The Board of Directors (the "Directors") of Vanguard Funds plc (the "Company") listed in the prospectus of the Company (the "Prospectus") under the heading "The Directors" jointly accept responsibility for the information in the Prospectus and in this supplemental prospectus ("Supplement"). To the best of the knowledge and belief of the Directors (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information in the Prospectus and this Supplement accords with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information. The Directors accept responsibility accordingly.

Capitalised terms used and not defined in this Supplement shall have the meaning given to them in the Prospectus.

VANGUARD ESG DEVELOPED EUROPE ALL CAP UCITS ETF

(a Fund of Vanguard Funds plc, an open-ended investment company with variable capital structured as an umbrella fund with segregated liability between Funds)

SUPPLEMENT DATED ~~4 SEPTEMBER~~15 OCTOBER 2026
TO THE PROSPECTUS FOR VANGUARD FUNDS PLC DATED ~~4 SEPTEMBER~~15 OCTOBER 2026

This Supplement forms part of, and should be read in the context of, and together with, the Company's Prospectus dated ~~4 September~~15 October 2026. Investors should also refer to the Company's latest published annual reports and audited financial statements and, if published after such report, a copy of the latest semi-annual report and unaudited financial statements.

An investment in the Fund should be viewed as medium to long term.

If you are in any doubt about the action to be taken or the contents of this supplement, please consult your stockbroker, bank manager, lawyer, accountant or other independent professional adviser.

Benchmark Index

FTSE Developed Europe All Cap Choice Index (the "Index").

Investment Objective

This Fund seeks to track the performance of the Index.

Primary Investment Strategies

The Fund employs a "passive management" – or indexing – investment approach, through physical acquisition of securities, designed to track the performance of the Index. The Fund will invest in a portfolio of equity securities of companies located in developed markets in Europe.

To the extent practicable, the Fund uses a full replication strategy to select securities, so that the Fund invests in all, or substantially all, of the constituents of the Index, making the weight of such investments approximate to those of the Index. By holding each stock in approximately the same proportion as its weighting in the Index, the Fund may have exposure to or invest up to 20% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund in stocks issued by the same body. This limit may be raised to 35% for a single issuer in exceptional market conditions which may include the dominance of a particular issuer in the relevant market. When not practicable to fully replicate, the Fund may use a sampling process to invest in a portfolio of securities that consists of a representative sample of the component securities of the Index. Under normal circumstances, the Fund is expected to maintain broad risk characteristics consistent with that of the Index. See the "The Funds" section of the Prospectus for further information, in particular in relation to optimisation and sampling techniques that may be used in tracking the performance of the Index.

The Index is a market-capitalisation-weighted index composed of large-, mid-, and small-cap stocks of companies located in developed markets in Europe. Market-capitalisation is the value of a company's outstanding shares in the market and shows the size of a company. The Index is constructed from the FTSE Developed Europe All Cap Index (the "Parent Index") which is then screened for certain environmental, social, and governance (i.e. controversy-related) criteria by the Index provider, which is independent of Vanguard.

Screening Criteria

The Index methodology excludes stocks of companies that the Index provider determines (a) to be engaged or involved in specific activities of the supply chain for, and / or (b) derive revenue (above a threshold specified by the Index provider) from certain activities relating to the following: (a) Vice Products (adult entertainment, alcohol, gambling, tobacco, cannabis); (b) Non-Renewable Energy (nuclear power and fossil fuels (which includes (i) companies that have greater than 50% ownership of companies that own proved or probable reserves in coal, oil or gas, (ii) oil and gas production and supporting services, (iii) coal extraction, production and supporting services, (iv) oil and gas and thermal coal power generation, (v) extraction of arctic oil and gas and (vi) extraction of oil sands)); and (c) Weapons (chemical & biological weapons, cluster munitions, anti-personnel landmines, nuclear weapons, civilian firearms, and conventional military weapons).

The Index provider defines what constitutes "involvement" in each activity. This may be based on percentage of revenue or any connection to a restricted activity regardless of the amount of revenue received, and will relate to specific parts of the supply chain. Details regarding what constitutes "involvement" for each activity and/or the revenue thresholds applied can be found in Appendix A (Product-related exclusions) of the FTSE ground rules document found at the links below under the heading "Further information on the Index". Additional details regarding the rules applied by the Index provider, including treatment of company ownership structures, can be found in the documents which are linked to in the ground rules document.

The Index methodology also excludes stocks of companies based on certain controversial conduct, which is achieved by excluding companies that meet the following criteria in relation to the United Nations Global Compact Principles regarding labour, human rights, environmental, and anti-corruption standards:

- for large and mid-cap sized companies (as determined by the Index provider), those which have been deemed 'Non-Compliant' (determined to be causing or contributing (or directly linked) to severe or systemic and/or systematic violations of international norms) with such standards; and

- for small-cap size companies (as determined by the Index provider), those which have been deemed either 'Watchlist' (determined to be at risk of causing or contributing (or directly linked) to severe or systemic and/or systematic violations of international norms and standards) or 'Non-Compliant' with such standards, in each case by reference to data provided by a third party data provider (further details of which may be obtained in the documents linked to in the 'Further information on the Index' section below). The third party data which is utilized by the Index provider considers a number of norms and standards including those that are enshrined in the UN Global Compact and the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development ("OECD") Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises.

The Index also excludes companies specifically on the USA's Department of Homeland Security's Uyghur Forced Labor Prevention Act Entity List.

Where the Index provider has insufficient or no data available to adequately assess a particular company relative to the screening criteria of the Index, stocks of such company will be excluded from the Index until such time as they may be determined to be eligible by the Index provider.

The Index rebalances on a quarterly basis. For potential cost impacts of rebalancing, please see the section of the Prospectus headed "Index rebalancing and costs".

The Fund's investments will, at the time of purchase, comply with the screening criteria set out above, except as otherwise described below under the heading "Other Investment Strategies". An investment which complied with the screening criteria of the Index at time of purchase may no longer meet the screening criteria, for example where new and / or updated data becomes available to the Index provider. Therefore, the Fund may temporarily hold securities which do not adhere to the screening criteria of the Index until such time as the relevant securities cease to form part of the Index and it is possible and practicable (in the Investment Manager's view) to liquidate the position.

Further information on the Index

Further information provided by the Index provider in relation to the Index, including current details as to its composition, methodology, product and conduct-related exclusions, the supply chain involvement for exclusions and any revenue thresholds for exclusions, can be obtained at https://www.ftserussell.com/products/ and https://www.ftserussell.com/analytics/.

Promotion of Environmental and / or Social Characteristics

The Fund promotes the reduction of environmental harm by excluding investments in companies based on certain fossil fuel related activities. In addition, the Fund promotes human rights, labour rights and anti-corruption as set out in the principles of the UN Global Compact as well as avoiding the financing of controversial weapons. For details in respect of these environmental and / or social characteristics are promoted by the Fund and other related sustainable finance information, please see the relevant information outlined in Appendix 2 of this Supplement.

Other Investment Strategies

The screening criteria described in the section headed Primary Investment Strategies are applied only to securities in the Index.

The Fund may also invest on an ancillary basis in exchange-traded and over-the counter ("OTC") financial derivative instruments ("FDI"), provided that any such investment will be undertaken for efficient portfolio management and / or hedging purposes only, as appropriate, and in accordance with Appendix 4 of the Prospectus and the requirements of the Central Bank. Investments in OTC FDI shall be with UCITS-eligible counterparties that have been selected taking into account considerations including best execution and the extent of any counterparty risk exposure applying to the Fund at the time of investment.

Specifically, the Fund may invest in warrants, swap agreements (including total return swaps as further detailed below) and equity-linked notes which may be used to gain exposure to the constituents of the Index or to the performance of the Index itself, to reduce transaction costs or taxes, minimise tracking error, or to enable the Fund to gain exposure to illiquid stocks or stocks which are unavailable to the Fund for direct investment due to market or regulatory reasons. The Fund may invest in exchange traded futures and options contracts (typically equity index and foreign currency) to manage cash flows on a short-term basis and to achieve cost efficiencies, for example, to obtain exposure to components of the Index where it is not practicable to invest directly in each individual component. Investors should note that FDI's on an index (e.g. swaps, futures) may contain some underlying constituents which may not adhere to the relevant screening criteria applied by the Index. The Fund may also invest in currency forwards, (including non-deliverable forward foreign exchange contracts) and interest rate futures to protect against currency fluctuation and may invest in depository receipts including ADRs and GDRs to gain exposure to the constituents of the Index. The use of future contracts ensures the Fund remains 100% invested while allowing for cash to be used for efficient portfolio management purposes (e.g. rebalancing and equitising dividend income).

For the purpose of efficient portfolio management, in tracking the Index and within the limits and conditions specified in the Prospectus, the Fund may utilise total return swaps which manage exposures to certain individual securities, a basket of securities, or securities indices, for example in circumstances where local market, regulatory or other factors might prevent a direct holding, to reduce transaction costs or taxes, to allow exposure in the case of illiquid stocks or to minimize tracking error. For example, total return swaps can be used as an alternative means to obtain economic exposure to a security if the Fund is required to limit its investment in a particular issuer or industry, including in the context of management of exposure levels to certain securities by the Vanguard Group globally. The Fund will not use total return swaps to gain exposure outside of the Index.

See Appendix 4 of the Prospectus for further details on the FDI that the Fund will use. The Fund will not use FDI for investment purposes, and only a limited percentage of its assets may be committed to FDI usage at any time. The Fund may also engage in securities lending transactions for efficient portfolio management purposes. In this regard, the Fund may receive collateral which may not adhere to the relevant screening criteria applied by the Index. See Appendix 4 of the Prospectus for information on leverage and the calculation of global exposure.

The Fund may invest in foreign exchange spots. A foreign exchange spot trade involves the purchase or sale of a foreign currency and typically settles in the region of two business days after the trade date.

In addition, in tracking the Index, the Fund may, in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank, invest in other Funds of the Company and other collective investment undertakings including exchange traded funds and undertakings linked by common management or control to each other or to the Company. See Appendix 3 of the Prospectus for information on investment in collective investment schemes, including other funds of the Company.

While the Fund attempts to be fully invested each day, the Fund may also invest in short-term, high quality money market instruments (including government securities, bank certificates of deposits or engage in overnight repurchase agreements) and/or money market funds for cash management purposes.

Temporary Investment Measures

The Fund may temporarily depart from the investment strategies set out above in response to the Investment Manager's perception of extraordinary market, political or similar conditions. During these periods, and for as long as and to the extent deemed necessary by the Investment Manager in the best interests of Shareholders, the Fund may increase its holdings of cash and ancillary liquid assets. In doing so, the Fund may succeed in avoiding losses, but may otherwise fail to achieve its investment objective.

Tracking Error

It is anticipated that, under normal market circumstances, the annualised ex-post Tracking Error of the Fund, will be up to 0.30%. While it is anticipated that the ex-post Tracking Error of the Fund under normal circumstances will not vary significantly from this level, there is no guarantee that this level of Tracking Error of the Fund will be realised and none of the Company, the Manager or the Investment Manager or any of their affiliates will be liable for any discrepancies between the anticipated Tracking Error and the level of Tracking Error subsequently observed. The annual report of the Company will provide an explanation of any divergence between anticipated and realised Tracking Error for the relevant period. Please refer to the section of the Prospectus headed "Plain Talk about Excess Return and Tracking Error" for further information on Tracking Error.

Portfolio Information

Vanguard delivers a daily pricing file to Authorised Participants and market makers. This file contains a basket of securities that very closely mirror the risk exposures of the Fund holdings and ensures that Authorised Participants and market makers will be able to accurately predict the Fund closing NAV, which ensures an effective arbitrage mechanism.

Further information on the Fund's portfolio can be found at https://fund-docs.vanguard.com/portfolio-holdings-disclosure-policy.pdf, including details of the periodic disclosure of full holdings.

Primary Risks

Please refer to the section of the Prospectus entitled "Risk Factors" for information in relation to the risks applicable to an investment in the Company, including any investment in the Fund, in particular the risk factors entitled "Sustainability Risk", "Stock Market Risk", "Index Risks", "Index Tracking Risk", "Index Accuracy Risk", "Index Unscheduled Rebalancing Risk", "Index Sampling Risks", "Currency Risk" and "Ownership Limit Risk".

Currency Hedging Policy

FDI will be used for currency hedging purposes for classes denominated in currencies other than the Base Currency of the Fund. Please see the section of the Prospectus headed "Currency Hedging at Share Class Level" for further details.

ETF Class OCF (Hedged)	0.15% of NAV
Cash Creation Fee	Maximum of 2.00% of gross subscription amount
Cash Redemption Fee	Maximum of 2.00% of gross redemption proceeds (i.e. the NAV per Share multiplied by the number of Shares being redeemed)
Custody Transaction Fee and Basket Customisation Fee	The aggregate of these charges will not exceed 2.00% of gross subscription amount/gross redemption proceeds (i.e. the NAV per Share multiplied by the number of Shares being redeemed) ***

* The Authorised Participant will also be responsible for paying applicable trading charges related to stamp duty and other duties.

 The Company reserves the right to permit or require the substitution of an amount of cash – referred to as "cash-in-lieu" – to be added to the Cash Component to replace any Deposit Securities that may not be available in sufficient quantity for delivery, may not be eligible for transfer, may not be eligible for trading by an Authorised Participant or in the event that in-kind trading is not permissible in particular countries or markets or to replace any Redemption Security which may not be eligible for transfer, may not be eligible for trading by an Authorised Participant or in the event that in-kind trading is not permissible in particular countries or markets. Trading costs incurred by the Fund in connection with the purchase of Deposit Securities with cash-in-lieu amounts will be borne by the relevant Shareholder, through the application of a Basket Customisation Fee (representing the estimated cost of acquisition of the relevant Deposit Securities to the Fund by the cash-in-lieu amount, otherwise than in respect of "Settlement – Cash (Directed)"), to protect existing Shareholders from this expense. See the "Risk Factors" section of the Prospectus for further information on the basket customisation fee.

 Details of the current charges are available from the Investment Manager.

Dividend Distribution Policy

Dividends on the Fund's Distributing Shares will be paid on a quarterly basis. Please see the section of the Prospectus headed "Dividend Distribution Policy" for further details.

The Directors do not intend to declare a dividend on the Fund's Accumulating Shares. Any income attributable to such Accumulating Shares is reflected in the Fund's Net Asset Value per Accumulating Share.

What environmental and/or social characteristics are promoted by this financial product?

The Fund promotes the following environmental characteristics:

- reduction of environmental harm by excluding investments in companies based on certain fossil fuel related activities.

The Fund also promotes the following social characteristics relating to social norms and standards:

- human rights, labour rights and anti-corruption as set out in the principles of the UN Global Compact; and
- avoiding the financing of controversial weapons, including nuclear weapons.

The Fund promotes these environmental characteristics through the screening out of stocks of companies from its portfolio based on the potentially detrimental impact of their conduct or products on society and / or the environment.

The Fund is passively managed and promotes the above-mentioned characteristics by tracking the Developed Europe All Cap Choice Index (the "Index"), which is a designated reference benchmark for the purpose of attaining the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund.

The Index methodology excludes stocks of companies that the Index provider determines to (a) be engaged or involved in specific parts of the supply chain for, and / or (b) derive revenue (above a threshold specified by the Index provider) from, certain activities relating to the following:

(a) vice Products (adult entertainment, alcohol, gambling, tobacco, cannabis);
(b) non-Renewable Energy (nuclear power and fossil fuels (which includes (i) companies that have greater than 50% ownership of companies that own proved or probable reserves in coal, oil or gas,

(ii) oil and gas production and supporting services, (iii) coal extraction, production and supporting services, (iv) oil and gas and thermal coal power generation, (v) extraction of arctic oil and gas and (vi) oil sands)); and

(c) weapons (chemical & biological weapons, cluster munitions, anti-personnel landmines, nuclear weapons, civilian firearms, and conventional military weapons).

The Index provider defines what constitutes "involvement" in each activity. This may be based on percentage of revenue or any connection to a restricted activity regardless of the amount of revenue received, and will relate to specific parts of the supply chain. Details regarding what constitutes "involvement" for each activity and/or the revenue thresholds applied can be found in Appendix A (Product-related exclusions) of the FTSE ground rules document found at the links below under the heading 'Where can the methodology used for the calculation of the designated index be found?'. Additional details regarding the rules applied by the Index provider, including treatment of company ownership structures, can be found in the documents which are linked to in the ground rules document.

The Index methodology also excludes companies based on certain controversial conduct, which is achieved by excluding companies that meet the following criteria in relation to the United Nations Global Compact Principles regarding labour, human rights, environmental, and anticorruption standards:

- for large and mid-cap sized companies (as determined by the Index provider), those which have been deemed 'Non-Compliant' with such standards; and
- for small-cap size companies (as determined by the Index provider), those which have been deemed either 'Watchlist' or 'Non-Compliant' with such standards, in each case by reference to data provided by a third party data provider (further details of which may be obtained in the documents linked to in the 'Further information on the Index' section above).

The Index also excludes companies specifically on the USA's Department of Homeland Security's Uyghur Forced Labor Prevention Act Entity List.

Sustainability indicators measure how the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product are attained.

What sustainability indicators are used to measure the attainment of each of the environmental or social characteristics promoted by this financial product?

The Investment Manager will measure the attainment of the environmental and social characteristics by assessing the extent to which the exclusion criteria described above have been applied and measuring the proportion of the portfolio excluded from the Parent Index (being the FTSE Developed Europe All Cap Index). Further information on the exclusion criteria and how they are applied can be found on the website hyperlinked at the end of this disclosure annex.

What are the objectives of the sustainable investments that the financial product partially intends to make and how does the sustainable investment contribute to such objectives?

While the Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics, it does not commit to making sustainable investments.

How do the sustainable investments that the financial product partially intends to make, not cause significant harm to any environmental or social sustainable investment objective?

Not applicable.

How have the indicators for adverse impacts on sustainability factors been taken into account?

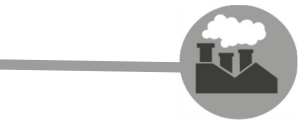

Not applicable.

How are the sustainable investments aligned with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights? Details:

Not applicable.

The EU Taxonomy sets out a "do not significantly harm" principle by which Taxonomy-aligned investments should not significantly harm EU Taxonomy objectives and is accompanied by specific EU criteria.

The "do not significantly harm" principle applies only to those investments underlying the financial product that take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities. The investments underlying the remaining portion of this financial product do not take into account the EU criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities.

Does this financial product consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors?

Principal adverse impacts are the most significant negative impacts of investment decisions on sustainability factors relating to environmental, social and employee matters, respect for human rights, anti-corruption and anti-bribery matters.

X Yes, the Fund does consider principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors.

By excluding stocks of companies that the Index provider determines (a) to be engaged or involved in specific parts of the supply chain for, and / or (b) derive revenue (above a threshold specified by the Index provider) from certain activities relating to non-renewable energy (nuclear power and fossil fuels (which includes (i) companies that have greater than 50% ownership of companies that own proved or probable reserves in coal, oil or gas, (ii) oil and gas production and supporting services, (iii) coal extraction, production and supporting services, (iv) oil and gas and thermal coal power generation, (v) extraction of arctic oil and gas and (vi) oil sands)), the Fund considers the following principal adverse impact indicator:

- Exposure to companies active in the fossil fuel sector

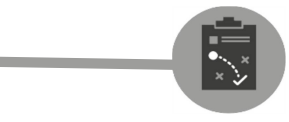

By excluding stocks of companies that the Index provider determines (a) to be engaged or involved in specific parts of the supply chain for, and / or (b) derive revenue (above a threshold specified by the Index provider) from certain activities relating to weapons (chemical & biological weapons, cluster munitions, anti-personnel landmines, nuclear weapons, civilian firearms, and conventional military weapons), the Fund considers the following principal adverse impact indicator:

- Exposure to controversial weapons (anti-personnel mines, cluster munitions, chemical weapons and biological weapons)

The third party data which is utilized by the Index Provider considers a number of norms and standards including those that are enshrined in the UN Global Compact and the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises. By excluding stocks of companies based on certain controversial conduct (which is achieved by excluding companies that meet certain criteria in relation to the United Nations Global Compact Principles regarding labour, human rights, environmental, and anti-corruption standards and other international norms, the Fund considers the following principal adverse impact indicator:

- Violations of UN Global Compact principles and OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises

☐ No

What investment strategy does this financial product follow?

The Investment strategy guides investment decisions based on factors such as investment objectives and risk tolerance.

The Fund employs a “passive management” – or indexing – investment approach, through physical acquisition of securities, designed to track the performance of the FTSE Developed Europe All Cap Choice Index. The Fund will invest in a portfolio of equity securities of companies located in developed markets in Europe. To the extent practicable, the Fund uses a full replication strategy to select securities, so that the Fund invests in all, or substantially all, of the constituents of the Index, making the weight of such investments approximate to those of the Index. By holding each stock in approximately the same proportion as its weighting in the Index, the Fund may have exposure to or invest up to 20% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund in stocks issued by the same body. This limit may be raised to 35% for a single issuer in exceptional market conditions which may include the dominance of a particular issuer in the relevant market. When not practicable to fully replicate, the Fund may use a sampling process to invest in a portfolio of securities that consists of a representative sample of the component securities of the Index.

What are the binding elements of the investment strategy used to select the investments to attain each of the environmental or social characteristics promoted by this financial product?

The binding element of the investment strategy is the exclusionary screening methodology, which is summarised in the section above headed "What environmental and / or social characteristics are promoted by this financial product?".

What is the committed minimum rate to reduce the scope of the investments considered prior to the application of that investment strategy?

Not applicable.

What is the policy to assess good governance practices of the investee companies?

Good governance practices include sound management structures, employee relations, remuneration of staff and tax compliance.

The assessment of good governance practices is incorporated into the Index methodology. The Index excludes the stocks of companies based on certain controversial conduct, which is achieved by excluding companies that meet the following criteria in relation to the United Nations Global Compact Principles and other international norms regarding labour, human rights, environmental, and anti-corruption standards:

- for large and mid-cap sized companies (as determined by the Index provider), those which have been deemed 'Non-Compliant' with such standards; and
- for small-cap size companies (as determined by the Index provider), those which have been deemed either 'Watchlist' or 'Non-Compliant' with such standards, in each case by reference to data provided by a third party data provider (further details of which may be obtained in the documents linked to in the 'Further information on the Index' section above).

What is the asset allocation planned for this financial product?

Asset allocation describes the share of investments in specific assets.

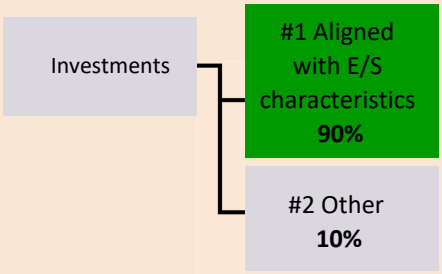

The binding element of the investment strategy is solely the exclusionary screening methodology of the Index. This excludes companies which are engaged in, or derive revenue from, certain activities, from the Index based on the impact of their conduct or products on society and / or the environment (as further described above).

It is expected that at least 90% of the Fund's assets will be invested in constituents of the Index and accordingly, are determined to be aligned with the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund.

Up to 10% of assets fall into the sub-category "#2 Other". These represent indirect exposures (including derivatives) which are used for efficient portfolio management purposes only. The Fund does not apply any minimum environmental or social safeguards to such investments. The Fund does not commit to make any sustainable investments.

Taxonomy-aligned activities are expressed as a share of:

- turnover reflecting the share of revenue from green activities of investee companies
- capital expenditure (CapEx) showing the green investments made by investee companies, e.g. for a transition to a green economy.
- operational expenditure (OpEx) reflecting green operational activities of investee companies.

#1 Aligned with E/S characteristics includes the investments of the financial product used to attain the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product.

#2 Other includes the remaining investments of the financial product which are neither aligned with the environmental or social characteristics, nor are

How does the use of derivatives attain the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product?

The Fund does not use derivatives to attain the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the Fund.

To what minimum extent are sustainable investments with an environmental objective aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

While the Fund promotes environmental and social characteristics, it does not commit to making sustainable investments (including environmentally sustainable investments within the meaning of the Taxonomy Regulation). As such, the Fund makes a minimum commitment of 0% in environmentally sustainable investments.

To comply with the EU Taxonomy, the criteria for fossil gas include limitations on emissions and switching to renewable power or low-carbon fuels by the end of 2035. For nuclear energy, the criteria include comprehensive safety and waste management rules.

Enabling activities directly enable other activities to make a substantial contribution to an environmental objective.

Transitional activities are activities for which low-carbon alternatives are not yet available and among others have greenhouse gas emission levels corresponding to the best performance.

Does the financial product invest in fossil gas and/or nuclear energy related[1] activities that comply with the EU Taxonomy?

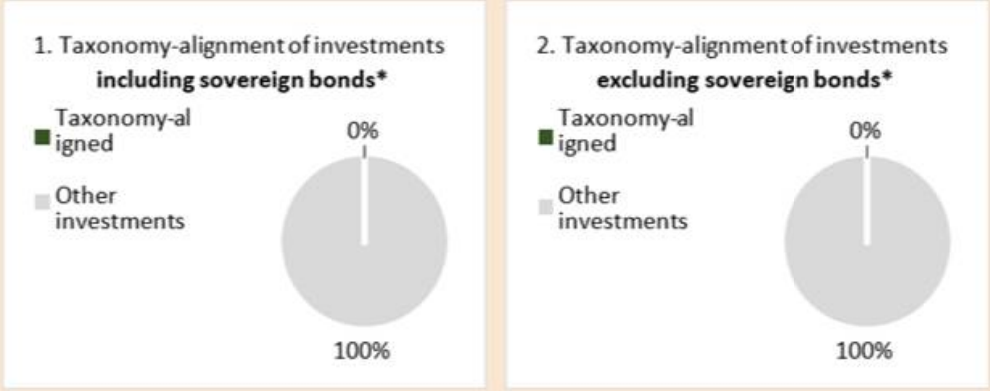

☐ Yes:

☐ In fossil gas ☐ In nuclear energy

☒ No

[1] Fossil gas and/or nuclear related activities will only comply with the EU Taxonomy where they contribute to limiting climate change ("climate change mitigation") and do not significantly harm any EU Taxonomy objective -see explanatory note in the left hand margin. The full criteria for fossil gas and nuclear energy economic activities that comply with the EU Taxonomy are laid down in Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2022/1214.

The two graphs below show in green the minimum percentage of investments that are aligned with the EU Taxonomy. As there is no appropriate methodology to determine the Taxonomy-alignment of sovereign bonds*, the first graph shows the Taxonomy alignment in relation to all the investments of the financial product including sovereign bonds, while the second graph shows the Taxonomy alignment only in relation to the investments of the financial product other than sovereign bonds.

 For the purpose of these graphs, 'sovereign bonds' consist of all sovereign exposures.*

are sustainable investments with an environmental objective that do not take into account the criteria for environmentally sustainable economic activities under the EU Taxonomy

What is the minimum share of investments in transitional and enabling activities?

Not applicable.

What is the minimum share of sustainable investments with an environmental objective that are not aligned with the EU Taxonomy?

Not applicable.

What is the minimum share of socially sustainable investments?

Not applicable.

What investments are included under "#2 Other", what is their purpose and are there any minimum environmental or social safeguards?

Up to 10% of assets fall into the sub-category "#2 Other". These represent indirect exposures (including derivatives) which are used for efficient portfolio management purposes only. The Fund does not apply any minimum environmental or social safeguards to such investments.

Reference benchmarks are indexes to measure whether the financial product attains the environmental or social characteristics that they promote.

Is a specific index designated as a reference benchmark to determine whether this financial product is aligned with the environmental and/or social characteristics that it promotes?

Yes, the Fund tracks the FTSE Developed Europe All Cap Choice Index to attain its environmental and social characteristics.

How is the reference benchmark continuously aligned with each of the environmental or social characteristics promoted by the financial product?

The Index rebalances on a quarterly basis, at which time the Parent Index (FTSE Developed Europe All Cap Index) is screened for the ESG exclusions criteria. Apart from scheduled rebalances, the Index Provider may carry out additional ad hoc rebalances to the Index in order, for example, to correct an error in the selection of Index constituents.

How is the alignment of the investment strategy with the methodology of the index ensured on a continuous basis?

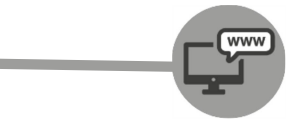

The Investment Manager monitors the Index and its exclusions on a regular basis to ensure the alignment of the investment strategy with the methodology of the index.

- How does the designated index differ from a relevant broad market index?

  The Index is constructed from the FTSE Developed Europe All Cap Index which is then screened for certain environmental, social, and corporate governance criteria by the Index provider, which is independent of Vanguard.

- Where can the methodology used for the calculation of the designated index be found?

  Further information provided by the Index provider in relation to the Index, including current details as to its exact composition, methodology, exclusions and any revenue thresholds, can be obtained at https://www.ftserussell.com/products/indices/global-choice. Additionally further details of the screening criteria including the involvement thresholds for inclusion can be found in the FTSE Global Choice Index Series Ground Rules. Product-related exclusions can be found in Appendix A and conduct-related exclusions can be found in the Controversies section of Appendix B: FTSE Russell Global Choice Index Ground Rules
