amendment of Regulation (EU) No. 648/2012 (OJ L 176/1 of 27 June 2013), of a credit institution or of an investment firm, provided that:

1. the voting rights held in a trading portfolio do not exceed 5 percent of the number of votes in the company's General Meeting, and

2. the voting rights associated with shares held in the trading portfolio are not being exercised or are not being used in any other manner for intervention in the management of the company.

(7) (New, SG No. 42/2016) Paragraph 1 shall not be applied to voting rights associated with shares acquired for stabilisation purposes in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 2273/2003 of the Commission of 22 December 2003 on Implementation of Directive 2003/6/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards the Exceptions regarding Programmes for Buy-Back and Stabilisation of Financial Instruments, provided that the voting rights associated with such shares are not being exercised or are not being used in any other manner for intervention in the management of the company.

(8) (New, SG No. 62/2017, supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Paragraph 1 shall not be applied by the parties to repurchase transactions with regard to the relevant volumes entered in the relevant register of repurchase transactions in cases where there is no transfer of voting rights.

(Amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) The obligation under Article 145, Paragraph 1 shall furthermore apply to a person who has the right to acquire, transfer or exercise the voting rights in the general meeting of a public company in one or more of the following cases:

1. voting rights held by a third party with whom the person has entered into agreement on pursuit of a long-term common policy on the management of the company through joint exercise of the voting rights held by them;

2. voting rights held by a third party with whom the person has entered into agreement on a temporary transfer of the voting rights;

3. voting rights attaching to shares provided as security to the person, provided that the latter may control the voting rights and has expressly stated its intention to exercise them;

4. voting rights attaching to shares provided for use by the person;

5. voting rights held or which may be exercised under items 1 - 4 by a company controlled by the person;

6. voting rights attaching to shares deposited with the person, which rights the person may exercise at its discretion without special instructions by the shareholders;

7. voting rights held by third parties on their behalf but on the account of the person;

8. (amended, SG No. 103/2012) voting rights that the person may exercise in its capacity as representative where the person may exercise them at his discretion, without special instructions by the shareholders.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 77/2011, SG No. 109/2013, effective 20.12.2013) The voting rights of the parent undertaking of a management company shall not be added to the voting rights of the management company, attaching to shares included in a portfolio managed by it pursuant to Article 86, paragraph 2, item 2 of the Collective Investment Schemes and Other Undertakings for Collective Investments Act, provided that the management company exercises the voting rights independently from the parent undertaking.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 42/2016, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) The voting rights of the investment intermediary, attaching to shares included in a portfolio managed by it under § 1, item 8 of the supplementary provisions of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act shall not be added to the voting rights of the parent undertaking of an investment intermediary who has been granted a licence for carrying on activity according to the Markets in Financial Instruments Act or the applicable law of another Member State of the Council on the investment services in the securities field, provided that:

1. (amended, SG No. 42/2016, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) the investment intermediary is authorized to manage a portfolio under Article 6, paragraph 2, item 4 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Act;

2. (amended, SG No. 77/2011, SG No. 42/2016) the investment intermediary may exercise the voting rights attaching to the shares only on instruction given in writing or electronically, or shall guarantee that the portfolio is managed separately from the other services and under conditions equivalent to the conditions under Council Directive 2009/65/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 July 2009 on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities (UCITS) (OJ, L 302/32 of 17 November 2009), hereinafter referred to as "Directive 2009/65/EC" by applying appropriate measures;

3. the investment intermediary exercises its voting rights independently from the parent undertaking.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 42/2016) Paragraphs 2 and 3 shall not apply in cases where the parent undertaking or another company controlled by the parent undertaking has invested in voting shares included in an portfolio managed by the management company or the investment intermediary and the management company, as the case may be, and the investment intermediary has not the right to exercise the voting rights at its own discretion but only in accordance with direct or indirect instructions given to it by the parent undertaking or another company controlled by the parent undertaking.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 77/2011, SG No. 42/2016) Paragraphs 2 – 4 shall also apply to companies whose registered office is in a third country for which a licence would be required under Article 6 of Directive 2009/65/EC or for management of a portfolio under item 4 of Section "A" of Appendix I to Directive 2004/39/EEC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 April 2004 regarding the Markets in Financial Instruments and for Amendment of Directives 85/611/EEC and 93/6/EEC of the Council and of Directive 2000/12/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council and for Repealing Directive 93/22/EEC of the Council, if they had a registered office in a Member State, or in the cases of an investment intermediary, if its head office was located in a Member State, provided that equivalent requirements are complied with for independent exercise of the voting rights or in portfolio management as management company or investment intermediary, as the case may be. The conditions where the requirements are considered equivalent shall be set out in ordinance.

(Amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

The requirements under Articles 145 and 146, Paragraph 1, item 3 shall not apply to shares provided to or by the European Central Bank, the Bulgarian National Bank or the central banks of the other Member States in the performance of their monetary policy functions, including shares provided to or by them as security, in repo agreements or similar agreements on liquidity provision for the purposes of the monetary policy or within one payment system, if the transactions are concluded for a short period of time and the voting rights attaching to the shares are not exercised.

Article 148

(Amended and supplemented, SG No. 86/2006, amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) The notification under Article 145, Paragraph 1 and Article 146, Paragraph 1 shall contain at a minimum:

1. the number of the votes resulting from the change;
2. the controlled persons through which the person exercises the voting rights, where applicable;
3. the date on which the voting rights of the person reach, exceed or fall below the thresholds under Article 145, Paragraph 1;
4. data about the shareholder, regardless of whether he may exercise the voting rights under Article 146, Paragraph 1, and about the persons who have the right to exercise the voting right on account of the shareholder.

(2) The notification shall be prepared either in Bulgarian or in a language normally used in the field of international finance. The public company is not obligated to provide translation of the notification into the language adopted by the Commission or the other competent authorities.

(3) The obligation for notification under Article 145, Paragraph 1 and Article 146, Paragraph 1 shall be fulfilled without delay but no later than 4 working days after the day following the day on which the shareholder or the person under Article 146, Paragraph 1:

1. becomes aware of the acquisition, transfer or the option to exercise his voting rights under Article 146 or on which, depending on the specific circumstances, he should have become aware of, regardless of the date on which the acquisition or transfer was carried out or the option for exercise of the voting rights arose;

2. has been notified of the occurrence of the events under Article 145, Paragraph 1, item 2.

(4) The obligation for notification under Article 145, Paragraph 3 shall be fulfilled no later than the day following the acquisition or the transfer of the shares.

(5) The requirement under Paragraph 1 shall not apply to the person whose obligation for notification has been fulfilled by its parent undertaking, and where the parent undertaking is a controlled company, by its parent undertaking.

(6) Attached to the notification shall be a declaration of existence of the circumstances under Article 145 and/or Article 146.

(7) The form and procedure for giving notification as well as additional requirements to its content, the cases where it is deemed that the person must have become aware of the acquisition and transfer, the conditions where it is deemed that the exercise of the votes or the management of a portfolio by the management company and the investment intermediary are independent, as well as the measures for exercising control on compliance with the conditions for exemption from the obligations for notification under this Section shall be set out by ordinance.

Article 148a

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 42/2016) The obligation for notification under Article 145 (1) shall apply also to the persons who own directly or indirectly:

1. financial instruments, which according to a written contract confer to the persons who own them on the maturity date an unconditional right to acquire shares or a right of discretionary choice as regards their right to acquire voting shares, issued by the company whose shares have been admitted to trade on a regulated market;

2. financial instruments which are not included in Item 1 but are associated with the shares specified in Item 1 and which have an economic effect similar to the effect of the financial instruments specified in Item 1, regardless of whether they provide a right of settlement through delivery of the underlying securities.

(2) (New, SG No. 42/2016) The notification under Paragraph 1 shall include a break-down by types of financial instruments under Paragraph 1, where the financial instruments providing a right of settlement through delivery of the underlying securities shall be distinguished from the financial instruments providing a right of settlement in cash.

(3) (New, SG No. 42/2016) The voting rights shall be calculated on the basis of the nominal value of the underlying assets of the financial instruments, unless the financial instrument guarantees cash settlement only, in which case the voting rights shall be calculated on a basis adjusted relative to the "delta" coefficient", whereby the nominal value of the underlying shares shall be multiplied by the instrument's "delta" coefficient. For the purposes of the notification under Paragraph 1, the persons holding financial instruments shall sum together all the financial instruments associated with that same company which has issued the underlying shares. Only the long positions shall be taken into consideration when calculating the voting rights. The long positions shall not be netted out against short positions associated with that same company which has issued the underlying shares.

(4) (New, SG No. 42/2016) The following shall be considered financial instruments within the meaning of Paragraph 1, if they meet any one of the conditions:

1. securities;
2. options;
3. futures;
4. swaps;
5. forward interest rate contracts;
6. contracts for differences;
7. other contracts or agreements with a similar economic effect, which can be settled through delivery of the underlying securities or through cash settlement;
8. (supplemented, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) other instruments determined with a decision of the Commission on a motion by the Deputy Chairperson.

(5) (New, SG No. 42/2016) The requirements of Paragraphs 1 - 4 shall not be applied in the cases under Article 145, Paragraphs 4 - 6 and under Article 146, Paragraphs 2 - 4.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, amended, SG No. 42/2016) The procedure for giving the notification, the nature of the contract, the content, term and form of the notification as well as any other requirements relating to the notification shall be set out by ordinance.

Article 148b

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

Any public company shall disclose publicly under the terms of Article 100r the information provided with the notifications by the persons under Article 145 and Article 146 within three working days from notification thereof.

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) To ensure compliance with the provisions of this Section, in addition to the powers provided for in the other parts of the Act and the statutory instruments for its application, the Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as appropriate, may:

1. (amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) require from the public company Central Depository AD, the central securities depository in which the securities of the company are recorded, the shareholders, the persons holding other financial instruments and the persons under Articles 146 and 148a to submit specific information and documents;

2. require from the public company to disclose publicly the information under item 1 in a manner and within the term set by him;

3. publish the information under item 1 at its own initiative in the cases where the public company has not fulfilled its obligation under item 2 and after submission of explanation from the company;

4. (amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) require from the public company Central Depository AD, the central securities depository in which the securities of the company are recorded, the shareholders, the persons holding other financial instruments, and the persons under Articles 146 and 148a to submit specific information and documents;

5. (repealed, SG No. 42/2016).

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 103/2012) The Commission may disclose any coercive administrative measure taken or penalty imposed for infringement of the provisions of this Section and the instruments for its application, save where such disclosure would seriously jeopardise the stability of financial markets or cause disproportionate damage to the parties involved.

(3) (New, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) The powers referred to in Paragraph 1, Items 1 and 4 shall be exercised by the Deputy Chairperson, and the powers referred to in Paragraph 1, Items 2 and 3 – by the Commission on a motion by the Deputy Chairperson.

Article 148d

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) The Commission shall cooperate and exchange information with the relevant competent authorities of the other Member States where this necessary for the purpose of carrying out its duties under this Section and shall render assistance in view of the exercise of their functions.

(2) (New, SG No. 21/2012) Where a request of the Commission for cooperation under Paragraph 1 is refused or where no timely actions have been taken upon such request, the Commission may notify ESMA in order to ensure cooperation in accordance with Regulation (EU) No. 1095/2010.

(3) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, supplemented, SG No. 21/2012, amended, SG No. 42/2016, amended and supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) Where the Republic of Bulgaria is a host country in the meaning of Article 100j(2)(2) and the Commission establishes that a public company, shareholder or holder of other financial instruments or the person under Article 146 infringes this Act and its implementing statutory instruments, it shall notify the competent authority in the home Member State in the meaning of Article 100j(2)(1) and ESMA thereof.

(4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, supplemented, SG No. 21/2012, amended, SG No. 42/2016, amended and supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) If, despite the measures taken by the competent authority of the home Member State in the meaning of Article 100j(2)(1) or where such measures prove inadequate, the public company, the shareholder or the holder of other financial instruments or the person under Article 146 persists in infringing this Act or its implementing statutory instruments, the Commission may, after informing the competent authority of the home Member State in the meaning of Article 100j(2)(1), take the appropriate measures in order to protect investors. The Commission shall notify the European Commission and ESMA of the measures taken within 7 days after their implementation.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 21/2012) Where the Commission is notified by the relevant competent authority of the host country within the meaning of Article 100j, paragraph 2, item 2 that a public company, shareholder or holder of other financial instruments or the person under Article 146 infringes the law of the relevant Member State, the Commission, the Deputy Chairperson respectively, shall apply relevant enforcement administrative measures.

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 42/2016) This Section shall furthermore apply to issuers from a third country, whose shares are admitted to trading on a regulated market and for whom the Republic of Bulgaria is a Member State of origin within the meaning of Article 100j, paragraph 2, item 1.

(2) In the cases of Article 145, Paragraph 1, item 2 where the issuer is from a third country notification shall be made upon occurrence of equivalent events which lead to changes in the total number of voting rights.

(3) (Supplemented, SG No. 21/2012) The requirements of Article 148b for the term for disclosure shall not apply to the persons under paragraph 1 if the Commission considers that the law of that country lays down equivalent requirements. The Commission shall notify ESMA of its judgement under sentence one. The conditions under which the Commission may consider that the requirements of the law of the third country are equivalent to the requirements of Article 148b shall be set out by ordinance.

(4) The Commission shall publish on its website a list of the countries whose laws set out requirements equivalent to the requirements under Article 148b.

Article 148f

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

The provisions of this Section shall not apply to:

1. (amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) the units of collective investment undertakings other than the closed end type within the meaning of Article 100j, paragraph 2, items 6 and 7, or to units acquired or transferred within such collective investment undertaking;
2. money market instruments with a maturity of less than 12 months.

Section II

Tender Offering for Purchase or Exchange of Shares

(New, SG No. 42/2016)

(1) The obligation for notification under Articles 145, 146 and 148a shall be applied to the person, non-personified company or trust, when the voting rights held directly or indirectly by such person, non-personified company or trust according to Articles 145 and 146, summed together with the voting rights associated with financial instruments held directly or indirectly according to Article 148a, reach, exceed or drop below 5 percent or below a number multiple of 5 percent of the number of votes in the company's General Meeting according to Article 145 (1).

(2) The notification under Paragraph 1 shall include a breakdown of the voting rights associated with shares held according to Articles 145 and 146 and of the voting rights associated with financial instruments under Article 148a.

(3) For the voting rights associated with financial instruments, for which a notification under Article 148a has already been submitted, a new notification shall be submitted, if the person, the non-personified company or the trust has acquired the underlying shares and, as a result of the acquisition, the total number of voting rights associated with shares issued by that same company reaches or exceeds 5 percent or a number multiple of 5 percent of the number of votes in the company's General Meeting according to Article 145 (1).

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended, SG No. 103/2012, previous Article 148g, SG No. 42/2016)

Within the meaning of this Section, "related parties" shall be the persons who on the basis of an agreement, either express or tacit, either oral or written, aim either at acquiring control of the offeree company or at frustrating the successful outcome of a tender offering. The persons controlled by another person within the meaning of §1, item 44 of the supplementary provisions shall be considered related parties with that person or among themselves, as well as with the persons with whom the controlling party is related under § 1 (13)(c) and (d) of the supplementary provisions. Related parties shall also be any persons referred to in § 1 (13)(c) and (d) of the supplementary provisions.

Article 148i

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, previous Article 148h, SG No. 42/2016)

(1) (Previous text of Article 148h, SG No. 62/2015, effective 14.08.2015) This Section shall not apply to tender offerings regarding:

1. securities issued by companies whose purpose is collective investment of funds raised through public offering of units, operating on the principle of risk-spreading and on request from holders of such units buy back directly or indirectly their units at a price based on their net asset value;

2. shares issued by the central banks of the Member States.

(2) (New, SG No. 62/2015, effective 14.08.2015, supplemented, SG No. 8/2023) The obligation to register the tender offer shall not arise in implementing resolution measures or exercise of powers and use of mechanisms under the Recovery and Resolution of Credit Institutions and Investment Firms Act or mechanisms set out in Title V of Regulation (EU) 2021/23.

Article 149

(1) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 103/2012) Any person that acquires, directly or through related parties, more than one-third of the votes in the General Meeting of a public company in which nobody-neither independently nor jointly with other persons-holds, directly or through related parties, more than 50 per cent of the votes in the General Meeting, shall, within fourteen days from the acquisition date or, when the threshold has been exceeded due to a conversion or withdrawal of shares, within one month upon registering the conversion or capital decrease with the Commercial Register:

1. (amended, SG No. 39/2005) acting according to Article 151 herein, register with the Commission a tender offer to the rest of the voting shareholders for purchase of the shares thereof and/or for exchange of the said shares for shares which will be issued by the offeror for this purpose; or

2. (amended, SG No. 103/2012) transfer the requisite number of shares so as to hold, whether directly or through related parties, less than one-third of the votes in the General Meeting.

(2) The provisions of Paragraph 1 shall furthermore apply:

1. (amended, SG No. 103/2012) in respect of persons that jointly hold more than one-third of the voting shares and that have concluded an agreement in writing on implementation of a common policy for management of the company concerned through joint exercise of the voting power thereby held;

2. (amended, SG No. 103/2012) where other persons hold, for the account of any person referred to in Paragraph 1, voting shares and the aggregate voting power carried by the said shares exceeds one-third of all votes in the General Meeting.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) Upon acquisition through related parties, as well as in the cases referred to in Item 1 of Paragraph 2, the tender offeror shall be the person holding directly the largest number of the aggregate number of votes held, and in the cases referred to in Item 2 of Paragraph 2, the offeror shall be the person for the account whereof the shares are held.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005) In the cases covered under Paragraph 2, the offeror shall be obligated to register a tender offer with the Commission within fourteen days after conclusion of the agreement or after acquisition of the shares for the account of the person referred to in Paragraph 1, as the case may be.

(5) (Supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) Until publication of the tender offer according to the procedure established by Article 154 herein or until transfer of the shares, as the case may be, no person covered under Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall have the right to exercise the voting power thereof in the General Meeting. Upon acquisition of a shareholding through related parties in the cases covered under Paragraphs (1) and (2), the controlled direct shareholder in the public company shall not be entitled to exercise its voting right in the general meeting until the submission of a tender offer or until the obligated person covered under Paragraphs 1 and 2 loses control over such shareholder.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 103/2012) The obligation referred to in Paragraph 1(1) shall also arise in respect of any person that acquires-directly, through related parties, or indirectly under Paragraph 2 - more than 50 per cent of the votes in the General Meeting of a public company, as well as in respect of any person that acquires-directly, through related parties, or indirectly under Paragraph 2 - more than two-thirds of the votes in the General Meeting of a public company, unless the person concerned transfers the requisite number of shares within fourteen days from the acquisition date so as to hold, whether directly, through related parties or indirectly under Paragraph 2, less than 50 per cent or less than two-thirds of the votes. Paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 shall apply accordingly.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 103/2012) If a person simultaneously exceeds more than one of the thresholds referred to in Paragraphs 1 and 6 or, upon exceeding the lowest threshold, exceeds another threshold set out in Paragraph 6 within the time limit referred to in Paragraph 1, that person shall register a single tender offer. The tender offer registration time limit shall be the period that would expire first, if an obligation arose to file separate tender offers upon exceeding each threshold.

(8) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 103/2012) Any person that holds-directly, through related parties, and/or indirectly under Paragraph 2 - more than one-third of the votes in the General Meeting of a public company but no more than two-thirds, may not acquire, even through related parties or indirectly under Paragraph 2, voting shares, within a given year, which exceed three per cent of the total number of shares in the company, unless that acquisition results from a tender offer under Article 149b. Paragraph 5 shall apply accordingly. In the case of violating the requirement referred to in the first sentence, the voting rights shall be restricted according to Paragraph 5 until the publication of a tender offer under Article 149b. The obligation laid down in the first sentence shall not arise in respect of persons that exceed the threshold as a result of a capital increase entailing the issue of rights.

(9) (New, SG No. 103/2012) The obligation laid down in Paragraphs 6 or 8, respectively, shall not arise in respect of persons that, within a year before exceeding a threshold under Paragraph 6 or Paragraph 8, made a tender offer under Paragraph 1, a tender offer under Paragraph 6 in the case of exceeding the threshold of 50 per cent of the votes in the public company's General Meeting, or a tender offer under Article 149b, whereby the offer was addressed to all shareholders, the price was determined according to Article 150(7) and the tender offer resulted in the person's acquiring more than 50 per cent of the votes in the public company's General Meeting. The same shall apply in respect of persons that have exceeded a threshold under Paragraph 6 or Paragraph 8, respectively, as a result of the aforementioned tender offer.

(10) (New, SG No. 103/2012) The obligation laid down in Paragraph 1 shall not arise in respect of persons that have exceeded the threshold set out therein a result of a tender offer under Article 149b which complies with the requirements.

(11) (New, SG No. 103/2012) The obligation laid down in Paragraph 6 in the case of exceeding the threshold of two-thirds of the votes in the public company's General Meeting shall not arise in respect of persons that have exceeded the threshold as a result of a capital increase entailing the issue of rights, unless the person concerned held more than 50 per cent of the votes in the public company's General Meeting before the capital increase.

(1) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, SG No. 103/2012) Any person, who or which acquires, whether directly, through related parties or indirectly in the cases covered under Article 149 (2) herein, more than 90 per cent of the votes in the General Meeting of any public company, shall have the right to register a tender offer for purchase of the shares held by the rest of the shareholders. Article 149(3), (4) and (12) herein shall apply accordingly.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005) If any person referred to in Paragraph 1 fails to register a tender offer within fourteen days after the acquisition of the number of shares referred to in Paragraph 1, the said person shall be obligated to notify the shareholders, the regulated market and the Commission of the intentions thereof to register a tender offer at least three months in advance. The said person shall be obligated to notify forthwith the shareholders, the regulated market and the Commission in case the intentions regarding a tender offer are abandoned, citing the reasons for such abandonment.

(3) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended, SG No. 103/2012) If the person referred to in Article 149, Paragraph 1 and/or Paragraph 6 acquires-within the period referred to in Article 149(1) and set pursuant to Article 149(7), if necessary, directly, through related parties, or indirectly under Article 149(2) - more than 90 per cent of the votes in the public company's general meeting, that person may exercise the right under Paragraph 1 by registering one tender offer while fulfilling its obligation under Article 149, Paragraph 1 and/or Paragraph 6.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) The Commission may refuse publication of a tender offer referred to in Paragraph 1 if the offeror has breached the requirement established by Article 149 (8) herein within the last twenty-four months.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended, SG No. 103/2012) Upon expiration of the time limit under Article 152(1) or Article 153(1), respectively, if the Commission has not issued a prohibition within the said time limit, as well as fourteen days upon expiration of the time limit for acceptance of the tender offer, the person referred to in Paragraph 1 shall be obligated to purchase, upon request, the shares held by each shareholder. In such a case, Article 150 (6) herein shall apply accordingly.

Article 149b

(1) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, SG No. 103/2012)

Any person holding at least 5 per cent of the votes in the General Meeting of any public company and seeking to acquire, whether directly, through connected persons or indirectly in the cases covered under Article 149 (2) herein, more than one-third of the votes in the General Meeting of the said company, may publish a tender offer for purchase or for exchange of shares to all voting shareholders after advance confirmation of a draft tender offer by the Commission. Article 149 (3), (4) and (12) herein shall apply accordingly.

(2) The offeror referred to in Paragraph 1 shall be obligated to purchase or to exchange, as the case may be, all voting shares held by any shareholder who or which has accepted the offer. Should the number of voting shares deposited on the part of all shareholders who or which have accepted the offer exceed the total quantity of shares under the tender offer, the offeror shall purchase or exchange shares from each of the accepting shareholders in proportion to the shares deposited thereby.

(3) The person referred to in Paragraph 1 may set a minimum number of shares to be offered thereto for acquisition as precondition for validity of the specific offer.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005) The Commission may suspend trading in shares in the company whereof the shares are subject to the tender offer if this is necessary with a view to the principles covered under Article 150 (1) herein.

Article 150

(1) Tender offering shall be effected in accordance with the following principles:

1. (supplemented, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) ensuring equal treatment of the shareholders enjoying equal status in the company subject to tender offer and protection of the other shareholders upon acquiring control of the company;

2. (supplemented, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) allowing sufficient time and providing sufficient information to the shareholders of the company as may be needed for an informed assessment of the offer and for making a reasoned decision regarding acceptance of the said offer. In the giving of an opinion on the tender offer the management body of the offeree company shall give its opinion on the consequences from accepting the tender offer on the employees, the conditions of the contracts of employment and the place of carrying on activity;

3. (amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the management bodies acting in the best interest of the company as a whole, without preventing the shareholders from the possibility to take decision on the substance of the tender offer;

4. not admitting market manipulation in the securities of the company subject to tender offer, as well as in other companies affected by the tender offering;

5. (new, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) making a tender offer only after providing opportunity for full payment or exchange, as the case may be, of the shares to the shareholders who have accepted the offer;

6. (new, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the company that is the subject of tender offer shall not be placed in a situation which inhibits its activity for an unjustifiably long period of time.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 61/2002) Any offer referred to in Article 149 (1), (6) and (8), Article 149a and Article 149b herein must contain the following information:

1. (amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the name or business name, registered office and address of the tender offeror and of the investment intermediary thereby authorized;

2. (new, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the shares or the class of shares, as the case may be, for which the tender offer refers;

3. (supplemented, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Item 2, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the number of voting shares which the offeror does not hold and is obligated to seek or seeks to acquire;

4. (amended, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Item 3, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the proposed price per share issued by the company subject to tender offer and/or the ratio of exchange of such shares for shares referred to in Item 1 of Article 149 (1) herein, the issue price, and particulars of the rights attaching to the said shares;

5. (new, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the compensation for the rights of the shareholders which may be restricted under the terms of Article 151a, Paragraph 4, including the procedure and manner of its payment and the methods of its setting;

6. (renumbered from Item 4, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) information concerning the types and number of shares which the offeror holds, whether directly or through connected persons, as well as under the terms referred to in Article 149 (2) herein, in the company subject to tender offer;

7. (renumbered from Item 5, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the time limit for acceptance of the offer;

8. (supplemented, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Item 6, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the terms and conditions whereunder the offeror shall finance the acquisition of the shares and proof of availability of the resources necessary for the purchase or of the securities necessary for exchange;

9. (renumbered from Item 7, amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the intentions of the offeror regarding the future operation of the company subject to tender offer and of the offeror - legal person to the extent the latter is affected by the tender offer, regarding retention of the members of the management bodies and the staff of the said companies, including material changes in the terms and conditions of the contracts of employment and in particular the strategic plans of the offeror for the two companies and for the likely repercussions of the offer on the employees and the locations of the companies's places of business;

10. (renumbered from Item 8, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the time limit for fulfilment of obligations upon acceptance of the tender offer;

11. (renumbered from Item 9, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) the key information necessary so that the shareholders to whom the tender offer is addressed can understand the substance of the issuer's business and the features of the securities proposed for the exchange of securities, and also any risks associated with the issuer and the securities, in cases where an exchange of securities is also proposed;

12. (new, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) applicable law to the contracts between the offeror and the shareholders upon acceptance of the tender offer and the competent court;

13. (amended, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Item 10, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) any other particulars and documents as may be prescribed by ordinance or as may be requested by the Commission according to the procedure established by Article 152 (1) herein.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Any tender offer referred to in Article 149a herein must indicate that upon expiry of the time limit for acceptance of the said offer the company may cease to be public even if the condition referred to in Item 1 of Article 119 (1) herein is not fulfilled, as well as whether the offeror intends to apply for expungement of the company in the register of the Commission. Items 3 and 11 of Paragraph 2 shall not apply to any such tender offer.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 103/2012) Any tender offer shall be signed by the offeror and by the investment intermediary referred to in Article 149 (12) herein, who shall declare that the said offer conforms to the requirements of the law.

(5) The offeror and the signing investment intermediary shall incur joint liability for any detriment as may be inflicted by reason of any untrue, misleading or deficient particulars in the tender offer.

(6) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Any tender offer referred to in Article 149 (1) and (6) herein and in Article 149a herein shall include a justification of the proposed price or of the proposed rate of exchange referred to in Item 4 of Article 150 (2) herein, as the case may be. The said justification shall name the fair price per share in the company, calculated proceeding from generally accepted valuation methods. The requirements to the contents of the justification, including the application of valuation methods, shall be established by ordinance.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002) The price of the tender offer or the rate of exchange referred to in Article 149(1) and (6) or Article 149a, as the case may be, may not be lower than the highest value between:

1. (amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) the fair price of the share as named in the justification referred to in Paragraph 6;

2. (amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) the average weighted market price of the shares during the last six months before the registration of the offer or before the date on which, at the latest, the obligation under Article 149 (1) or (6) should have been fulfilled if the tender offer had not been registered prior to the said date and that price is higher than the average weighted market price of the shares during the last six months before the registration of the offer;

3. (new, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, supplemented, SG No. 103/2012) the highest price per share paid by the offeror, the persons related to him or the persons under Article 149, paragraph 2 during the last 6 months before the registration of the offer or before the date on which, at the latest, the obligation under Article 149(1) or (6) should have been fulfilled if the tender offer had not been registered prior to the said date and that price is higher than the highest price per share paid by the same persons during the last 6 months before the registration of the offer; in the cases where the price of the shares cannot be determined in accordance with the preceding sentence, it shall be determined as the last issue value or the last price paid by the tender offeror, whichever is higher.

(8) (New, SG No. 61/2002, supplemented, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended, SG No. 62/2017) The price of any tender offers referred to in Article 149 (8) herein, as well as in Article 149b herein, may not be lower than the average weighted market price of the shares during the six last preceding months or, where no such market price exists, the highest price per share paid by the offeror, by the persons related to him or by the persons under Article 149, paragraph 2 during the six months last preceding the registration of the offer. The tender offeror may justify the price proposed thereby according to Paragraph 6.

(9) (New, SG No. 103/2012) In order to calculate the highest price per share paid by the offeror, the offeror's related parties, or the persons referred to in Article 149(2) in the case of shares acquired when increasing the capital, the issue price of each new share shall be increased by the highest price paid by the offeror, the offeror's related parties, or the persons referred to in Article 149(2) for obtaining the rights to participate in the capital increase, if such rights have been bought by the offeror, the offeror's related parties, or the persons referred to in Article 149(2).

(10) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, renumbered from Paragraph 9, SG No. 103/2012) If until expiry of the term of the tender offer the tender offeror acquires directly, through related parties or indirectly under Article 149, paragraph 2 voting shares in the general meeting of the offeree company at a price higher than that offered in the tender offer the tender offeror shall increase the offered price to such higher price. In this case the purchase of the shares shall be effected at the higher price in respect of all shareholders who have accepted the offer before or after the increase.

(11) (Renumbered from Paragraph 8, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Paragraph 9, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, renumbered from Paragraph 10, SG No. 103/2012) Any offer for exchange of shares must mandatorily state an alternative option for purchase of the voting shares held by the rest of the shareholders.

(12) (Renumbered from Paragraph 9, SG No. 61/2002, renumbered from Paragraph 10, amended and supplemented, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, renumbered from Paragraph 11, SG No. 103/2012) The time limit referred to in Item 7 of Paragraph 2 may not be shorter than twenty-eight days and longer than seventy days after the publication date of the tender offer save in the cases of competitive tender offer made where the term of the tender offer shall be extended until expiry of the term for acceptance of the competitive tender offer.

(1) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 103/2012) Tender offers shall be registered with the Commission and may be published unless the Commission issues a temporary prohibition [against such publication] within 20 business days. Any failure of the Commission to deliver a decision within the time limits referred to in the first sentence shall be presumed as tacit confirmation of the tender offer concerned.

(2) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Paragraph 1 shall not apply to tender offer for acquisition and/or exchange of voting shares of the company which has its registered office in a Member State and whose shares are admitted to trading on a regulated market in the Republic of Bulgaria, which was subject to approval and has been approved by the competent authority of that Member State. In this case the Commission may require from the tender offeror to make a translation of the tender offer as well as include in it additional information which is specific for the market in the Republic of Bulgaria, relating to the conditions of acceptance of the tender offer, receipt of the price of the shares or their stock exchange value, as well as any fees due thereon.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 86/2006, renumbered from Paragraph (2), amended and supplemented, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) On the day of registration under Paragraph 1, the tender offeror shall be obligated to present the offer to the management body of the company subject to tender offer of the representatives of its employees or, where there are no such representatives, to the employees themselves, as well as on the regulated market whereon the shares in the said company have been admitted to trading. Any such notices shall expressly state that the Commission has not yet pronounced on the tender offer.

(4) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, supplemented, SG No. 103/2012, amended, SG No. 62/2017) The members of the management body of the offeree company shall submit the tender offer to the representatives of its employees or, where there are no such representatives, to the employees themselves and by the end of the working day shall disclose the information about the offer received and the material conditions thereof as per the procedure established by Article 100r herein. Material conditions within the meaning of the first sentence shall be: information regarding the tender offeror; the proposed price per share issued by the company subject to tender offer and/or the ratio of exchange of such shares for shares referred to in Item 1 of Article 149 (1) herein; the number of voting shares the offeror does not hold and is obliged to request or wishes to acquire; information regarding the tender offeror's future intentions and strategic plans in connection with the offeree company, and a summary justification of the price.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 61/ 2002, SG No. 39/2005, renumbered from Paragraph (3), amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Within 7 days after receipt of any tender offer, the management body of the company affected shall present a reasoned opinion on the transaction proposed to the Commission, to the offeror, and to the representatives of the employees or, where there are no such representatives, to the employees themselves, inter alia as to the repercussion from accepting the tender offer on the company and the employees and the strategic plans of the offeror for the offeree company and their likely repercussion on the employees and the place of business as per Article 150, Paragraph 2, item 9. The opinion must furthermore contain information concerning the existence of possible agreements stipulating the exercise of the voting power carried by the shares in the offeree company, in so far as any such information is known to the management body, as well as information concerning the number of shares in the company held by the members of the management body thereof and whether the said members intend to accept the offer. When the management body of the offeree company receives within the time limit under the first sentence an opinion from the representatives of the employees on the repercussion of the tender offer on the employees, this opinion shall be attached to the opinion of the management board.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Upon receipt of the offer referred to in Paragraph 3 and until publication of the results of the tender offering or until closing of the said offering, as the case may be, the management body of the offeree company may not perform any other acts except for seeking a competitive tender offer, whereof the principal aim is frustration of the acceptance of the tender offer or infliction of material difficulties or material additional expenses on the offeror such as issue of shares or conclusion of transactions which would result in a significant change in the property of the company, unless said acts are performed with the prior approval of the general meeting of the offeree company.

(7) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) The general meeting shall approve any decision of the management body on taking measures under Paragraph 6, taken before receipt of the tender offer, which is not effected in full or in part and which is not part of the ordinary business of the company and which may frustrate acceptance of the tender offer.

Article 151a

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) All restrictions on the transfer of voting shares provided for in the articles of association of the offeree company, in agreements between the offeree company and the shareholders or in agreements among the shareholders shall not apply to the tender offer within the term for acceptance of the tender offer.

(2) Any restrictions on the voting right provided for in the articles of association of the offeree company, in agreements between the offeree company and the shareholders or in agreements among the shareholders shall not apply in taking decisions by the general meeting concerning the taking of measures under Article 151, Paragraphs 6 and 7.

(3) Where as a result of a tender offer the offeror acquires more than 75 per cent of the votes in the general meeting of a public company, the restrictions under Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply as well as the exclusive rights of the shareholders related to election or dismissal of the members of the management bodies set out in the articles of association of the offeree company.

(4) The offeror shall pay compensation to the shareholders for restricting their rights under Paragraphs 1 - 3. The conditions and procedure for the payment of the compensation shall be determined by the offeror and shall be specified in the tender offer. Any disputes regarding the amount of the compensation set shall be settled under the general procedure.

(5) Paragraphs 2 and 3 shall not apply to shares where the restrictions on the voting right are compensated for by additional dividend or other pecuniary payments.

(6) Paragraphs 1 - 4 shall not apply to the special rights of the State relating to its participation in the offeree company.

Article 152

(1) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 39/2005, supplemented, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended, SG No. 103/2012) Should the documents submitted be found invalid or should any additional information or evidence authenticating the particulars be required, within 20 business days after registration of the offer the Commission shall issue a temporary prohibition against publication of the said offer and shall transmit a communication specifying the deficiencies and non-conformities found or the additional information and evidence required. The Commission may require any information about the tender offer as may be necessary to it for the performance of its functions, and from the members of the management body of the offeror - legal person, the offeree company, the shareholders and the members of the management body of the offeree company, as well as from related parties thereof.

(2) (New, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 42/2016, SG No. 94/2019) The notifications and communications in the procedure under Paragraph 1 shall be made according to the procedure of Article 61 of the Administrative Procedures Code.

(3) (New, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 8/2003, amended and supplemented, SG No. 39/2005, amended, SG No. 42/2016) When the notifications and communications in the procedure under Paragraph 1 are not accepted according to the procedure of Paragraph 2, they shall be considered duly made by being posted on a specially designated place in the Commission's building or by being published on the Commission's web page. Any such posting or publishing shall be attested by a memorandum drawn up by officers designated by an order of the Chairperson of the Commission.

(4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 62/2017) The person shall rectify the deficiencies or non-conformities as indicated or shall submit the additional information and documents, as required, within 20 business days after receipt of a communication to this effect. Article 151 (3) - (5) shall apply to revised tender offers.

(1) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 62/2017) If the Commission fails to issue a final prohibition against the publication of an offer within 10 business days after receiving the documents required, the offeror may publish the said offer.

(2) (Supplemented, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005) The Commission may issue a reasoned prohibition referred to in Paragraph 1 solely if the offer and the enclosures thereto do not satisfy the requirements of this Act and of the instruments for the application thereof, or the interests of investors are otherwise impaired. Article 152 (2) and (3) herein shall apply accordingly.

(3) (New, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005) The Commission may issue a final prohibition in respect of a tender offer referred to in Article 149b herein solely if the circumstances covered under Article 150 (2) herein are materially deficient. Article 152 (2) and (3) herein shall apply accordingly.

(4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005) The Commission shall not be held responsible for the accuracy of any particulars contained in a tender offer.

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005) The Commission may, by reasoned decision, terminate a tender offering prior to the expiry of the time limit for acceptance of the offer should the requirements of this Act and of the instruments for the application thereof be breached upon or after the publication of the said offer. Acceptance of the offer by the shareholders prior to termination of the tender offer shall be inoperative.

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 39/2005, supplemented, SG No. 62/2017) Where the Commission has issued a temporary prohibition under Article 152 (1), the effect of the prohibition referred to in Article 149 (5) herein shall be revived until the submission of a corrected tender offer in accordance with Article 152 (4) herein. Where the Commission has issued a final prohibition under Paragraph 1 or has terminated the tender offering under Paragraph 5, the effect of the prohibition referred to in Article 149 (5) herein shall be revived until publication of a successive tender offer.

(1) (Amended and supplemented, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, amended, SG No. 103/2012, SG No. 62/2017) Within three business days of the expiry of the time limit specified in Article 151 (1) or, as the case may be, Article 153 (1) the tender offeror shall publish a notification of the tender offer and the material conditions thereof in accordance with Article 151 (4) in one national daily newspaper or on the website of a news agency or other media which can ensure the effective dissemination of the regulated information to the public in all Member States, and shall submit the final version of the tender offer to the public company and to the regulated market on which the shares are admitted to trading. Within the time limit under the first sentence, the offeror shall make the tender offer to representatives of its employees and to the representatives of the employees of the offeree company or, where there are no such representatives, to the employees themselves. The public company, the investment intermediary referred to in Article 149 (12) and the regulated market on which the public company's shares have been admitted to trading shall disclose the tender offer on their websites until the expiration of the time limit for acceptance of the said offer, and the public company shall also make a disclosure of the tender offer and the opinion of the public company's management body as per the procedure established by Article 100r (3). An ordinance may prescribe additional requirements to communication of the information under the first sentence.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 62/2017) Any advertisement and insert in connection with a tender offering must indicate the issue number and the publication date of the national daily newspaper and the websites referred to in Paragraph 1.

(3) (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) Where the shares of the offeree company are admitted to trading on a regulated market in another Member State the offeror shall, within the time limit under Paragraph 1, make available the tender offer to the shareholders in the countries where its shares are admitted to trading. At request from the competent authority of the Member State the tender offeror shall make a translation of the tender offer in the language adopted by the relevant competent authority as well as include additional information which is specific for the relevant market and refers to the conditions of acceptance of the tender offer,

Article 155

(1) (Supplemented, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, SG No. 62/2017) In any case other than tender offering referred to in Article 149b herein, a tender offer may not be withdrawn on the part of the offeror after the publication of any such offer. Exceptions shall be admissible solely where the offer may not be effected through circumstances beyond the control of the offeror, the time limit for acceptance of the said offer has not expired, and the Commission has granted approval to the withdrawal. Article 151 (1) and (3), Articles 152 and 153 herein shall apply accordingly. Within seven days after being notified of the approval granted, the offeror shall publish a notice of withdrawal of the offer in one national daily newspaper or on the website of a news agency or other media which can ensure the effective dissemination of the regulated information to the public in all Member States.

(2) Upon withdrawal of any tender offer according to Paragraph 1, the effect of the prohibition referred to in Article 149 (5) herein shall be revived until publication of a successive tender offer.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) The Commission shall forthwith notify the regulated market, as well as the investment firm or the central securities depository in which the documents certifying the shares are deposited, of the withdrawal of the tender offer. Within three days after receipt of any such notice, the investment firm or the central securities depository in which the documents certifying the shares are deposited shall ensure conditions for restoration of the certifying documents to the shareholders who or which have accepted the offer.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, SG No. 103/2012) The offeror may extend the time limit for acceptance of the offer within the maximum admissible period referred to in Article 150 (12) herein, as well as increase the proposed price per share. In such a case, the purchase of shares shall be effected at the higher price in respect of all shareholders who or which have accepted the offer, whether before or after the increase. The offeror may introduce other alterations in the offer as well, subject to approval by the Commission.

(5) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, SG No. 62/2017) Any alterations referred to in Paragraph 4 shall be registered with the Commission and shall be published forthwith in one national daily newspaper or on the website of a news agency or other media which can ensure the effective dissemination of the regulated information to the public in all Member States, unless the Commission issues a prohibition within three business days. Article 151 (3), Articles 152 and 153 herein shall apply accordingly.

(1) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) A tender offer shall be accepted by means of an express declaration of will and deposit of the documents certifying the shares with an investment firm or with the central securities depository, as well as by performance of other acts as may be necessary in connection with the transfer. Acceptance of the offer may be withdrawn prior to the expiration of the time limit referred to in Item 7 of Article 150 (2) herein or of the extended time limit referred to in Article 155 (4) herein, as the case may be.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) The transaction shall be deemed concluded as at the time of expiration of the time limit referred to in Item 7 of Article 150 (2) herein or of the extended time limit referred to in Article 155 (4) herein, as the case may be.

(3) Payment of the price or exchange of the securities, as the case may be, shall be effected within seven business days after finalization of the transaction in conformity with Paragraph 1.

(4) (Amended, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020) The rights attaching to the shares subject to the tender offer shall pass to the offeror on the registration of the transfer of the shares in the central securities depository.

(Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

Upon expiration of the time limit for acceptance of the offer, the offeror shall forthwith cause publication of the result of the tender offering according to the procedure established by Article 154 herein and shall notify the Commission and the regulated market.

Article 157a

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 103/2012) A person who as a result of a tender offering made to all voting shareholders acquires directly, through related parties or indirectly in the cases under Article 149, paragraph 2 at least 95 per cent of the votes in the general meeting of a public company shall have the right, within three months of the term of the tender offer, to repurchase the voting shares out of the remaining shareholders. Article 149, Paragraphs 3, 4 and 12 herein shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(2) The proposed repurchase shall be approved by the Commission.

(3) The price under paragraph 1 shall be at least equal to the price:

1. proposed in the tender offer whereby the threshold under paragraph 1 is reached and upon mandatory making of the offer;

2. proposed in the tender offer whereby the threshold under paragraph 1 is reached and where making of the offer was optional and provided that the person under paragraph 1 has acquired no less than 90 per cent of the voting shares proposed in the said tender offer;

3. determined in accordance with Article 150, paragraphs 6 and 7 - in the other cases.

(4) For issuance of approval the person under paragraph 1 shall submit to the Commission a proposal for repurchase, which shall contain the data under Article 150, paragraph 2, items 1 - 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 and 13. Article 150, paragraphs 4 and 5 herein shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(5) The Commission shall pronounce on the application for issuance of approval within 14 days after the date of receipt thereof. Articles 152 and 153 herein shall apply mutatis mutandis.

(6) Within three days from issuance of the approval the person under paragraph 1 shall submit the proposal to the company and the regulated market whereon the shares of the company are admitted to trading and shall publish it under Article 154.

(7) (Amended, SG No. 103/2012) The transfer of shares and the payment of the price shall be made simultaneously, within 7 business days from the publication date of the proposal.

Article 157b

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) Any shareholder may require from the person who has acquired directly, through related parties or indirectly in the cases of Article 149, Paragraph 2 at least 95 per cent of the votes in the general meeting of a public company as a result of tender offer, to repurchase its voting shares within three months from the deadline of the tender offer. The request shall be in writing and shall contain data about the shareholder and the shares held thereby. In this case Article 157a, Paragraph 3 herein shall apply accordingly.

(2) The person under Paragraph 1 shall repurchase its shares within 30 days from receipt of the application.

Article 157c

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) The Commission shall supervise tender offers where the offeree company has its registered office in the Republic of Bulgaria and the shares issued thereby are admitted to trading on a regulated market in the Republic of Bulgaria or in a third country.

(2) The Commission shall furthermore supervise the tender offer where the shares of the offeree company are admitted to trading on a regulated market in the Republic of Bulgaria but are not admitted to trading on a regulated market in the Member State at its registered office.

(3) Where the shares of the offeree company under Paragraph 2 are admitted to trading on a regulated market in the Republic of Bulgaria and in another Member State the supervision of the tender offering shall be exercised by the Commission if the shares of the company are admitted to trading on a regulated market in the Republic of Bulgaria for the first time.

(4) Where the shares of the offeree company under Paragraph 2 are admitted to trading on a regulated market in the Republic of Bulgaria and in another Member State the supervision of the tender offering shall be exercised by the Commission if the company has determined it as the competent authority to exercise supervision of tender offering. The company shall communicate its decision to the Commission and the competent authorities of the other Member States in which the shares of the company are admitted to trading on a regulated market as well as the respective regulated markets on the first day of trading.

(5) The Commission shall disclose publicly the decision under Paragraph 4, designating it as the body responsible for the exercise of supervision of the tender offering.

(6) This Act or the statutory instruments for its application shall apply to the cases under Paragraph 2 - 4 on the issues regarding the price and/or the stock exchange value of the tender offer, the decision of the offeror on making a tender offer, the contents of the tender offer and its publication, and to issues regarding the information to be provided to the employees of the offeree company and company law, including the cases wherein an obligation arises for making a tender offer and wherein this obligation is not applied, as well as the circumstances wherein the offeree company may take actions that could frustrate the tender offering the law of the Member State where the registered office of the offeree company is located shall apply.

Article 157d

(New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) The Commission shall cooperate and exchange information with the competent authorities of the other Member States, particularly in the cases under Article 157c, Paragraphs 2 - 4.

(2) The competent authorities of the other Member States shall be the authorities exercising supervision of tender offerings, securities markets and other financial instruments and trade on these markets.

(3) The Commission may require from the competent authorities of the other Member States cooperation for serving particular documents in order to bring into effect acts issued by it in relation to tender offering as well as other actions with a view to ascertaining committed or alleged violations under this Act or the statutory instruments for its application.

(4) At request from a competent authority of a Member State the Commission shall serve particular documents with a view to bringing into effect acts issued by it in relation to tender offering, as well as other actions with a view to ascertaining committed or alleged violations of the law of the respective Member State in relation to the tender offerings.

Article 157e

(New, SG No. 61/2002, previous Article 157a, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 67/2003, SG No. 39/2005) The Commission shall adopt an ordinance on the application of this Section.

(1) Crowdfunding service providers shall establish and implement appropriate internal procedures for their employees to submit communications of infringements via a dedicated, separate and independent communication channel to receive communications of committed infringements of Regulation (EU) 2020/1503, this chapter and/or their implementing acts, or reasonable suspicions that such infringements have been committed or are about to be committed.

(2) Individuals working under employment relationship, who have submitted a notification of infringement or against whom a notification of infringement has been submitted, shall have the right of protection against disciplinary penalty under Article 187 (2) of the Labour Code.

(3) The Rules of the Commission under Item 1 of Article 13 (1) of the Financial Supervision Commission Act shall set out procedures for work with reports of infringements,

1. requirements concerning a communication channel for receiving alerts of infringements;
2. the opportunity to submit reports of infringements anonymously;
3. the procedure for considering reports of infringements;
4. the type, contents and time periods for giving feedback on the results from the report of the infringement, which a person submitting the report could expect after the reporting;
5. the confidentiality arrangements applicable to whistleblowing, including a description of the circumstances under which personal data of the whistleblowers and the natural persons who are considered responsible for the infringements may be disclosed.

Article 177a

(New, SG No. 39/2005, amended and supplemented, SG No. 86/2006, amended, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007, repealed, SG No. 77/2011, new, SG No. 54/2025) (1) The Commission, on a proposal by the Deputy Chairperson, shall, in accordance with the requirements of Regulation (EU) 2022/2554 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 December 2022 on digital operational resilience for the financial sector and amending Regulations (EC) No. 1060/2009, (EU) No. 648/2012, (EU) No. 600/2014, (EU) No. 909/2014 and (EU) 2016/1011 (OJ L 333/1, 27 December 2022), hereinafter referred to as "Regulation (EU) 2022/2554", and its implementing acts, make decisions to designate crowdfunding service providers to perform threat-led penetration testing, to confirm the scope of the testing and to approve the use in-house testers, as well to confirm the scope of testing and to approve the use of in-house testers, as well as to require a change, if necessary, in the frequency of the testing.

(2) The Commission shall, on a proposal by the Deputy Chairperson, make a decision that the testing referred to in Paragraph (1) has been performed in accordance with the requirements of Regulation (EU) 2022/2554, its implementing acts and the documentation on the testing, and shall issue an attestation confirming the testing or shall order a retesting.

(3) The Commission shall adopt an ordinance on the application of this article.

Title Five COERCIVE ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURES AND ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY LIABILITY

Chapter Nineteen COERCIVE ADMINISTRATIVE MEASURES

(1) (Amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, SG No. 62/2017, supplemented, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020; amended and supplemented, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020, SG No. 51/2022) Should the Deputy Chairperson establish that any supervised persons, any employees of such persons, any persons who perform managerial functions under contract or who conclude transactions for the account of any supervised persons, any receivers or trustees in bankruptcy of any supervised persons, as well as any bondholders' trustees, violate by their actions or omissions this Act, its implementing acts and/or the implementing acts of the European Union, with the exception of Chapter Six and Chapter Thirteen hereof, Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 and their its implementing acts, any decisions of the Commission or of the Deputy Chairperson, of internal acts of Central Depository AD approved by the Commission, as well as where the exercise of control activity by the Commission or by the Deputy Chairperson is obstructed, or should the interests of investors be jeopardized, the Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as the case may be, may:

1. obligate any such person to take specific action as may be necessary for prevention and rectification of the violations, of the prejudicial consequences of the said violations or of the jeopardy to the interests of investors within a time limit as Commission shall set;

2. convene a General Meeting and/or schedule a meeting of the management bodies or supervisory bodies of the persons subject to control thereby with an agenda set by the Commission for decision-making on the action which must be taken;

3. (amended, SG No. 61/2002) inform the public of any activities jeopardizing the interests of investors;

4. (amended, SG No. 86/2006, SG No. 62/2017) suspend, for a period not exceeding ten consecutive business days, or discontinue the sale of, or the effecting of transactions in, specified securities;

5. (repealed, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020);

6. (amended, SG No. 39/2005) order in writing a supervised person to remove one or more persons authorized to manage and represent the said person, and divest any such person or persons of the managerial and representative powers held thereby until removal;

7. appoint conservators in the cases prescribed by this Act;

8. (amended, SG No. 39/2005) appoint a registered auditor to conduct a financial or other examination or the supervised person according to requirements as established by the Deputy Chairperson; the costs of any such examination shall be for the account of the auditee;

9. (new, SG No. 39/2005, repealed, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020);

10. (new, SG No. 62/2017) suspend definitively the sale of or the conclusions of transactions involving certain securities of the public company if any of the following conditions are met:

a) for over six months the number of the members of the management or supervisory body of the company is below the minimum number prescribed by law;

b) for over one year the company cannot be found at the publicly announced registered address and address for correspondence, or by other means of communication;

c) for over one year the company does not fulfil its obligations under Article 100m;

d) for over one year the company does not fulfil its obligations under Article 115 (1);

e) the company is in winding-up proceedings, which have not been completed more than three years as of the registration of such proceedings in the commercial register.

(2) (New, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005) The revocation of a licence for conduct of business, as provided for in this Act, shall likewise qualify as a coercive administrative measure save in the cases where the person has expressly relinquished a licence as issued.

(3) (Renumbered from Paragraph 2, SG No. 61/2002) The measures referred to in Item 6 of Paragraph 1 shall not be applied in respect of any public company and any issuer of securities.

(4) (Renumbered from Paragraph 3, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, repealed, SG No. 62/2017).

(5) (Renumbered from Paragraph 4, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005, SG No. 52/2007, repealed, SG No. 62/2017).

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 61/2002, amended, SG No. 39/2005, repealed, SG No. 52/2007).

(7) (Renumbered from Paragraph 6, SG No. 61/2002, amended and supplemented, SG No. 39/2005, amended, SG No. 34/2006, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) Upon request of the commission, the Registry Agency shall enter the circumstances, respectively disclose the acts pursuant to Paragraph 1, into the Commercial Register.

(8) (New, SG No. 43/2010, repealed, SG No. 103/2012).

(9) (New, SG No. 43/2010, repealed, SG No. 103/2012).

(New, SG No. 42/2016)

(1) (Amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) When it is found that the issuer has not fulfilled its obligation to disclose to the public within the legislatively prescribed time limit the information under Article 100n, 100o, Article 100r (1), Article 100u2 and Article 111a, the Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as appropriate, may:

1. inform the public that the issuer does not comply with its obligations, as well as

2. obligate the issuer to take, within a stipulated time limit, specific measures as may be necessary for prevention and rectification of the violations, of the prejudicial consequences of the said violations or of the jeopardy to the interests of investors;

(2) (Amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018) When the Deputy Chairperson finds that a natural person or a legal entity has failed to fulfil, within the legislatively prescribed time limit, his/her/its obligation for disclosure of a participatory stake under Articles 146, 148, 148, 148a and 148g, the Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as appropriate, may:

1. inform the public that the person does not comply with its obligations;
2. impose a temporary ban on the exercise of the voting right of such persons in the General Meeting of the public company;
3. obligate any such person to take specific action as may be necessary for prevention and rectification of the violations, of the prejudicial consequences of the said violations or of the jeopardy to the interests of investors within a time limit as set by the Commission;

(3) A coercive administrative measure under Paragraph 1, Item 2 may be applied also to the management and supervisory bodies of the legal entity or to the person with managerial authority in the case of a non-personified company.

(5) (New, SG No. 62/2017, repealed, SG No. 67/2025, effective 1.01.2026).

(6) (Renumbered from Paragraph 5, SG No. 62/2017, amended, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) The Commission shall disclose on its website, as soon as possible, any coercive administrative measure imposed and any penal decree issued for violating the provisions of this Act and its implementing instruments, and shall specify at least information about the type and nature of the violation, the identity of the natural person or details about the legal entity on which the measure or the penalty is imposed. Disclosure under the first sentence shall be made after consideration of its proportionality.

(7) (New, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) In case of appeal of the decision on the imposition of the measure or the penal decree, included in the disclosure under paragraph 6 shall also be information on the appeal, and where the complaint is filed after the initial disclosure, the information disclosed shall be updated.

(8) (New, SG No. 15/2018, effective 16.02.2018) Disclosure under paragraph 6 may be postponed or made without stating any details about the person on whom the measure is imposed or the penalty is enforced, where:

1. the disclosure of personal data about the natural person on whom a penal decree is enforced is not proportionate;
2. the disclosure would seriously jeopardise the stability of financial markets or would cause disproportionate damage to the parties that this information pertains to, or would hinder the institution of criminal proceedings.

Article 212a1

(New, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020)

(1) To ensure compliance with the provisions laid down in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Chapter Six and their implementing acts, the Commission may:

1. suspend a public offer or admission of securities to trading on a regulated market for a maximum of 10 consecutive working days on any single occasion if it has reasonable grounds to believe that the relevant provisions of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Chapter Six and/or their implementing acts have been infringed;

2. prohibit or suspend advertisements or require issuers, offerors or persons asking for admission of securities to trading on a regulated market, or the respective investment firms to suspend or stop advertisements for a maximum of 10 consecutive working days on any single occasion if it has reasonable grounds to believe that the relevant provisions of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Chapter Six and/or their implementing acts have been infringed;

3. prohibit the execution of a public offer or admission of securities to trading on a regulated market, in case it has found that the relevant provisions of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Chapter Six and/or their implementing acts have been infringed, or it has reasonable grounds to believe that the relevant provisions thereof would be infringed;

4. stay or require the respective regulated markets, multilateral trading facilities or organised trading facilities to impose a stay on the trading on such regulated market, multilateral trading facility or organised trading facility for a maximum of 10 consecutive working days on any single occasion if it has reasonable grounds to believe that the relevant provisions of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Chapter Six and/or their implementing acts have been infringed;

5. prohibit trading on such regulated market, multilateral trading facility or organised trading facility, in case it has found that the relevant provisions of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Chapter Six and/or their implementing acts have been infringed;

6. stay or require the respective regulated markets, multilateral trading facilities or organised trading facilities to impose a stay on the trading in such securities, in cases in believes that the condition of the issuer is such that trading would harm the interest of investors;

7. stay or restrict the offer of securities to the public or the admission of securities to trading on a regulated market in cases where the Commission has imposed a prohibition or restriction under Article 42 of Regulation (EU) No. 600/2014, until such prohibition or restriction is lifted;

8. requires issuers to disclose all essential information which could influence the assessment of securities offered to the public or admitted to trading on a regulated market in order to protect investors or ensure the seamless functioning of the market;

9. terminate the offer to the public or trading in such securities, in case it refuses to approve a prospectus supplement in cases referred to in Article 89q(3).

(2) In case it has found that a person has infringed Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Chapter Six and/or their implementing acts, and in case the Commission's control activity is obstructed, the Commission may obligate such person to undertake specific measures necessary to prevent and/or remedy the infringement, the harmful effects thereof or the danger for investors' interest, with a time limit set by the Commission.

Article 212a2

(New, SG No. 51/2022)

(1) To ensure compliance with the provisions laid down in Regulation (EU) 2020/1503, this chapter and/or their implementing acts, the Commission may:

1. suspend a crowdfunding offer for a maximum of 10 consecutive working days on any single occasion where there are reasonable grounds for believing that Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 has been infringed;

2. prohibit or suspend marketing communications, or require a crowdfunding service provider or a third party designated to perform functions in relation to the provision of crowdfunding services to cease or suspend marketing communications, for a maximum of 10 consecutive working days on any single occasion where there are reasonable grounds for believing that Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 has been infringed;

3. prohibit a crowdfunding offer where it finds that Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 has been infringed or where there are reasonable grounds for believing that it has been infringed;

4. suspend, or require a crowdfunding service provider to suspend, the provision of crowdfunding services for a maximum of 10 consecutive working days on any single occasion where there are reasonable grounds for believing that Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 has been infringed;

5. prohibit the provision of crowdfunding services where it finds that Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 has been infringed;

6. make public the fact that a crowdfunding service provider or a third party designated to perform functions in relation to the provision of crowdfunding services is failing to comply with its obligations;

7. disclose, or require a crowdfunding service provider or a third party designated to perform functions in relation to the provision of crowdfunding services to disclose, all material information which may have an effect on the provision of the crowdfunding service in order to ensure investor protection or the smooth operation of the market;

8. suspend, or require a crowdfunding service provider or a third party designated to perform functions in relation to the provision of crowdfunding services to suspend, the provision of crowdfunding services where it considers that the crowdfunding service provider's situation is such that the provision of the crowdfunding service would be detrimental to investors' interests;

9. order the transfer of existing contracts to another crowdfunding service provider in cases where a crowdfunding service provider's authorisation is withdrawn in accordance with point (c) of the first subparagraph of Article 17(1) of Regulation (EU) 2020/1503, subject to the agreement of the clients and the receiving crowdfunding service provider;

10. prohibit a member of the management board of the legal entity responsible for the infringement, or any other natural person believed to be responsible for the infringement, to exercise management functions at crowdfunding service providers.

(2) Should it establish that a person has infringed Regulation (EU) 2020/1503, Chapter Thirteen and/or their implementing acts, and in case the Commission's control activity is obstructed, the Commission may obligate such person to undertake specific measures in order to prevent and/or remedy the infringement, the harmful effects thereof or the danger for the investors' interest, within a time limit set by the Commission.

(3) Should it establish that a credit institution providing crowdfunding services carries on the business thereof in violation of Regulation (EU) 2020/1503, Chapter Thirteen and/or their implementing acts the Commission may apply the measures under Paragraphs 1 and 2. The Commission shall notify the Bulgarian National Bank of the application of a measure against a credit institution providing crowdfunding services.

(4) The Commission may propose to the Bulgarian National Bank to withdraw a credit institution's authorisation to pursue business as a crowdfunding service provider, if the relevant entity systematically infringes the provisions of Regulation (EU) No. 2020/1503, Chapter Thirteen and/or their implementing acts. The Bulgarian National Bank shall notify the Commission of its decision within one month from receipt of the Commission's proposal.

Article 212a3

(New, SG No. 54/2025)

(1) In order to ensure compliance with Regulation (EU) 2022/2554 or its implementing acts:

1. the Deputy Chairperson may apply the measure set out in Article 212, Paragraph (1), item 1;
2. the Commission may impose the measure referred to in Article 50(4)(e) of said Regulation.

(2) When imposing the administrative measure under Paragraph (1), the Deputy Chairperson and the Commission shall take into account the circumstances under Article 51(2) of Regulation (EU) 2022/2554.

Article 212a4

(New, SG No. 67/2025)

1. direct the responsible natural or legal person to take, within a specified time limit, specific measures as may be necessary for the prevention and rectification of the violations, of the prejudicial consequences of the said violations or of the jeopardy to the interests of investors;
2. require issuers to publish the European Green Bond factsheets referred to in Article 10 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631 or include in the said factsheets the information referred to in Annex I to the said Regulation;
3. require issuers of European Green Bonds to publish the reviews and assessments carried out by an external reviewer;
4. require issuers of European Green Bonds to publish annual allocation reports or include in the said annual allocation reports the information referred to in Annex II to Regulation (EU) 2023/2631;
5. require issuers of European Green Bonds to publish an impact report or include in the said impact report the information referred to in Annex III to Regulation (EU) 2023/2631;
6. require issuers of European Green Bonds to notify the Commission of the publication in accordance with Article 15(4) of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631;
7. require issuers to include the elements referred to in Article 21 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631 in the periodic post-issuance disclosures of the said issuers;
8. make public the fact that an issuer of bonds marketed as environmentally sustainable within the meaning given by Article 2, point 5 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631, or of sustainability-linked bonds within the meaning given by Article 2, point 6 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631, fails to comply with the provisions of Article 21 of the said Regulation, and require the said issuer to publish that information on the website thereof;
9. require auditors and the management body of the issuer to provide relevant information and documents;
10. suspend an offer or admission to trading on a regulated market of European Green Bonds for a maximum of 10 consecutive business days on any single occasion if the Commission or, respectively, the Deputy Chairperson, has reasonable cause to believe that the issuer of European Green Bonds has failed to comply with an obligation under Articles 10 to 15, 18 or 19 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631;
11. prohibit an offer or admission to trading on a regulated market of European Green

Bonds if the Commission or, respectively, the Deputy Chairperson, has reasonable cause to believe that the issuer continues to fail to comply with an obligation according to Articles 10 to 15, 18 or 19 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631;

12. suspend advertisements for a maximum of 10 consecutive business days, or require issuers of European Green Bonds or financial intermediaries concerned to suspend advertisements for a maximum of 10 consecutive business days on any single occasion if the Commission or, respectively, the Deputy Chairperson, has reasonable cause to believe that the issuer has failed to comply with an obligation according to Articles 10 to 15, 18 or 19 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631;

13. prohibit advertisements, or require issuers of European Green Bonds or financial intermediaries concerned to cease advertisements if the Commission or, respectively, the Deputy Chairperson, has reasonable cause to believe that the issuer continues to fail to comply with an obligation according to Articles 10 to 15, 18 or 19 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631;

14. make public the fact that an issuer of European Green Bonds fails to comply with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631, indicating the type of the violation and particulars of the natural or legal person responsible for the violation, and require that issuer to publish that information on the website thereof;

15. prohibit an issuer from issuing European Green Bonds for a period not exceeding one year in the event that the said issuer has violated Articles 10 to 15, 18 or 19 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631;

16. following a three-month period after the requirement referred to in Item 13, make public the fact that the issuer of European Green Bonds no longer complies with Article 3 of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631 as regards the use of the designation "European Green Bond" or "EuGB", and require that issuer to publish that information on the website thereof.

Article 212b

(1) (New, SG No. 42/2016, amended, SG No. 95/2017, effective 1.01.2018, previous text of Article 212b, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) When applying administrative measures under Article 212a, Paragraph 1, Item 2 and Paragraph 2, Items 2 and 3, the Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as appropriate, shall take into account all the circumstances of any importance, including those specified in Article 222a, where applicable.

(2) (New, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) When applying administrative measures under Article 212a1, the Commission shall take into account all circumstances listed in Article 39(1) of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129.

(1) The Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as the case may be, shall disclose on the Commission's website any coercive administrative measure imposed and any penal decree issued for violating the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, Chapter Six, and any of their implementing acts, applying the procedure set out in, and in accordance with, Article 42 of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129.

(2) The Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as the case may be, having assessed on a case-by-case basis whether the disclosure of personal data, in the case of a natural person, or identification details, in the case of a legal entity, is disproportionate and/or might cause him/it any harm that does not correspond to the violation committed and whether the publication of the information could put into jeopardy the stability of the financial markets or prevent an investigation, may:

1. defer disclosure of the information referred to in Paragraph 1;
2. disclose the information referred to in Paragraph 1 without data about the person to whom/which the measure has been imposed, where such an anonymized disclosure ensures effective protection for the respective personal data;
3. not publish the information referred to in Paragraph 1.

(3) (Amended, SG No. 51/2022) The Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as the case may be, shall make a decision under Paragraph 2, Item 3 where the measures referred to in Paragraph 2, Item 1 or 2 are not sufficient to ensure that in case the information referred to in Paragraph 1 is disclosed, the stability of financial markets would not be put into jeopardy, or where publishing is unproportionate in respect of the coercive administrative measures, which are of a minor nature.

(4) When the grounds referred to in Paragraph 2, items 1 and 2 cease to apply, the Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, respectively, shall fully disclose the information referred to in Paragraph 1.

Article 224

(New, SG No. 51/2022)

(1) The Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as the case may be, shall disclose on the Commission's website any coercive administrative measure imposed and any penal decree issued for violating the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2020/1503, Chapter Thirteen and their implementing acts, subject to compliance with Article 42 of Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 and Article 223, Paragraphs 2 and 4.

(2) (New, SG No. 67/2025) The Commission or, respectively, the Deputy Chairperson, shall make public on the website of the Commission any coercive administrative measure as applied and any penalty decree as issued for a violation of the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2023/2631 and the implementing acts thereof subject to Article 52 of the said Regulation and Article 223 (2) and (4) herein.

(3) (Renumbered from Paragraph (2), SG No. 67/2025) The Commission or the Deputy Chairperson, as the case may be, shall make a decision under Article 223, Paragraph 2, Item 3 where the measures referred to in Article 223, Paragraph 2, Item 1 or 2 are not sufficient to ensure that the publication is proportionate to the coercive administrative measures applied or the administrative penalties imposed, which are of a minor nature.

Article 225

(New, SG No. 54/2025)

The Deputy Chairperson shall publish on the Commission's website any administrative penalty imposed for violation of the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2022/2554, subject to Article 54 of said Regulation.

13. (New, SG No. 26/2020) Directive (EU) 2017/828 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 17 May 2017 amending Directive 2007/36/EC as regards the encouragement of long-term shareholder engagement (OJ L 132/1 of 20.5.2017).

(2) (New, SG No. 83/2019, effective 20.08.2020 - amended, SG No. 28/2020, effective 13.03.2020, SG No. 64/2020, effective 18.07.2020; amended, SG No. 64/2020, effective 21.08.2020) This Act provides measures for the implementation of:

1. Regulation (EU) No. 909/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 July 2014 on improving securities settlement in the European Union and on central securities depositories and amending Directives 98/26/EC and 2014/65/EU and Regulation (EU) No. 236/2012 (OJ L 257/1 of 28 August 2014);

2. Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2017 on the prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading on a regulated market, and repealing Directive 2003/71/EC (OJ L 168/12 of 30 June 2017).

3. (New, SG No. 51/2022) Regulation (EU) 2020/1503 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 7 October 2020 on European crowdfunding service providers for business, and amending Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 and Directive (EU) 2019/1937 (OJ, L 347/1 of 20 October 2020).

4. (New, SG No. 54/2025) Regulation (EU) 2022/2554 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 December 2022 on digital operational resilience for the financial sector and amending Regulations (EC) No. 1060/2009, (EU) No. 648/2012, (EU) No. 600/2014, (EU) No. 909/2014 and (EU) 2016/1011 (OJ, L 333/1 of 27 December 2022).

5. (New, SG No. 67/2025) Regulation (EU) 2023/2631 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 November 2023 on European Green Bonds and optional disclosures for bonds marketed as environmentally sustainable and for sustainability-linked bonds (OJ L 2023/2631 of 30 November 2023).

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

§ 2. This Act shall supersede the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act (promulgated in the State Gazette No. 63 of 1995; amended in Nos. 68 and 85 of 1996, Nos. 52 and 94 of 1997, Nos. 42, 52 and 127 of 1998, SG No. 29 of 1999).

§ 3. (1) Any statutory instruments adopted by the Council of Ministers for the application of the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act as hereby superseded shall continue in effect insofar as the said instruments do not conflict this Act.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 61/2002, repealed, SG No. 59/2006).

§ 4. Upon the entry of this Act into force, the Securities and Stock Exchanges Commission established under Article 5 of the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act as hereby superseded shall be renamed Bulgarian National Securities Commission. The Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson and the members of the Securities and Stock Exchanges Commission shall retain the powers thereof until the expiration of the term of office wherefor they have been elected.

§ 5. (1) Any authorizations, approvals and endorsements granted according to the procedure established by the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act as hereby superseded shall continue in effect, and the persons who or which have been granted such authorizations, approvals and endorsements, as well as the banks which have been granted authorization to effect the transactions referred to in Item 4 of Article 1 (2) of the Banking Act, shall be obligated to bring the organization and operation thereof into conformity with the requirements of this Act within three months after the entry of the said Act into force.

(2) Any person, which has been granted authorization to carry on business under Item 2 of Article 129 (1) of the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act as hereby superseded and under Item 7 of Article 1(2) of the Banking Act since the entry into force of the provision of Article 168 (1) of this Act, shall discontinue the performance of such activities.

(3) Any investment companies, whereinto the privatization funds have reorganized the business thereof, shall be obligated to bring the assets thereof into conformity with the requirements of Articles 195 and 196 or Article 201 herein, as the case may be, within one year after the entry of this Act into force.

(4) Any existing investment companies shall bring the capital thereof into conformity with the minimum amount under Article 166 (1) or (2) herein within one year after the entry of this Act into force.

(5) (Effective 30.12.1999) Any companies, wherein the shares were traded on the official market of the stock exchange without a prospectus in pursuance of § 2a (of the Transitional and Final Provisions) of the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act as hereby superseded, may be traded without a prospectus under Article 102 (3) herein until the lapse of six months after the entry of this Act into force.

§ 6. Any proceedings for the grant of authorizations, approvals and endorsements commenced according to the procedure established by the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act as hereby superseded shall continue according to the procedure established by this Act. The Deputy Chairperson in charge of the Investment Activity Supervision Department shall give the parties concerned grace to bring the organization and operation thereof into conformity with the provisions of this Act.

§ 7. (1) Any company covered under Article 83a (1) of the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act as hereby superseded shall be a public company until expungement thereof in the register of the Deputy Chairperson in charge of the Investment Activity Supervision Department according to the procedure established by Article 119 of this Act.

(2) Any company covered under Item 2 of Article 83a (1) of the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act as hereby superseded, which has not registered at the Deputy Chairperson in charge of the Investment Activity Supervision Department upon the entry of this Act into force, shall be obligated to submit an application completed in a standard form as prepared by the said Deputy Chairperson for registration as a public company within fourteen days after the entry of this Act into force. The said registration shall be effected under the terms and according to the procedure established by this Act.

§ 8. Until the grant of authorization by the Deputy Chairperson in charge of the Investment Activity Supervision Department under Article 46 herein, any securities which have not been admitted to the official market of a stock exchange shall be traded only on a stock exchange under the terms and according to the procedure established by the Rules and Regulations of the said exchange. In such a case, Article 44 (4) herein shall not apply.

§ 9. Any existing non-public company, which has issued dematerialized securities, shall be obligated to register the said securities at the Central Depository or to make a decision on conversion of the said securities into physical securities within three months after the entry of this Act into force.

§ 10. (1) The provisions of this Act regarding the public offering of, and trading in, securities shall not apply in respect of:

1. (amended, SG No. 28/2002, SG No. 61/2002) sale of any shares in the cases of privatization, save as where the sale is effected on a stock exchange or under terms of tender offering;

2. sale of any shares indirectly held by the State through the Bank Consolidation Company PLC of Sofia, or through any holding company which is controlled by the State, save where the said sale is effected on a regulated securities market.

(2) (Amended, SG No. 28/2002, SG No. 61/2002) In respect of the buyers of shares under privatization transactions and under transactions with the Bank Consolidation Company PLC, an obligation under Article 149 (1) herein shall not attach if they exceed the threshold of 50 per cent of the votes in the General Meeting of any public company, nor shall an obligation attach under Article 149 (6) herein if they exceed the threshold of two-thirds of the votes as a result of any such transaction. The exemption referred to in the first sentence shall not apply if the transaction has been concluded on a stock exchange.

(3) Article 113 herein shall not apply in the cases where a contract for privatization predating the entry of this Act into force expressly provides for an increase of capital of the company according to the procedure established by Article 195 of the Commerce Act in favour of the purchaser under the said contract. In such cases, the company shall notify the Deputy Chairperson in charge of the Investment Activity Supervision Department and the regulated securities market whereon shares issued thereby have been admitted for trading of the existence of such a contract within fourteen days after the entry of this Act into force.

(4) (Repealed, SG No. 28/2002).

(5) (Amended, SG No. 28/2002, supplemented, SG No. 61/2002) Any share issues which are subject to sale in whole or in part by a decision made according to the procedure established by Article 32 (1) of the Privatization and Post-privatization Control Act, shall be dematerialized and sentence two of Article 185 (2) of the Commerce Act shall not apply thereto, obviating the need to record the alterations in the Articles of Association of the companies. The General Meeting of any company which has ceased to be public may resolve on conversion of the shares in the said company into physical securities and on inclusion of terms for the transfer of the said shares into the Articles of Association.

(6) (New, SG No. 61/2002) The restrictions under Article 111 (4) herein regarding the issuance of preference shares by a public company shall not apply in the cases of privatization of companies of national importance, where the preference shares are held by the State.

§ 10a. (New, SG No. 31/2003) (1) In the cases of privatization according to the procedure established by Item 1 of Article 32 (1) of the Privatization and Post-privatization Control Act of a state-owned participating interest not exceeding 50 per cent of the capital, a tender offering can be made according to the procedure established by Article 149a herein, inter alia, where the offeror holds less than 90 per cent but not less than two-thirds of the votes in the General Meeting of the company, and the majority required under Item 3 of Article 119 (1) herein shall be three-quarters.

(2) A trade offering under Paragraph 1 may not be made prior to the lapse of twelve months after conclusion of the sale.

§ 10b. (New, SG No. 52/2007, effective 3.07.2007) (1) Where at the date of entry into force of Article 157c the voting shares of the offeree company, in accordance with Article 157c, Paragraph 4, have been admitted to trading simultaneously on a regulated market in the Republic of Bulgaria and in another Member State, the Commission and the competent authority of that Member State shall determine jointly who will exercise supervision of the tender offering within 4 weeks from its entry into force. If the competent authorities of the Member States fail to specify who of them shall exercise supervision of the tender offering the offeree company shall determine the authority on the first day of trading following the expiry of the time limit under the first sentence.

(2) The Commission shall make public the decision under Paragraph 1, determining it to exercise supervision of the tender offering § 11. (Amended, SG No. 8/2003) Any person who holds an office referred to in Article 133 (2) herein upon the entry of this Act into force shall sign the respective declarations within fourteen days after the entry of this Act into force.

§ 12. The Banking Act (promulgated in the State Gazette No. 52 of 1997; amended in Nos. 15, 21, 52, 70 and 89 of 1998, Nos. 54 and 103 of 1999) shall be amended as follows:

1. In Paragraph 2 of Article 1:

(a) Item 4 shall be amended to read as follows:

"4. transactions covered under Article 54 (1) of the Public Offering of Securities Act."

(b) Item 7 shall be repealed.

2. In Article 1, Item 6 of Paragraph 5 shall be amended to read as follows:

"6. transactions covered under Article 54 (1) of the Public Offering of Securities Act;"

3. Article 16 shall be amended as follows:

(a) in Paragraph 3 the words "and 7" shall be deleted, and the words "the Securities, Stock Exchanges and Investment Companies Act" shall be replaced by "the Public Offering of Securities Act";

(b) there shall be added the following new paragraph:

"(4) Prior to pronouncing on any application for effecting of transactions covered under Item 4 of Article 1 (2) herein, the Central Bank shall take into consideration the observations in writing of the Bulgarian National Securities Commission, should the said observations be presented within one month after being requested in writing from the Commission by the Central Bank."

§ 13. The Commerce Act (promulgated in the State Gazette No. 48 of 1991; amended and supplemented in Nos. 25 of 1992, Nos. 61 and 103 of 1993, SG No. 63 of 1994, SG No. 63 of 1995, Nos. 42, 59, 83, 86 and 104 of 1996, Nos. 58, 100 and 124 of 1997, Nos. 52 and 70 of 1998, Nos. 33, 42, 64, 81, 90 and 103 of 1999) shall be amended as follows:

1. In Article 119, there shall be added the following new paragraph:

"(3) A requisite authorization shall have to be presented for recording in the Commercial Register of the conduct of business of any investment intermediary, as well as of any other business whereof the conduct is subject to authorization by a state body as required by a separate statute."

2. In Article 174, there shall be added the following new paragraph:

"(3) A requisite authorization shall have to be presented for recording in the Commercial Register of the conduct of banking and insurance business, business of a stock exchange, investment intermediary, management company and any other business whereof the conduct is subject to authorization by a state body as required by a separate statute."

3. In Article 187a, Paragraph 3 shall be repealed.

4. Article 187b shall be amended to read as follows:

"Dematerialized Shares

Article 187b

Any joint-stock company may furthermore issue shares which are not represented by share certificates. The issuing and disposition of dematerialized shares shall be effected according to a procedure established by statute."

5. In Article 192, there shall be added the following new paragraph:

"(7) An approval of a prospectus shall have to be presented for recording of any increase of capital by subscription, save in the cases where no such prospectus is required by the law."

6. In Article 204, Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be amended to read as follows:

"(1) No joint-stock company may issue bonds earlier than two years after the recording thereof in the Commercial Register and unless two Annual Financial Statements have been approved by the General Meeting.

(2) The requirement under Paragraph 1 shall not apply to any bonds issued or guaranteed by banks or by the State."

§ 14. In Paragraph 2 of Article 32 of the Administrative Violations and Sanctions Act (promulgated in the State Gazette No. 92 of 1969; amended and supplemented in No. 54 of 1978, SG No. 28 of 1982, Nos. 28 and 101 of 1983, SG No. 89 of 1986, SG No. 24 of 1987, SG No. 94 of 1990, SG No. 105 of 1991, SG No. 59 of 1992, SG No. 102 of 1995, Nos. 12 and 110 of 1996, Nos. 11, 15, 59, 85 and 89 of 1998, Nos. 51 and 67 of 1999), after the word "legislation" there shall be inserted "or regarding the application of the Public Offering of Securities Act".
